Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Irish Poetry Since 1950 John Goodby, 2000-12-15 Irish Poetry since 1950 is a survey of poetry from Northern Ireland the Republic Britain and the US covering the 1950s the 1960s the early period of the Troubles up to 1976 the 1980s and the 1990s The Poetic Economists of England and Ireland 1912-2000 D. Johnston, 2001-08-08 Although modern English and Irish poetry arises from the different cultures of the two countries these poets have shared throughout this century the same editors and publishers competed for the same prizes and been judged ostensibly by the same standards This book examines contexts for these exchanges over four decades tracing the lineages of Yeats and Hardy from their meeting in 1912 through WWI the 30s the 60s and the 90s to see what influences and ideas are exchanged and how poetic value accrues Collected Poems, 1956-1994 Thomas Kinsella, 1996 The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Poetry Jahan Ramazani, 2017-02-27 This Companion is the first to explore postcolonial poetry through regional historical political formal textual and gender approaches International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense Poetry & Geography Neal Alexander, David

Cooper, 2013-05-22 Collected critical essays examine contemporary poetry in terms of cultural geography Key themes are place and identity literary cartographies walking as trope and spatial practice the poetics of edges margins and peripheries landscape language and form New England Review, 1997 Light, Freedom and Song David Pierce, 2005-01-01 In this absorbing analysis of modern Irish writing an acknowledged expert considers the hybrid character of modern Irish writing to show how language culture and history have been affected by the colonial encounter between Ireland and Britain Examining the great themes of loss and struggle David Pierce traces the impact on Irish writing of the Great Famine and cultural nationalism and considers the way the work of Ireland's two leading writers W B Yeats and James Joyce complicate and elucidate our view of the harp and the crown The book draws a contrast between the West of Ireland in the 1930s when the new Irish State enjoyed its first full independent decade and the North of Ireland in the 1980s when the spectre of British imperialism threatened the stability of Ireland Pierce then surveys contemporary Irish writing and reflects on the legacy of the colonial encounter and on the passage to a postmodern or postnationalist Ireland in the work of such crucial living writers as John Banville Derek Mahon and John McGahern Irish Poetry W. J. McCormack, 2002-04 In this avowedly interpretative anthology of Irish verse W J McCormack traces creativity of contradiction through several centuries finding poets productively at odds with their forebears their contemporaries even with themselves From Yeats's tragic laughter to the quieter ironies of Seamus Heaney from the rambunctious narratives of Merriman and Joyce to the pathos of Wilde's Reading Gaol the same sparring spirit is found The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 Donald Allen, 1999 Donald Allen's prophetic anthology had an electrifying effect on two generations at least of American poets and readers More than the repetition of familiar names and ideas that most anthologies seem to be about here was the declaration of a collective intelligent and thoroughly visionary work in progress the primary example for its time of the anthology as manifesto Its republication today complete with poems statements on poetics and autobiographical projections provides us again with a model of how a contemporary anthology can and should be shaped In these essentials it remains as fresh and useful a guide as it was in 1960 Jerome Rothenberg editor of Poems for the Millennium The New American Poetry is a crucial cultural document central to defining the poetics and the broader cultural dynamics of a particular historical moment Alan Golding author of From Outlaw to Classic Canons in American Poetry Poetry Today Anthony Thwaite, 2016-04-15 This is the most authoritative and up to date survey of contemporary British poetry 1960 1995 It is the third version but second edition published by Longman of a successful survey that first appeared 30 years ago and provides a succinct and accessible overview of British poets movements and themes ideal for English courses and the general reader alike International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and
