American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author s career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States The Search for English-Canadian Literature Carl

Ballstadt,1975-12-15 The search for a distinctive Canadian literature is not new It began in the 1820s and even then involved many of the same issues that concern critics today Much of this early material is now inaccessible to most Canadians Carl Ballstadt has selected for this volume a number of the most importance statements from a century of growth The pieces come from essays prefaces and editorials published between 1823 and 1926 in a variety of works including the major literary periodicals of the time Among the authors are Thomas D Arcy McGee Sara Jeannette Duncan Daniel Wilson Goldwin Smith G Mercer Adam Pelham Edgar J D Robins J D Logan and Charles Mair The major themes they treated with frequent diversity of views are the kind of writing best suited to a new country the economic and spiritual barriers to the creation of literature the feasibility of creating a national literature the need for serious criticism the relationship between European traditions and the developing Canadian imagination Canada s northern character the advantages of two cultural streams and the significance of Canadian achievements in poetry This book provides essential background to anyone concerned with the path Canadian literature followed to modern times Soundings in Context Judith Goldman,James Maynard,2024-05-01

Renowned poets and scholars address the question of how poetry sounds and signifies in different contexts Soundings in Context brings together the second and third University at Buffalo Robert Creeley Lectures in Poetry and Poetics by the renowned literary and textual scholar Jerome McGann and the innovative prolific Canadian poet essayist and novelist Lisa Robertson respectively The volume s first half presents McGann s Reading I Mean Articulating Poetry a Multi Player Game with responses by Nikolaus Wasmoen and Steve McCaffery the second presents Lisa Robertson s Dous Chantar Refrain for a Nightingale with responses by Shannon Maguire and Liz Howard Initially given at different moments and since revised the pieces considered in the lectures range widely moving from the Romantics and medieval troubadour poetry to T S Eliot Jackson Mac Low Jacques Rouboud and far beyond Still they are collectively concerned with questions of voice recitation and reception in different contexts with sonic patterning and its modes of significance and with foregrounding an embodied experience of oral and written language as opposed to its interpretation McGann Robertson and their interlocutors all propose affective pragmatic approaches to poetry that allow it to surface as materially formative alive and lived Reading their contributions together offers an opportunity to see how these values present themselves in differing cultures of poetic scenography across space and time Modern Sonneteers, Hilary Mantel, and Critical Letters Ethan Lewis,2021-01-13

This series of critiques serves to help demarcate as well as add to three specific literary forums The first section of the book Modern Sonneteers discusses the genre plied by countless pens since Petrarch's inception of the sonnet honed by Shakespeare and cultivated through Donne Milton Keats and Wordsworth among others showing that it thrives still The twentieth century yielded a second Sonnet Golden Age reminiscent of the first at the apex of the English Renaissance Auden Borges Cummings Larkin and Stokes comprise part of the cadre of recent masters The second part of the book Homage to Hilary Mantel comprises half a dozen pieces on a pre eminent novelist of our time whose most notable achievement The Thomas Cromwell Trilogy enshrines and reconceives an earlier time In counterpoint to her historical fiction literary analyses of Mantel are of necessity new The essays gathered here shed light on her work and spur further inquiry The third section Critical Letters in Critical Times compasses pensees written to students colleagues and friends regarding Shakespeare Borges Nabokov Wordsworth Tarrt Schmidt poetry and ethics and the sublime Most of this work is predicated on our unprecedented circumstances ensuing from the COVID 19 pandemic It stands to reason that our literary analyses will be colored by our situation for some critical times to come

Expanding Authorship Peter Middleton, 2021-06 Expanding Authorship collects important essays by Peter Middleton that show the many ways in which in a world of proliferating communications media poetry making is increasingly the work of agencies extending beyond that of a single identifiable author In four sections Sound Communities Collaboration and Complexity Middleton demonstrates that this changing situation of poetry requires new understandings of the variations of authorship He explores the internal divisions of lyric subjectivity the vicissitudes of coauthorship and poetry networks the creative role of editors and anthologists and the ways in which the long poem can reveal the outer limits of authorship Readers and scholars of Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams George Oppen Frank O'Hara Robert Duncan Robert Creeley Jerome Rothenberg Susan Howe Lyn Hejinian Nathaniel Mackey and Rae Armantrout will find much to learn and enjoy in this groundbreaking volume
