folklorist J Frank Dobie In the 1950s she accepted an invitation to lecture at the University of Texas at Austin During her visit to present that lecture Porter began to believe that UT would build a library and name it after her Texas most famous literary daughter But somehow she and UT President Harry Ransom miscommunicated and Porter left her materials to the McKeldin Library at the University of Maryland Finally in 1976 she returned to Texas to receive recognition from Howard Payne University in Brownwood On that trip she visited her mother s grave in the little cemetery at Indian Creek and decided that her remains on her death belonged beside her mother So Porter finally returned to the state she had fled early in her life The essays in this collection are based primarily upon a symposium held in May 1998 at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos The collection includes essays by both scholars of Porter s work and of Texas literature Some concern specific aspects of her life such as her love for her birthday or her marital record Others focus on the main elements of her relationship with Texas while still others deal with specific works often relating them to her Texas heritage This important addition to Porter studies provides new insight into the ways in which Porter s Texas heritage shaped her life and her fiction
