A Method of Selecting Foreign Stories for the American Elementary Schools Chung I Shang, 1929 Translating Canada Luise von Flotow, Reingard M. Nischik, 2007-10-25 In the last thirty years of the twentieth century Canadian federal governments offered varying degrees of support for literary and other artistic endeavour A corollary of this patronage of culture at home was an effort to make the resulting works available for audiences elsewhere in the world Current developments in the study of translation and its influence as cultural transfer have made possible new assessments of such efforts to project a national image abroad Translating Canada examines cultural materials exported by Canada in addition to those selected for acquisition by German publishers theatres and other culture brokers It also considers the motivations of particular translators and the reception by German reviewers of works by a wide variety of Canadian writers novelists and poets playwrights and children s authors literary and social critics Above all the book maps for its readers a number of significant though frequently unsuspected roles that translation assumes in the intercultural negotiation of national images and values The chapters in this collection will be of value to students teachers and scholars in a number of fields Informed lay readers too will appreciate the authors insights into the different ways in which translation has contributed to German reception of Canadian books and culture Translating Canada examines cultural materials exported by Canada in addition to those selected for acquisition by German publishers theatres and other culture brokers It also considers the motivations of particular translators and the reception by German reviewers of works by a wide variety of Canadian writers Published in English Select Travel Stories from the Different Regions of the Philippines Ivan Jose,Ukiyoto Publishing,2020-10-31 This book is a collection of travel stories from the various regions of the Philippines

Fiction Treasures by Maritime Writers Gwendolyn Davies,2015-08-13 Though little known today from 1860 to 1940 Canadian novelists from the Maritime provinces were writing highly successful books which were widely read in Canada the US and Britain Although today only Lucy Maud Montgomery is remembered and read there were several dozen writers who enjoyed the same level of success and renown This book brings these authors and their most successful books back into the spotlight of Canadian writing In 2001 Canadian literature specialist Gwen Davies and Formac publisher James Lorimer set out to republish books by these largely forgotten Maritime authors Readers can now discover 35 of their novels all reprinted in Formac s Fiction Treasures series For each book series editor Gwen Davies commissioned an introduction by a contemporary scholar who offers a brief biography of the writer and a discussion of the text itself As Gwen Davies notes These introductions not only capture new research in literary biography or publishing history but also broaden our understanding of regional popular reading tastes from the era of Queen Victoria to the Second World War This book brings these introductory essays together in a single volume so that readers can discover these writers and get an overview of their best works Moral Tales: Or, A Selection of Interesting Stories Samuel Griswold Goodrich,1840 Selected Stories of H. G. Wells H. G. Wells,2007-12-18 Ursula K Le Guin s selection of twenty six stories showcases H G Wells s genius and reintroduces readers to his singular talent for making the unbelievable seem utterly plausible He envisioned a sky filled with airplanes before Orville Wright ever left the ground He described the spectacle of space travel decades before men set foot on the moon H G Wells was a visionary a man of science with an enduring literary touch and his originality and inventiveness are fully on display in this essential collection Wells imagined both dark and bright futures because his creed allowed both while promising neither and because the eighty years of his life were years of immense intellectual and technological accomplishment and appalling violence and destruction Ursula K Le Guin from the introduction Everything one imagines in the way of genius and fun Rebecca West Including these stories A Slip Under the Microscope The Remarkable

Case of Davidson s Eyes The Plattner Story Under the Knife The Crystal Egg The New Accelerator The Stolen Body The Argonauts of the Air In the Abyss The Star The Land Ironclads A Dream of Armageddon The Lord of the Dynamos The Valley of Spiders The Story of the Late Mr Elvesham The Man Who Could Work Miracles The Magic Shop Mr Skelmersdale in Fairyland The Door in the Wall The Presence by the Fire A Vision of Judgment The Story of the Last Trump The Wild Asses of the Devil Answer to Prayer The Queer Story of Brownlow s Newspaper The Country of the Blind List of Books for Township Libraries in the State of Wisconsin for the Years 1910 and 1911 Wisconsin.
