Selected Writings Simón Bolívar, 1951 Circular of Information ... Northwestern University (Evanston, Ill.). College of Liberal Arts, 1929 Bulletin Northwestern University (Evanston, Ill.), 1928 Strange Pilgrimages Ingrid Elizabeth Fey, Karen Racine, 2000 This fascinating collection of essays and articles shows how Latin Americans travels and residency abroad helped them re-examine their own origins and perceptions of their homeland Latin Americans traveled both purposefully and frequently in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Strange Pilgrimages reveals their experiences in Europe and the United States and explores their power to shape opinions and bring outside influence back to Latin America. This new book analyzes Latin Americans' longstanding attraction to and interest in other cultures as barometers of their own progress. In addition, Strange Pilgrimages examines the invention of tradition, cultural practice and identity formation among nation states. A combination of articles and primary sources provides readers with both informed analysis of the experiences of Latin American travellers and entertaining first-hand accounts from the travellers and exiles themselves. These travellers were a diverse group that included artists, diplomats, political exiles, athletes, dilettantes and more. Readers will learn that Latin Americans came to understand their homelands better and in fact helped to define their own countries' identities through their experiences traveling and living abroad.

This brief history connects the past and present of utopian thought from the first utopias in ancient Greece right up to present-day visions of cyberspace communities and paradise. Explores the purpose of utopias, what they reveal about the societies who conceive them and how utopias have changed over the centuries. Unique in including both non-Western and Western visions of utopia.
