The Book Buyer's Guide, 1966

Guy Debord's Politics of Communication Edward John Matthews, 2023-11-02 Drawing on published works as well as personal correspondences written between 1948-1994 this book conceptualizes Guy Debord's politics of communication and how it sought to undermine the hierarchical monological language of the spectacle Matthews traces Debord's search for critical communication strategies that could subvert the reified language of manufacturing from the philosopher's early activities in anti-aesthetic terrorism e.g. the neo-poem metagraphics and d tournament to advocating forms of horizontal communication between autonomous revolutionary groups or individuals using native language Matthews ultimately finds that to critique the language of the spectacle Debord relied on the power of the negative to speak the ironic language of contradiction of critical theory and of the incommunicable

Sexuality Beyond Consent Avgi Saketopoulou, 2023-02-07 Radical alternatives to consent and trauma Arguing that we have become culturally obsessed with healing trauma Sexuality Beyond Consent calls attention to what traumatized subjects do with their pain The erotics of racism offers a paradigmatic example of how what is proximal to violation may become an unexpected site of flourishing Central to the transformational possibilities of trauma is a queer form of consent limit consent that is not about guarding the self but about risking experience Saketopoulou thereby shows why sexualities beyond consent may be worth risking and how risk can solicit the future Moving between clinical and cultural case studies Saketopoulou takes up theatrical and cinematic works such as Slave Play and The Night Porter to chart how trauma and sexuality join forces to surge through the aesthetic domain Putting the psychoanalytic theory of Jean Laplanche in conversation with queer of color critique performance studies and philosophy Sexuality Beyond Consent proposes that enduring the strange in ourselves not to master trauma but to rub up against it can open us up to encounters with opacity The book concludes by theorizing currents of sadism that when pursued ethically can animate unique forms of interpersonal and social care with demons grotesques and bizarre apparitions the graphic work of Odilon Redon has often seemed to be the product of a mind unhinged In The Temptation of Saint Redon Stephen F Eisenman argues instead that these works are Redon's conscious and considered response to changing social realities an attempt to find refuge from the forces of modernization in an imaginative world of the macabre and the fantastic Eisenman's careful attention to the circumstances of Redon's life 1840-1916 allows him to bring into focus the interconnections between Redon's complex style and the culture and society of his time Born and raised on a sixteenth century estate near Bordeaux Redon was immersed as a child in traditional rural culture I spent my entire childhood in the M doc completely free among peasant children he recalled in his memoirs I heard them tell supernatural tales witches still exist there Indeed local tales and legends of witches ghosts one eyed monsters evil eyes and wood fairies figure prominently in Redon's graphic works which he called his noirs or blacks After formal training at Bordeaux and Paris in the 1850s and 1860s Redon began to chart his independent artistic course Eisenman shows how rejecting both naturalism and classicism Redon a prototypical Symbolist found in grotesque and epic genres the expression of organic communities and precapitalist societies He places Redon's desire for this imagined world of superstitious simplicity a desire manifest in his entire mature artistic practice in the context of contemporary avant garde movements Redon's great noirs of the 1870s and 1880s dreamlike configurations of seemingly irreconcilable elements from portraits still lifes and landscapes show an increasingly subtle control of connotation and a complex indebtedness to caricature allegory and puns Many of the noirs also visually interpret works by like minded authors including Baudelaire Flaubert Poe and Mallarmé one of Redon's close friends Eisenman's analysis of the noirs underscores Redon's interest in creating an imaginative even fantastic art that could act directly on the human spirit In addition to deepening our understanding of Redon and his art The Temptation of Saint Redon exposes a link between place politics personal history and the artistic imagination
