Global Era Bill Green,Per-Olof Erixon,2020-11-24 This book brings together a range of scholars from 10 different countries to address the contemporary state of play in national standard language education i e the L1 subjects It seeks to understand the field from within a comparative historical and transnational frame Four thematic threads are woven through the volume educationalisation globalisation pluriculturalism and technologization The chapters range over various aspects of L1 as a school subject literature language and literacy reading and writing media and digital technology the dialogue between curriculum inquiry and Didaktik studies the continuing relevance of Bildung the significance of history and nation and new challenges of culture and environment in the face of climate change The book concludes with a reflection on the prospects for L1 education today and tomorrow in a now thoroughly globalised context and accordingly deeply implicated in a necessary new project of nation re building World Yearbook of Education 2003 Jill Bourne,Euan Reid,2003-12-16 The issues raised by the role of language in education are some of the most important and contentious faced by education systems across the globe. Language is embedded in the concepts of nationhood and identity and is therefore directly linked to the very social and political fabric of a country. In a climate of increasing globalisation, development and mobility of populations, nations around the world are concerned with the tension between cultivating a sense of cultural and linguistic cohesion and making use of the linguistic diversity that exists in every country and region. This book examines the implications and impacts, the dilemmas and potential for language education in relation to education systems and wider society. Split into three key parts, it considers current issues in language education including the role of language in maintaining power and inequalities, in encouraging participation and inclusion and in challenging the status quo; different approaches to language education around the world; the potential for language to provide opportunities for the disadvantaged; illustrated by case studies of three cities. This recent volume of the internationally respected World Yearbook of Education continues the tradition of offering a wide range of international perspectives from leading commentators on a universal concern. The material amassed here will be essential reading for teacher educators, education researchers and school leaders across the world.

Dialect and Education Jenny Cheshire, 1989. All European countries face educational problems that result from the co-existence of a national standard variety of language and a range of indigenous dialects. There has been a considerable amount of serious research into the issues during the last 25 years, particularly in Continental Europe, but until now relatively little of this research has been published in English.

Multiliteracies in International Educational Contexts Gabriela C. Zapata, Mary Kalantzis, Bill Cope, 2023-12-22. Multiliteracies in International Educational Contexts: Towards Education Justice examines how multiliteracies and Learning by Design have been taken up across international second language instructional contexts with a focus on inclusive practices and social justice. This edited collection brings together a team of international contributors to offer a global perspective on the application of multiliteracies in L2 education. Through the analysis of classroom-based qualitative and quantitative data on different aspects of the multiliteracies pedagogy, the book shows how the multiliteracies pedagogy can facilitate more inclusive practices while providing suggestions for pedagogical interventions and future research. This book will be a key resource for language educators, researchers and practitioners interested in the multiliteracies pedagogy as well as those interested in critical and social justice approaches to language teaching.

 Using Language M.A.K. Halliday,John Gibbons,Howard Nicholas,1990-01-01 This volume contains selected papers from the Eight World Congress of Applied Linguistics held in Sydney in 1987 Volume I starts off with an overview of the field by G Richard Tucker in which he identifies two areas innovative language education and language education policy The overall focus of the papers to follow focus on the individual language learner how that individual in given contexts or in interaction with specific others develops a command of a first language of two or more first languages or of a second language in home and in classroom settings At the same time cutting across these variables there is a gradual shifting of attention from investigations of the language learning process to proposals for language teaching curricula and syllabuses Language Policy and Economics: The Language Question in Africa Nkonko M. Kamwangamalu,2016-04-23 This book addresses the perennial question of how to promote Africa s indigenous languages as medium of instruction in educational systems Breaking with the traditional approach to the continent s language question by focusing on the often overlooked issue of the link between African languages and economic development Language Policy and Economics argues that African languages are an integral part of a nation s socio political and economic development Therefore the book argues that any language policy designed to promote these languages in such higher domains as the educational system in particular must have economic advantages if the intent is to succeed and proposes Prestige Planning as the way to address this issue The proposition is a welcome break away from language policies which pay lip service to the empowerment of African languages while by default strengthening the stranglehold of imported European languages The Selected Works of Maulana
