The Baltic philosopher Vasily Sesemann 1884 1963 rooted in the Classics and influenced but not dominated by Kant Herder Bergson Husserl and Lossky was a first rate scholar in the fields of aesthetics epistemology logic and history of philosophy But he is still relatively unknown internationally because he wrote mostly in Lithuanian and some of his many works are only now being translated into English This successor volume to his Aesthetics collects eight noteworthy essays ranging from the scholarly to the popular on aesthetics aesthetic education national culture and theory of knowledge They reveal a sympathetic and responsive mind equally at home in Ancient Greek and modern French German and Russian philosophy and capable both of untendentiously expounding their dominant ideas and fruitfully anticipating newer developments even as the latter began to take shape in early to mid 20th century Western European philosophy Hallmarks of Sesemann's thought are the Heraclitean preference for becoming dynamism change over being stasis timelessness and the idea that any culture in order to survive and grow must be intellectually deep and open to foreign influences This insight has crucial relevance to the debates about multiculturalism today
