Bride of Ice Marina Tsvetaeva, 2023-01-26 Marina Tsvetaeva is among the great European poets of the twentieth century With Anna Akhmatova Boris Pasternak and Osip Mandelstam she retained her humanity and integrity through Russia's terrible years of the Great Terror Even in her long tragic exile her roots were in Russia and the great tradition of Russian poetry Her voice lives in part because it remains alert to her past and to cultures especially French where she spent her exile When Elaine Feinstein first read Tsvetaeva's poems in the 1960s they transformed her Their intensity and honesty spoke to her directly To her first translations published to acclaim in 1971 she added in later years not least the sequence Girlfriend dedicated to her lover Sofia Parnok Feinstein published Tsvetaeva's biography in 1987

My Poems Andrey Kneller, 2008-04-18 Selected poems 1909-1938

At the Edge Marina Tsvetaeva, 2025-11-11 Marina Tsvetaeva's political poems a crucial part of her sensibility and life's work have largely been neglected in English language translation Emphasized instead are poems she wrote about her tumultuous personal and romantic relationships an emphasis that suggests a gendered reading of the poet as an extreme personality rather than a poet responding to the extremity of her time In fact Tsvetaeva was deeply attuned to the political circumstances in which she lived and she wrote extensively and incisively about them To erase this part of the poet and her work domesticates and exoticizes her and ignores her reality At the Edge seeks to correct this misreading of Tsvetaeva's work by bringing together a selection of her political poems many of them never before translated into English at a moment in our own culture when they are acutely relevant

Art in the Light of Conscience Marina Tsvetaeva, 1992 Select essays most of which have never been available in translation before display the dazzlingly original prose style and the powerful dialogic voice of a poet who would like to make art s mystery accessible without diminishing it The essays provide incomparable insight on poetry the poetic process and what it means to be a poet The volume offers among many fascinating topics a celebration of the poetry of Pasternak and reflections on the lives and works of Gods and Mortals Nina Kossman,2001-03-22 For centuries poets have looked into the mirror of classical myth to show us the many ways our emotional lives are still reflected in the ancient stories of heroism hubris transformation and loss that myths so eloquently tell Now in Gods and Mortals Modern Poems on Classical Myths we have the first anthology to gather the great 20th century myth inspired poems from around the world Perhaps it is because the myths echo the structure of our unconscious that every new generation of poets finds them a source of inspiration and self recognition says Nina Kossman in her introduction to this marvelous collection Indeed from Valery Yeats Lawrence Rilke Akhmatova and Auden writing in the first half of the century to such contemporary poets as Lucille Clifton Derek Walcott Rita Dove Wislawa Szymborska and Mark Strand the material of Greek myth has elicited a poetry of remarkably high achievement And by organizing the poems first into broad categories such as Heroes Lovers Trespassers and secondly around particular mythological figures such as Persephone Orpheus or Narcissus readers are treated to a fascinating spectrum of poems on the same subject For example the section on Odysseus includes poems by Cavafy W S Merwin Gregory Corso Gabriel Zaid Louise Gluck Wallace Stevens and many others Thus we are allowed to see the familiar Greek hero refracted through the eyes and sharply varying stylistic approaches of a wide range of poets from around the world Here then is a collection of extraordinary poems that testifies to and amply rewards our ongoing fascination with classical myth My Poems Andrey Kneller,2014 A Captive Spirit Marina I. Tsvetaeva,1994-01 A Captive Spirit shows Marina Tsvetaeva s genius at the peak of its power The selections are from her mature period the 1930s and include almost all of her autobiographical writings her major literary portraits and her literary criticism Exiled in Paris and isolated in the emigre community during this period Tsvetaeva became increasingly aware of the importance of biography history and myth Her famous portraits of the poets Maximilian Voloshin and Andrei Bely reveal her remarkable capacities as an eyewitness while her moving accounts of her father and mother sisters and brother seen through a child s eyes comprise the most lyrical of family chronicles The final section of the book juxtaposing two works of literary criticism demonstrates her formidable critical and analytical intelligence Tsvetaeva composed her prose to be read aloud and these essays full of extraordinary vitality reflect the urgency of one who writes to discover the essential truths hidden in the past A Captive Spirit is a remarkable collection of work from as Vladimir Nabokov described her a writer of genius The Encarta Book of Quotations Bill Swainson,2000-09-30 Here are 25 000 quotations drawn from the history politics literature religions science and popular culture of the world ranging from the earliest Chinese sages through Shakespeare to the present day The Literature of Lesbianism Terry Castle,2003 Since the Renaissance countless writers have been magnetized by the notion of
