Theater of Memory Mark Perlberg, 2012-10-12 Winner of the L E Phillabaum Poetry Award Gifted with a unique and elemental style that goes to the heart of things often with Zenlike simplicity Mark Perlberg published four books of poetry over the course of his long and accomplished life At the time of his death in 2008 he was in the process of putting together Theater of Memory a collection of his best poems both published and unpublished which he saw as the summation of his life s work His wife Anna Nussy Perlberg completed the manuscript and contributed an afterword to the collection Moving and unpretentious the poems range from verses about the poet s childhood including the early death of his father to pieces in conversation with Chinese poet T ao Ch ien to poignant poems about his grandson A slowly deflating helium balloon becomes a meditation on aging and the urgency to teach his grandson to remember in perilous times to keep something of himself for himself

The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors

Map to the Stars Adrian Matejka, 2017-03-28 A resonant new collection of poetry from Adrian Matejka author of The Big Smoke a finalist for The Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Award Map to the Stars the fourth poetry collection from National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize finalist Adrian Matejka navigates the tensions between race geography and poverty in America during the Reagan Era In the time of space shuttles and the Strategic Defense Initiative outer space is the only place equality seems possible even as the stars serve to both guide and obscure the earthly complexities of masculinity and migration In Matejka s poems hope is the link between the convoluted realities of being poor and the inspiring possibilities of transcendence and escape whether it comes from Star Trek the dream of being one of the first black astronauts or Sun Ra s cosmic jazz

Bleed Through Michael Davidson, 2013-12-03 The best of Davidson s forty year career these poems grapple with larger philosophical questions through the sieve of language and form

Box Robert Wrigley, 2017-03-28 A powerful new collection from an acclaimed award winning poet With nine previously published collections of poetry Robert Wrigley has become one of his generation s most accomplished poets renowned for his irony power and lucid style and for his ability to fuse narrative and lyrical impulses Wrigley s tenth collection Box is a book of poems obsessed with human containment with the way people are contained or confined by time mortality technology identity culture and history in almost everything they are and everything they do Even the body even the poem itself is in this regard a kind of self containing crate in which the human being perhaps the human spirit is shipped into the world at large But Box is also a book obsessed with escape from containment and escape comes from dreams from deep awareness from contemplation from love and above all as Wallace Stevens insisted from the imagination pressing back against the pressure of reality The poems in Box aim to do nothing less than help people live their lives as Stevens put it

After Every War , 2013-10-31 They are nine women with much in common all German speaking all poets all personal witnesses to the horror and devastation that was World War II Yet in this deeply moving collection each provides a singularly personal glimpse into the effects of war on language place poetry and womanhood After Every War is a book of translations of women poets living in Europe in the decades before and after World War II Rose Ausländer Elisabeth Langgässer Nelly Sachs Gertrud Kolmar Else Lasker-Schüler Ingeborg Bachmann Marie Luise Kaschnitz Dagmar Nick and Hilde Domin Several of the writers are Jewish and therefore also witnesses and participants in one of the darkest occasions of human cruelty the Holocaust Their poems as well as those of the other writers provide a unique biography of the time but with a difference These poets see public events through the lens of deep private losses They chart the small occasions the bittersweet family ties the fruit dish on a table the lost soul arriving at a railway station in other words the sheer ordinariness through which cataclysm is experienced and by which life is cruelly shattered They reclaim these moments and draw the reader into them The poems are translated and introduced with biographical notes on the authors by renowned Irish poet Eavan Boland Her interest in the topic is not abstract As an Irish woman she has observed the heartbreaking effects of violence on her own country Her experience has drawn her closer to these nine poets enabling her to render into English the beautiful ruminative quality of their work and to present their poems for what they are documentaries of resilience of language of music and of the human spirit in the hardest of times      Signatures

David Pryce-Jones, 2020-04-28 David Pryce Jones weaves a vivid life story through vignettes of the many famous authors friends acquaintances interview subjects who gave him personally inscribed books In Signatures he offers a window onto the lives and work of these extraordinary people As a child Pryce Jones spent time at Isaiah Berlin's house As a teenager lunching with Bernard Berenson at I Tatti he prompted an outburst about Parisian anti-Semitism W H Auden found him at Oxford to praise his competition poem and he later visited Auden in his loft studio in Austria Svetlana Alliluyeva reminisced about her father Joseph Stalin while staying at the Pryce Jones house in Wales A highbrow salon gathered in the home of Arthur Koestler who strove to be an English gentleman and who was with Pryce Jones in Reykjavik covering the Fischer-Spassky chess match Saul Bellow spoke of an old friend now a capo famiglia promising to deal with student rioters in 1968 Chicago After swapping houses with Pryce Jones one summer Jessica Mitford insisted that he would have been a Communist in the 1930s Robert Graves challenged a quotation from Virgil and told the Queen that she was a descendant of Muhammad We meet V S Naipaul a free spirit who understood that the world is what it is Muriel Spark would come round for lunch with the Pryce Joneses in Florence enjoying conspiratorial stories about Italian politics At his sepulchral home in Heidelberg Albert Speer demonstrated his way of admitting a little to deny a great deal In Isaac Singer we see generosity candor and mischievous humor This is only a small sampling of the remarkable personalities who have left their signatures on a fascinating life

Burrows, 2016-12-01 The anthology spans the first ten years of the poetry series at Paraclete Press Included are poems by Phyllis Tickle Scott Cairns Paul Mariani Anna Kamienska Fr John Julian SAID Bonnie Thurston Greg Miller William Woolfitt Rami Shapiro Thomas Lynch Paul Quenon and Rainer Maria Rilke The Selected Letters of John Berryman John Berryman, 2020-10-13 A wide ranging first of its kind selection of Berryman's correspondence with friends loved ones writers and editors showcasing the turbulent fascinating life and mind of one of America's major poets The Selected Letters of John Berryman assembles for the first time the poet's voluminous correspondence Beginning with a letter to his parents in 1925 and concluding with a letter sent a few weeks before his death in 1972 Berryman tells his story in his own words Included are more than 600 letters to almost 200 people editors family members students colleagues and friends The exchanges reveal the scope of Berryman's ambitions as well as the challenges of practicing his art within the confines of the publishing industry and contemporary critical expectations Correspondence with Ezra Pound Robert Lowell Delmore Schwartz Adrienne Rich Saul Bellow and other writers demonstrates Berryman's sustained involvement in the development of literary culture in the postwar United States We also see Berryman responding in detail to the work of writers such as Carolyn Kizer and William Meredith and encouraging the next generation Edward Hoagland Valerie Trueblood and others The letters show Berryman to be an energetic and generous interlocutor but they also make plain his struggles with personal and familial trauma at every stage of his career An introduction by editors Philip Coleman and Calista McRae explains the careful selection of letters and contextualizes the materials within Berryman's career Reinforcing the critical and creative interconnectedness of Berryman's work and personal life The Selected Letters confirms his place as one of the most original voices of his generation and opens new horizons for appreciating and interpreting his poems Selected Prose Nissim

Ezekiel,1992 Nissim Ezekiel is arguably the most influential modern Indian poet writing in English Here for the first time is a collection of his less well known but equally important prose writings Including essays journalism and introductions to other books these pieces cover a wide range of topics including literature art television and philosophy Written with an underlying unity of style and approach this selection represents a significant body of work diverse in subject and rich in ideas Still Pilgrim Angela Alaimo O'Donnell,2017-03-01 Still Pilgrim is a collection of poems that chronicles the universal journey of life as seen through the eyes of a keenly observant friend and fellow traveler The reader accompanies the Still Pilgrim as she navigates the experiences that constitute her private history yet also serve to remind us of our own moments of enlightenment epiphany and encounter with mystery Each of the 58 poems of the collection marks a way station along the pilgrimage a kind of holy well where the Pilgrim and reader might stop and draw knowledge solace joy and the strength to continue along the path The Consequence of Moonlight Sofia Starnes,2018-04-01 The act of writing poetry for Sofia Starnes is a getting out of the way so that a poem might occur a poem that must itself become a place of resonance where the reader might recognize a voice otherwise unheard The Consequence of Moonlight is a poetic invitation to an awareness of an underlying Presence it is also a call to be present as a loving witness of valuable and vulnerable things Why moonlight Because the moon has no light of its own it lives on borrowed light as we do The moon is best perceived and most needed in the dark fulfilling itself in absence It is both here and there as is often true for saints whose luminosity is seen as lunacy in the world With uncommon prosodic and linguistic elegance Sofia Starnes brings to the onetime familiar an exhilarating vividness a re vision that avails the story's ongoing opening continuing agency Scott Cairns author of Slow Pilgrim The Collected Poems and other works Complexly ordered and layered musically delivered frequently profound and brilliantly sensuous Starnes newest collection carries us through the life of humans and the life of Christ Her deeply intelligent poems demand our attention and reward it with the wizardry with which she builds and shapes her lines There is wit too and poems that respond to biblical and exegetical quotations This is not an easy book yet how bruising brave the larkspur's blue becomes how lover heart the roses Resurrection is here remade fresh new vital and within grasp Kelly Cherry author of The Life and Death of Poetry Poems and other works How aptly titled The Consequence of Moonlight is Here you will find a treasury of poems filled with an exquisite beauty and a kind of celestial music one rarely hears in contemporary poetry But these lyrics these songs come with a warning with its invitation Reader you will have to slow down and allow the transforming moonlight of these lines to enter into your own sacred space Starnes is at pains to erase herself as much as she can to allow the reader to discover something deep and profound within oneself Welcome to a charged and grace lit inner world where you are not to put a name on everything you think you find here but by warming yourself in this garden of delights might return a changed person and the better for it Paul Mariani author of Deaths Transfigurations and other works Although the answers to the big questions may be different for each of us the questions remain the same and Sofia Starnes is a poet who asks all the right questions In the fine poems collected in The Consequence of Moonlight we get a rare reward the observations and insights of a talented and thoughtful poet attempting to examine the world through a spiritual lens David Bottoms author of We Almost Disappear and other works In her new collection The Consequence of Moonlight Sofia Starnes considers the nature of home of children of the creation where we live as creatures of God In one striking line she writes God digs into his resurrection And in these poems Starnes digs into the incarnation Though the poems often seem ethereal and even otherworldly basking in the reflected light of the moon they have an edge They mark that membrane shared by body and soul I have written elsewhere that Starnes is part of the great tradition of poets from Solomon to John Donne who marry sensuality to religious belief Her new poems remain part of that tradition We are lucky to have them Mark Jarman author of The Heronry and other works

Travels in a Gay Nation Philip Gambone, 2010-06-30 For two years Philip Gambone traveled the length and breadth of the United States talking candidly with LGBTQ people about their lives In addition to interviews from David Sedaris George Takei Barney Frank and Tammy Baldwin Travels in a Gay Nation brings us lesser known voices a retired Naval officer a transgender scholar and drag king a Princeton philosopher two opera sopranos who happen to be lovers an indie rock musician the founder of a gay frat house and a pair of Vermont garden designers In this age when contemporary gay America is still coming under attack Gambone captures the humanity of each individual For some their identity as a sexual minority is crucial to their life s work for others it has been less so perhaps even irrelevant But whether splashy or quiet center stage or behind the scenes Gambone s subjects have managed despite facing ignorance fear hatred intolerance injustice violence ridicule or just plain indifference to construct passionate inspiring lives Finalist Foreword Magazine s Anthology of the Year Outstanding Book in the High School Category selected by the American Association of School Libraries Best Book in Special Interest Category selected by the Public Library Association

The Western Humanities Review ,2015

The Selected Works of Andrew Lang Andrew Lang, When the learned first gave serious attention to popular ballads from the time of Percy to that of Scott they laboured under certain disabilities The Comparative Method was scarcely understood and was little practised Editors were content to study the ballads of their own countryside or at most of Great Britain Teutonic and Northern parallels to our ballads were then adduced as by Scott and Jamieson It was later that the ballads of Europe from the Faroes to Modern Greece were compared with our own with European M rchen or children s tales and with the popular songs dances and traditions of classical and savage peoples The results of this more recent comparison may be briefly stated Poetry begins as Aristotle says in improvisation Every man is his own poet and in moments of strong emotion expresses himself in song A typical example is the Song of Lamech in Genesis I have slain a man to my wounding And a young man to my hurt Instances perpetually occur in the Sagas Grettir Egil Skarphedin are always singing In Kidnapped Mr Stevenson introduces The Song of the Sword of Alan a fine example of Celtic practice words and air are beaten out together in the heat of victory In the same way the women sang improvised dirges like Helen lullabies like the

lullaby of Danae in Simonides and flower songs as in modern Italy Every function of life war agriculture the chase had its appropriate magical and mimetic dance and song as in Finland among Red Indians and among Australian blacks The deeds of men were chanted by heroes as by Achilles stories were told in alternate verse and prose girls like Homer's Nausicaa accompanied dance and ball play priests and medicine men accompanied rites and magical ceremonies by songs These practices are world wide and world old The thoroughly popular songs thus evolved became the rude material of a professional class of minstrels when these arose as in the heroic age of Greece A minstrel might be attached to a Court or a noble or he might go wandering with song and harp among the people In either case this class of men developed more regular and ample measures They evolved the hexameter the laisse of the Chansons de Geste the strange technicalities of Scandinavian poetry the metres of Vedic hymns the choral odes of Greece The narrative popular chant became in their hands the Epic or the mediaeval rhymed romance The metre of improvised verse changed into the artistic lyric These lyric forms were fixed in many cases by the art of writing But poetry did not remain solely in professional and literary hands The mediaeval minstrels and jongleurs who may best be studied in Le roman de Renart and Le roman de la Rose sang in Court and Camp The poorer less regular brethren of the art harped and played conjuring tricks in farm and grange or at street corners The foreign newer metres took the place of the old alliterative English verse But unprofessional men and women did not cease to make and sing

Women's Poetry of the 1930s Jane Dowson, 1996 Where were the women of the so called Auden Generation During this era of rapidly changing gender roles social values and world politics women produced a rich variety of poetry But until now their work has largely been lost or ignored in Women's Poetry of the 1930s Jane Dowson finally redresses the balance and recovers women's place in the literary history of the interwar years This comprehensive and beautifully edited collection of richly varied poems includes Previously uncollected poems by authors such as Winifred Holtby and Naomi Mitchison Poems which are now out of print such as those by Vita Sackville West and Frances Cornford Poems previously neglected by poets including Ann Ridler and Sylvia Townsend Warner An extensive critical introduction and individual biographies of each poet This unique anthology sheds a whole new light on women's place in this era of British literary history and demands a reassessment of our understanding of 1930s poetry This will be invaluable resource and a treasured volume for students scholars and poetry enthusiasts alike
