Poetic Revelations Mark S. Burrows, Jean Ward, Małgorzata Grzegorzewska, 2016-08-12 This book explores the much debated relation of language and bodily experience i e the flesh considering in particular how poetry functions as revelatory discourse and thus relates to the formal horizon of theological inquiry The central thematic focus is around a phenomenology of the flesh as that which connects us with the world being the site of perception and feeling joy and suffering and of life itself in all its vulnerability The voices represented in this collection reflect interdisciplinary methods of interpretation and broadly ecumenical sensibilities focusing attention on such matters as the revelatory nature of language in general and poetic language in particular the function of poetry in society the question of Incarnation and its relation to language and the poetic arts the kenosis of the Word and human embodiment in relation to the word enfleshed in poetry Selected Poems of Alexander Pope Alexander Pope, 1916 gaining and maintaining my freedom al anon family groups - May 03 2022 the freedom i receive in al anon doesn t mean i m always happy in every area of my life or that other people s choices don t sometimes disturb and concern me but this freedom does mean that in spite of other people s choices i feel at peace with myself and i am given the strength to live my life in a way that s congruent with my values
