Author Nabil I Hanna brings to the forefront significant topics that often arise when discussion turns to the primary Bahá'í claim that Bahá'u'lláh fulfills the promises and prophecies of all religions with regard to the Promised One. The author also elaborates on additional subject matter that often accompanies these discussions such as The Word of God, The day of resurrection and judgment, The definition and explanation of salvation, The meaning of life and death, Miracles, parables and the ascension of Christ, The seal of the Prophets. The author introduces each chapter with clarifications and uses key verses from the Bible, Qur'an and Bahá'í Scriptures to underscore important themes. Promises Fulfilled can be used as a reference guide in study classes and interfaith readings or discussions. Living Traditions and Universal Conviviality Roland Faber,Santiago Slabodsky,2016-03-03 The World Parliament of Religions adopted the view that there will not be peace in this world without including peace among religions Yet even with the unified force of the world s religions and wisdom traditions this cannot be accomplished without justice among people In one way or another unity among religions as based on justice and the will to accept the other s religions and even irreligiosity as means of justice will not prevail without an internal and external spiritual theological philosophical and practical investigation into the very reasons for religious strife and fanaticism as well as the resources that people cultures religions and wisdom traditions might provide to disentangle them from the injustices of their host regimes and to seek the balance that leads to a measure of universal fairness among the multiplicity of religious and non religious expressions of humanity Conviviality expresses the depth and breadth of living together which itself can be understood as a translation of a central term of Whitehead s philosophy and the process tradition concrescence growing together becoming concrete as it is recently and increasingly used in different discourses to name the concrete community of difference of individuals cultures and religions in appreciation of the mutual inclusiveness of their lives This book seeks to bring together experts from different religious and non religious traditions and spiritual persuasions to suggest ways in which the living wisdom traditions might contribute to and transform themselves into a universal conviviality among the people cultures and religions of this world for a common future It wishes to test the resources that we can contribute to this concurrent and urgent matter aware of Whitehead s call for a radical transformation of power and violence in thought and action as perhaps the ultimate theory of conflict resolution
