subject based knowledge has been cast as elitist and outdated for a rapidly changing world The curriculum has been colonized in the name of teaching skills and attitudes for the global market and global citizenship Can young people effectively contribute to society without an education in academic knowledge Alex Standish argues that we can only educate children about the world if we are clear about the boundaries that provide education with its moral worth These include the boundaries between education and political activity public and private realms education and training theoretical and everyday knowledge communities and subject disciplines The False Promise of Global Learning demonstrates that the nature and purpose of education has become confused with social economic political and therapeutic aims and that control over the curriculum has been taken away from teachers and communities This is a hard hitting work that will resonate with all who have a stake in how and why we educate our children Philosophy of Ethics and Society Hector Davidson, This book consists of the following titles and topics Adam Smith Ayn Rand Baruch Spinoza Bertrand Russell Camus Critical Theory Cynicism Epicurus Feminist Philosophy Humanism Liberalism Mary Wollstonecraft Montesquieu Moral Philosophy Naturalism Niccolo Machiavelli Parmenides Peter Singer Political Philosophy Simone Weil Socrates Transcendentalism Utilitarianism Ethics in Theory and Application Horatio Willis Dresser,1925 Fast forwarding Higher Education Institutions for Global Challenges Ismail Hussein Amzat,Byabazaire Yusuf,2015-10-30 This book addresses various 21st century questions and challenges especially the role of technology in upgrading teaching and learning in today s society and the role of higher education institutions in improving standards of living economics society and sustainability It shares with readers the challenges of globalization to higher institutions concerning the issues relating to value creation management branding and the impact on leadership in higher institutions The Psychology of Global Citizenship Stephen Reysen,Iva Katzarska-Miller,2020-07-17 In The Psychology of Global Citizenship A Review of Theory and Research Stephen Reysen and Iva Katzarska Miller provide a theoretical and empirical overview of global citizenship and related concepts The authors highlight core components shared by a variety of disciplines and cultures and linked to pro social values such as the promotion of empathy diversity environmental sustainability and intergroup helping Utilizing a social psychological perspective Reysen and Katzarska Miller provide an integrated approach to global citizenship identification with their model of antecedents global awareness and normative environment and outcomes six clusters of pro social values Ontological Politics in a Disposable World Luigi Pellizzoni,2016-03-03 This book explores the intertwining of politics and ontology shedding light on the ways in which as our ability to investigate regulate appropriate enhance and destroy material reality have developed so new social scientific accounts of nature and our relationship with it have emerged together with new forms of power Engaging with cutting edge social theory and elaborating on the thought of Foucault Heidegger Adorno and Agamben the author demonstrates that the convergence of ontology with politics is not simply an intellectual endeavour of growing import but also a governmental practice which builds upon neoliberal programmes the renewed accumulation of capital and the development of technosciences in areas such as climate change geoengineering and biotechnology With shifts in our accounts of nature have come new means of mastering it giving rise to unprecedented forms of exploitation and destruction with related forms of social domination In the light of growing social inequalities environmental degradation and resource appropriation and commodification Ontological Politics in a Disposable World The New Mastery of Nature reveals the need for new critical frameworks and oppositional practices to challenge the rationality of government that lies behind these developments a rationality that thrives on indeterminacy and an account of materiality as comprised of fluid ever changing states simultaneously agential and pliable to which social theory increasingly subscribes without questioning enough its underpinnings and implications A theoretically sophisticated reassessment of the relationship between ontology and politics which draws the contours of a renewed humanism to allow for a more harmonious relationship with the world this book will appeal to scholars in social and political theory environmental sociology geography science and technology studies and contemporary European thought on the material world Encyclopedia of Global Justice Deen K.

Writing Estrella Cibreiro,Francisca López,2013 Carolyn Tuttle led a group that interviewed 620 women maquila workers in Nogales Sonora Mexico The responses from this representative sample refute many of the hopeful predictions made by scholars before NAFTA and reveal instead that little has improved for maquila workers The women s stories make it plain that free trade has created more low paying jobs in sweatshops where workers are exploited Families of maquila workers live in one or two room houses with no running water no drainage and no heat The multinational companies who operate the maquilas consistently break Mexican labor laws by requiring women to work more than nine hours a day six days a week without medical benefits while the minimum wage they pay workers is insufficient to feed their families These findings will make a crucial contribution to debates over free trade CAFTA DR and the impact of globalization The book visits continuities and discontinuities among Spanish and Latin American women with regards to the ways in which they approach writing as a political weapon to express ecological concerns to denounce social injustice to re articulate existing paradigms such as local versus global violence versus pacifism immigrant versus citizen and to raise consciousness about racist sexist and other discriminatory practices Such use of writing as an instrument of ethical and political exploration is underlined throughout the different articles in the volume as the authors emphasize pluralism social justice gender equality tolerance and political representation This book offers readers a broad perspective on the multiple ways in which Hispanic women writers are explicitly exploring the social political and economic realities of our era and integrating global perspectives and gender concerns into their writing highlighting the unprecedented level of sociopolitical engagement practiced by 20th and 21st century Hispanic women writers
