Selfnarratives The Construction Of Meaning In Psychotherapy:

Self-Narratives Hubert J. M. Hermans, Els Hermans-Jansen, 2001-06-01 Chapters describe how clinicians can work with what is openly discussed and how to ascertain less conscious events and motives A powerful clinical tool that enhances cooperation between the client and therapist the model delineated in this volume can be used in a wide variety of settings and is easily integrated with a range of orientations Providing complete guidelines for its clinical use Self Narratives is an ideal resource for psychotherapists and counselors alike Teachers or trainers who want to educate students in self knowledge and self reflection will find here an ideal method for stimulating these processes

The Dialogical Self in Psychotherapy Hubert J.M. Hermans, Giancarlo Dimaggio, 2004-08-26 This book gathers together psychotherapists from divergent origins to show why they think the concepts of dialogue and intersubjectivity need to be incorporated into the therapeutic process and to explore current thinking in the field

The Handbook of Narrative and Psychotherapy Lynne E. Angus, John McLeod, 2004 As no other volume brings together original contributions in narrative and psychotherapy from practitioners researchers theoreticians from around the world the Handbook of Narrative and Psychotherapy should be purchased by libraries that support the education practice and research of professionals in the helping sciences

E STREAMS This volume is an extremely valuable resource It tells the fascinating story of the centrality of storying in human lives and their counsel including the history of the narrative turn in psychology and the newest developments in theory and research I recommend it most highly

Michael J Mahoney author of Human Change Processes and Constructive Psychotherapy The growing interest in constructivist approaches nontraditional approaches towards research and specifically narrative as an organizing concept makes it an extremely timely book The contributors look like a who's who in the area a well planned book with the right organization and the right people

Jeremy Safran The New School for Social Research New York City Overall clinicians will find this book valuable because they will be introduced to different approaches to using narrative ideas in therapy with sufficient detail and case history material to make the ideas come alive Theoreticians will get sophisticated discussions of the nature of narrative as it relates to the nature of the person personality development and personality change And finally researchers will get state of the field knowledge of narrative research on therapy and narrative methods for doing research

Overall this is an important and exciting book on a hot topic filled with new ideas sophisticated research and case examples If you wanted to know about this important development in the field of psychology in general and psychotherapy in particular this is the place to come

Art Bohart Saybrook Graduate School With an excellent cast of characters both new and old Angus and McLeod's ambitious anthology of current thought on narrative and therapy bridges the generations of scholars and therapists within this tradition creating a lively community of the widely varying voices Narrative is a truly integrative element of psychotherapy applying with equal force to cognitive behavioral psychodynamic experiential and family systems approaches As such this book successfully lays out the newly emergent approach and points out new opportunities for integration at the levels of both theory and practice with implications that reach far beyond clinical assessment and treatment to the nature of self and culture This book maps the territory of narrative and psychotherapy for the next generation of therapeutic narratologists Robert Elliott Ph D University of Toledo The field of narrative informed therapy began nearly a decade ago and has now matured to the point where a significant reference work is both timely and appropriate The Handbook of Narrative and Psychotherapy is the first work to draw together theorists and practitioners representing a diverse range of approaches to describe and detail assessment and intervention strategies focusing on client story telling and story reconstruction to promote positive change in clients It aims to bring together multiple approaches to promote a dialogue among differing narrative traditions and synthesize a more integrated understanding of client story telling processes in psychotherapy The editors have achieved a balance between practice applied research findings and background theory Psychotherapy practitioners and researchers in social work counseling nursing and psychiatry will find this handbook of immense value Faculty graduate students and librarians in clinical psychology counseling social work and psychiatry departments will also find this an ideal addition to their courses and collections No other volume brings together original contributions in narrative and psychotherapy from practitioners and researchers from around the world Key Features Contains an international who's who of contributing authors Highlights and integrates the various approaches and dimensions of narrative therapy including the contributions of narrative expression to psychotherapy practice theories of personality and self development and research strategies assessing narrative and client self change Includes therapy session examples and case materials that demonstrate narrative interventions in action Presents clear and consistent professional guidelines in each chapter

Narrative and Psychotherapy John McLeod, 1997 A densely packed book with interesting and valuable research gleaned from a wide variety of therapy approaches Narrative and Psychotherapy furnishes the reader with a cogent historical appraisal of the way psychotherapy culture and storytelling fit together A good reference book for counsellors and students The authors students and clients must be very happy that he has the interest and the capacity to tune in to others in such a fresh manner Counselling The Journal of the British Association for Counselling The core of psychotherapy can be seen as a process in which the client comes to tell and then re author an individual life story or personal narrative The author of this

Narrative Psychology Julia Vassilieva, 2016-04-28 This book provides the first comparative analysis of the three major streams of contemporary narrative psychology as they have been developed in North America Europe and Australia and New Zealand Interrogating the historical and cultural conditions in which this important movement in psychology has emerged the book presents clear well structured comparisons and critique of the key theories of narrative psychology pioneered across the globe Examples include Dan McAdams in the US and his followers who have developed a distinctive approach to self and identity as a life story over the past two decades in the Netherlands by Hubert Hermans whose research on the dialogical self has made the University of Nijmegen a centre of narrative psychological research in Europe and in Australia and New Zealand where the collaborative efforts of Michael White and David Epston helped to launch the narrative movement in psychotherapy in the late 1980s

Emerging Methods in Psychology Seth Sorgan, 2017-09-08 The motivation for this volume in the History and Theory of Psychology series is to look across sub disciplines within psychology and highlight instances where researchers transcended the tendency to think about methodology along traditional lines Contributors have located examples of researchers who built upon existing ideas to create methods true to their interests and theoretical convictions Emerging Methods in Psychology shows how a discipline creates new methods and carves out possibilities that not only generate data but also advance knowledge of human psychological functioning It concentrates on showcasing the possibilities that exist when the researcher focuses on the relationship between theory method and data The question of what kind of expertise is required is a key issue This is particularly the case in psychology where the tradition of standardizing methods over the last century has served to stabilize research questions Knowledge creation is deeply affective and ambiguous rather than the secure accumulation of data by a socially legitimized procedure This innovative volume moves beyond psychology as social engineering into new varieties of social knowledge

Culture, Psychotherapy, and Counseling Lisa Tsoi Hoshmand, 2006 Written by the core faculty of the Hebrew program at Brandeis University the pilot edition of Brandeis Modern Hebrew Intermediate to Advanced serves as a sequel to the well known volume for beginners It contains the functional and contextual elements to bring users Hebrew language proficiency to the intermediate level and introduce students to skills they need to become advanced in their use of the language This volume reflects key principles of the Brandeis University Hebrew curriculum These include Placing emphasis on the learner's ability to use Hebrew in four skill areas listening reading speaking and writing Contextualizing each unit within a specific subject or theme Exposing the student to authentic materials and exploring aspects of Israeli and Jewish culture through language drills and reading passages

Narration, Identity, and Historical Consciousness Jürgen Straub, 2006-01-01 A generally acknowledged characteristic of modern life namely the temporalization of experience inextricable from our intensified experience of contingency and difference has until now remained largely outside psychology's purview Wherever questions about the development structure and function of the concept of time have been posed for example by Piaget and other founders of genetic structuralism they have been concerned predominantly with concepts of physical chronometrical time and related concepts e g velocity All the contributions to the present volume attempt to close this gap A larger number are especially interested in the narration of stories Overviews of the relevant literature as well as empirical case studies appear alongside theoretical and methodological reflections Most contributions refer to specifically historical phenomena and meaning constructions Some touch on the subjects of biographical memory and biographical constructions of reality Of all the various affinities between the contributions collected here the most important is their consistent attention to issues of the constitution and representation of temporal experience

Narrative Development Michael Bamberg, 2012-11-12 Growing out of an International Society of the Study of Behavioral Development sponsored symposium this book discusses the basic assumptions that led the contributors to conduct research in the field of narrative development This collection gathers their research reflections and varying approaches to narrative and its development It illustrates each type of approach and highlights their respective motives The book presents some of the basic motivating assumptions of each approach and provides insight into what holds each set of assumptions together potentially transforming them into actions This book will serve as an excellent text for courses emphasizing multiple approaches to the study of narrative The editor has organized this volume in accordance with the six main points of the symposium Specification of the Domain how narratives are defined in terms of textual structures knowledge thereof interactive moves sociocultural conventions and the like The Individual's Involvement in the Developmental Process the relationship between some internal or external forces and the organism's own active participation in the developmental process The Course of Development if it is continuous or discontinuous whether it proceeds in an additive fashion or whether regressive phases occur and what changes at different points in the developmental process signify The Goal of Development the implicit notion of a telos a target or end point that needs to occur in the developmental process Mechanisms of Development the forces and or conditions that both instigate the developmental process and keep it moving toward its telos Methodology where and how to look in the establishment of a developmental framework This book is an indispensable text in the fields of narrative and or discourse linguistics language studies psychology and education in general Handbook of Narrative Psychotherapy for Children, Adults, and Families Jan Olthof, 2018-05-08 The Handbook Narrative Psychotherapy for Children Adults and Families combines philosophical scientific and theoretical insights in the field of narrative psychotherapy and links them to sources of inspiration such as poetry film literature and art under the common denominator narrative thinking Sections on theoretical issues alternate with a large number of case histories drawn from different therapeutic contexts The reader can browse at will through the many examples of therapeutic sessions in some cases including literal transcriptions in which narrativity in all its forms is the point of departure What language does the body speak What messages do seemingly random slips of the tongue convey How can a painting help a client to find words for his or her story The discussion of the logic of abduction demonstrates the importance of metaphor and special attention is given to the processes of creating a therapeutic context and defining a therapeutic framework Between Dreaming and Recognition Seeking Hubert J. M.

Hermans, 2012-07-13 How can an internationally recognized theory contribute towards the enrichment of your own life In Between Dreaming and Recognition Seeking Hubert J M Hermans the creator of Dialogical Self Theory applies this theory to his own life and explains how readers can do the same He describes several destabilizing events from throughout his lifetime and investigates how they changed his own self Hermans discusses such events as the breakdown of his self esteem at school the experience of falling in love as a revolution in his self the experience of paradise lost and the tensions from living in the border zone of a traditional modern and post modern self Through a series of thought provoking questions Hermans invites readers to explore the long term meaning of significant events in their own lives Between Dreaming and Recognition Seeking provides an accessible way to learn about Dialogical Self Theory and how it can be used for one's self development
