Selling School Budgets In Hard Times:

Selling School Budgets in Hard Times William Goldstein, 1984 Financial planning for education is a difficult task as schools struggle for a share of diminishing tax resources The presentation of school budgets for voter approval must be done as effectively as possible When presenting budgets administrators should take into account that the public has a low tolerance for detail budgets are boring a well informed public is more positive presentation materials should be attractive and brief support groups are needed and the media should be used wisely The most important component of the process is the presentation of the budget support material Fifteen suggestions for presenting budget proposals to the public are provided The printed budget should be attractive be self explanatory answer the public s questions use graphics and easily understood tables and use clear uncluttered prose The author provides an example of a bird s eye budget that is easy to read understandable and inexpensively produced A checklist for assessing a school s budget presentation is provided Selling budgets in difficult times is hard work that takes careful planning and thorough understanding of demographics social climate and financial capabilities MD Resources in education ,1985-03 New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1879 Religion and the Schools Eugene T. Connors, 1988 This fastback examines the U S Supreme Court decisions and a few lower court decisions concerning religion and education rendered in the 1980s and for background purposes it also includes some decisions prior to the 1980s The first of four parts discusses cases pertaining to prayer and religious activities in school Included in the discussion are cases concerning moment of silence posting the Ten Commandments school clubs and the Equal Access Act religious holidays and holiday observances Christmas pageants and other seasonal observances and prayers during school functions The second part discusses cases involving aid to parochial schools Litigation involving shared time programs and Chapter I services is discussed along with tax deductions for education expenses The third part addresses religion in the curriculum reviewing cases on religious objections to compulsory school attendance creationism and evolution using the Bible in the school curriculum teachers rights to refuse to teach objectionable material and textbooks and secular humanism A list of cases is appended TE Journal of Rural Education ,1923 The Journal of Rural Education ,1923 Effective Schools Research Arthur W. Steller, 1988 This booklet presents the concept of school effectiveness the factors associated with effectiveness and supporting research Six factors of school effectiveness are discussed 1 strong instructional leadership by the principal 2 clear instructional focus 3 high expectations and standards 4 safe and orderly climate 5 frequent monitoring of student achievement and 6 active parent involvement Included is a chapter on the current debate surrounding the effective schools movement Fifty four references are included SI Journal of Education ,1883 The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1928 Legal Basics for Teachers Robert Leo Monks, Ernest I. Proulx, 1986 This fastback presents some basic legal guidelines for teachers which if observed will minimize the possibility of lawsuits resulting from incidents occurring in school settings The following topics are covered 1 basic legal terminology 2 reporting child abuse 3 self defense 4 possession and use of controlled substances 5 privileged communication 6 administering first aid and medication 7 conducting field trips 8 locker and personal searches 9 discipline 10 trespass of personal property 11 supervision and liability and 12 insurance and liability JD SDEA Journal South Dakota Educational Association,1927 Departments of Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare Appropriations for 1974 United States. Invitational Education is a metaphor for an emerging model of the educative process consisting of four value based assumptions about the nature of people and their potential 1 people are able valuable and responsible and should be treated accordingly 2 education should be a collaborative cooperative activity 3 people possess untapped potential in all areas of human endeavor and 4 human potential can best be realized by places policies and processes that are specifically designed to invite development and by people who are intentionally inviting with themselves and others personally and professionally This fastback presents a conceptual model for invitational education and suggests some practical strategies for making schools the most inviting place in town intellectually psychologically and physically Part 1 describes the assumptions elements and theoretical foundations of invitational education Part 2 provides tips on translating theory into practice through transformation of the places people policies and programs of a school to ensure that each school day is an invitation to learning Part 3 provides tips for Increasing Your Invitational Quotient both personally and professionally TE Public Relations Inquiry as Rhetorical Criticism William N. Elwood,1995-06-30 Whether politically socially economically or psychologically postmodern institutions attempt to influence their environments through the use of rhetoric in their public relations campaigns As corporations increasingly dominate the public discourse we experience daily it becomes increasingly important to understand how that discourse operates and to become more informed creators and consumers of institutional rhetoric This volume examines the theoretical bases and practical effects of a variety of public relations campaigns The contributors demonstrate that rhetorical inquiry is a viable and underrated approach to explaining the influence of public relations campaigns Cases analyzed in the book range from those of national scope e g Mobil Oil s Observations campaign of the 1970s and 1980s to studies of targeted influence e g corporate recruitment videos to cases of internal relations e g issues management during corporate mergers to studies of local situations e g the anatomy of a local ballot issue campaign While the various contributors employ a broad range of rhetorical methods and analysis the discussions remain approachable and understandable for students and professionals alike The Induction of New Teachers Kevin Ryan,1986 In this monograph common problems faced by beginning teachers are discussed These include 1 encountering the unexpected demands of teaching in the familiar framework of the classroom 2 understanding the role of the teacher in dealing with students 3 communicating effectively with parents 4 achieving a clear perspective on the authority and responsibilities of the principal 5 establishing a sound rapport with other teachers and 6 applying instructional skills to a specific curriculum Suggestions are made on what the new teacher can do when faced with these problems how the school can provide support for the new teacher and what teacher education institutions can do to prepare students for the first year of teaching JD A Model for Teaching Thinking Skills Antoinette Maria Worsham, Anita J. Stockton, 1986 As a consequence of studies indicating that students ability to think can be improved through direct instruction this booklet presents one approach to teaching thinking skills within the context of existing curricula a model described as the inclusion process The booklet discusses what thinking skills should be taught and how to decide which skills are appropriate It then describes four approaches for teaching thinking skills infusion a separate course linkage and inclusion Next the booklet describes using the inclusion process and guidelines for teaching thinking skills using focus and application lessons The booklet concludes by discussing the universality of the inclusion process evaluating thinking skills instruction and advocating a focus on process rather than content EL

Missing and Abducted Children Phillip Melvin Wishon, Bruce W. Broderius, 1987 The purpose of this pamphlet is to aid teachers counselors administrators paraprofessionals and other support personnel in alleviating the problem of missing and abducted children After an introductory overview of the national incidence of missing children three specific categories of missing children are identified and discussed runaways parent abductions and abductions by unknown persons The ensuing sections identify measures schools can take to prevent abductions tracking students identification of students working with parents including a list of 24 suggestions that schools should communicate to parents working with students including a list of 20 suggestions for children to help ensure their personal safety and a checklist for making schools safe The next sections provide steps to follow in reporting a child missing reporting the discovery of a missing child and reintegrating an abduction victim into the classroom A brief bibliography is provided and the following lists are appended 1 U S corporations involved in the problem of missing children 15 entries 2 organizations with information about missing children 28 entries and 3 resources for teachers and parents on the problem of missing children 28 citations TE Recent Transportation
