Towards a Feminist Translator Studies Helen Vassallo,2022-10-17 This pioneering work advocates for a shift toward inclusivity in the UK translated literature landscape investigating and challenging unconscious bias around women in translation and building on existing research highlighting the role of translators as activists and agents and the possibilities for these new theoretical models to contribute to meaningful industry change The book sets out the context for the new subdiscipline of feminist translator studies positing this as an essential mechanism to work towards diversity in the translated literature sector of the publishing industry In a series of five case studies that each exemplify a key component of the feminist translator studies toolkit Vassallo draws on exclusive interviews with a range of activist translators and publishers setting these in dialogue with contemporary perspectives on feminism and translation to propose a new agent based model of feminist translation practice In synthesising these perspectives Vassallo makes a powerful argument for questioning existing structures in the translated literature publishing system which perpetuate bias and connects these conversations to wider social movements towards promoting demonstrable change in the industry This book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of translation studies and publishing as well as for the various agents involved in promoting translated literature in the UK and beyond
