Should Veteran Status Be Dependent on a Kangaroo Court? Burt Young, 2003-05 A true story of a Merchant Mariner trying to gain U S Veteran s status for himself and his 2000 fellow merchant seamen Military Law Review ,1965
"Kangaroo Court" John Hirst, 2005-05-01 The Family Court was a progressive reform of the 1970s Now it is perhaps the most hated institution in Australia In the Kangaroo Court John Hirst investigates what went wrong This is a measured yet unsparing appraisal which interleaves individual cases with compelling legal and moral argument Hirst takes us deep into the workings of the Court and the domestic apocalypses it sees every day He explores the Court s fervour to uphold the best interests of the child no matter what and traces its chilling consequence a court where malicious allegations regularly go unpunished He notes the Court s enormous power over individual lives as well as its self proclaimed status as a caring court and wonders at its ability to overlook the defiance of its own authority In closing he considers how to reform an institution that has bred antagonism and extremism and too often entrenched paranoia and despair Lucid and urgent Kangaroo Court is a cautionary tale about the perils of high mindedness when it comes to dealing with the breakdown of families When Family Court judges talk piously of the caring court I wish they could hear the roar of pain that their piety has caused John Hirst Kangaroo Court This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust from Paul Kelly Paul Bongiorno Mungo MacCallum Natasha Cica Alex Miller and Raimond Gaita Great Lakes and Midwest Catalog Partners Book Distributing, 2003 Military Law Review Volumes 1-10 Selected Reprint United States. Environmental Justice and the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Laura Westra, 2012-05-16 More than 300 million people in over 70 countries make up the worlds indigenous populations Yet despite ever growing pressures on their lands environment and way of life through outside factors such as climate change and globalization their rights in these and other respects are still not fully recognized in international law In this incisive book Laura Westra deftly reveals the lethal effects that damage to ecological integrity can have on communities Using examples in national and international case law she demonstrates how their lack of sufficient legal rights leaves indigenous peoples defenceless time and again in the face of governments and businesses who have little effective incentive to consult with them let alone gain their consent in going ahead with relocations mining plans and more The historical background and current legal instruments are discussed and through examples from the Americas Africa Oceania and the special case of the Arctic a picture emerges of how things must change if indigenous communities are to survive It is a warning to us all from the example of those who live most closely in tune with nature and are the first to feel the impact when environmental damage goes unchecked
