The Ungrateful House August Derleth, 2011-05-23 MAN AND HIS MACHINES ARE DOING A GREAT JOB OF CONQUERING NATURE OF COURSE DOES ANYONE DOUBT IT Excerpt The point about all these queer people you can run into from time to time is just that they aren't really certifiable said Tex Harrigan in answer to a question of mine They're sane enough and no alienist would give them any more than the normal amount of aberrant concepts or actions What's normal I asked You tell me Take Peyton Farquahr Harrigan went on his pale gray eyes looking far back into the past I suppose he was one of the first of those I put into my File of Queer People You've never heard of him I needn't ask if you have He was a gadget inventor he had no less than sixty-four patents on household gadgets ranging all the way from his Little Gem Potato Peeler and his Peerless Magic Eraser down to his Patented Bed warmer He sounds like a handy man to have around a house I said Harrigan laughed long and heartily You don't know how ironic that is he said Wait till you hear about him Like all gadget inventors he wanted to try his hand at something big and at last he conceived it a mechanical house A house that did everything for you like a combination maid and housekeeper and valet What a pipe dream Take it easy He built it Where Not far outside Denver I was on the Rocky Mountain Gazette at that time just beginning my newspaper career The city editor was a hard-boiled old boy named Davis Hickman Davis He called me in one day and gave me a lead Go easy on this boy he said We used to go to school together He's probably nuts but he's made money on it He's got a new invention So I went out to his place Farquahr was a skinny long-haired fellow with baggy pants and a sports coat which he appeared never or seldom to change Not that he was exactly dirty just careless I introduced myself and got down to the story Was it true I wanted to know that he was building himself a mechanical house He admitted it But so far he said the story was under wraps What will it do I wanted to know Everything Mr Harrigan everything he said to me Except of course those more intimate little chores and duties performed by one s wife Interesting I said But I m skeptical It s your business to be he agreed Eldritch Tales H.P.
