Sicilia Barocca:

Palermo city guide Adriana Chirco,2020-03-31T00:00:00+02:00 Palermo has about 3 000 years of history and its roots predate the Punic colonisation of the 8th century BC Because of its favourable geographical location and its fertile land the city was preyed upon by a variety of peoples and was conquered among others by the Muslims the Normans the Aragonese and the Spaniards From the 16th century onwards a number of hamlets and new agglomerations started to spring up in the country environs All these have now been absorbed by urbanisation The countryside was also characterised by the social phenomenon of villeggiatura which considerably enhanced urbanisation of the countryside from the 17th century to the 1850s This has given the city and its environs a unique image outstanding for its blend of different architectural styles and historical strata This guide based on a number of historical itineraries is intended to enable the visitor to discover Palermo and its surroundings through a detailed account of the countless churches the numerous palazzi and the various street patterns which all testify to the city s development throughout the centuries

Emotions and Architecture Francesca Lembo Fazio,Valentina Tomassetti,2023-12-19 Emotions and Architecture Forging Mediterranean Cities Between the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time explores architecture as a medium to arouse or conceal emotions to build consensus through shared values or to reconnect the urban community to its alleged ancestry The chapters in this edited collection outline how architectonic symbols images and structures were codified and sometimes recast to match or to arouse emotions awakened by wars political dominance pandemic challenges and religion As signs of spiritual and political power these elements were embraced and modulated locally providing an endorsement to authorities and rituals for the community This volume provides an overview of the phenomenon across the Italian region stressing the transnationality of selected symbols and their various declinations in local contexts It deepens the issue of refitting symbols artworks and structures to arouse emotions by carefully analysing specific cases such as the Septizodium in Rome the Holy House of Loreto in Venice and the reconstruction of L Aquila The collection through its variegated contributions offers a comprehensive view of the phenomenon exploring the issue from political social religious and public health perspectives and seeking to propose a new definition of architecture as a visual emotional language Together the chapters show how the representation of virtues and emotions through architecture was part of a symbolic practice shared by many across the Italian context This book will be of interest to researchers and students studying architectural history the history of emotions and the history of art

Methodical Approach to the Restoration of Historic Architecture Calogero Bellanca,2011 Guarino Guarini and His Architecture Harold Alan Meek,1988-01-01 Ge llustreerde studie over het werk van de Italiaanse architect 1624 1683 Architectural Conservation Studio Calogero Bellanca,2020-01-01 The book provides a series of reflections on the study of architectural preexistences that have matured during the almost thirty five years of study and research in Italy and Europe Furthermore it shows how the discipline of restoration of monuments is all based in architecture intended in its many faceted meanings The methodical approach to the restoration of historic architecture consists in the historical critical analysis central nucleus of the study of architecture and is composed by specific in depth thematic sessions the historical iconography the analysis of the constructive features the constructive model the volumetric layout metrological and proportional analysis the theme of the figurative model the analysis of masonry the theme of decorations spolia and reemployed comparisons analogies and differences the reading of the architectural organism through the synthesis of the monument in time The author and his team have collected thematic essays on key issues that have great interest not only in Italy but also abroad From the general concepts to examples of the application of Italian consolidated restoration methodology to the analysis and conservation of historic architecture

Precious Coral and the Legacy of the Coral Road Iwasaki Nozomu,2021-06-14 Drawing on diverse perspectives this collection of 12 essays and around 150 colour illustrations explores the history and mysteries of the Coral Road from the Mediterranean to Japan From Italy with its ancient traditions of deep sea coral fishery production and trade the reader is transported to Tibet and India where coral has long been revered as a Buddhist treasure and amulet The focus then moves to Japan with the book highlighting the vivid red coral tree of folklore and festivals and the lavish use of the exotic gemstone in the magnificent accessories and craftwork of the Edo Period 1603 1868 before tracing the history of Japanese coral fishery trade and production in modern times Inspired by an urgently perceived need to preserve the legacy of precious coral for future generations this retrospective yet forward looking book will appeal to a wide readership from marine ecologists to economic social cultural and religious historians as well as scholars of fashion and design

Analysis, Conservation, and Restoration of Tangible and Intangible Cultural Heritage Inglese, Carlo,Ippolito, Alfonso,2018-10-12 Communities have witnessed a fundamental shift in the ways they interact with heritage sites Much of this change has been driven by the rapid democratization and widespread adoption of enabling technologies As expediency is embraced in the collection and analysis of data there may also be a certain amount of intimacy lost with both the tangible and intangible vestiges of the past Analysis Conservation and Restoration of Tangible and Intangible Cultural Heritage is a collection of innovative research on the quantitative methods and digital workflows transforming cultural heritage There is no contesting the value of advanced non destructive diagnostic imaging techniques for the analysis of heritage structures and objects Highlighting topics including 3D modeling conservation and digital surveying this book is ideally designed for conservation and preservation specialists archaeologists anthropologists historians academicians and students seeking current research on data driven evidence based decision making to improve intervention outcomes

The Spiritual Rococo GauvinAlexander Bailey,2017-07-05 A groundbreaking approach to Rococo religious d r and spirituality in Europe and South America The Spiritual Rococo addresses three basic conundrums that impede our understanding of eighteenth century aesthetics and culture Why did the Rococo ostensibly the least spiritual style in the pre Modern canon transform into one of the world s most important modes for adorning sacred spaces And why is Rococo still treated as a decadent nemesis of the Enlightenment when the two had fundamental characteristics in common This book seeks to answer these questions by treating Rococo as a global phenomenon for the first time and by exploring its moral and spiritual dimensions through the lens of populist French religious literature of the day a body of work the author calls the Spiritual Rococo and which has never been applied directly to the arts The book traces Rococo s development from France through Central Europe Portugal Brazil and South America by following a chain of interlocking case studies whether artistic literary or ideological and it also considers the parallel diffusion of the literature of the Spiritual Rococo in these same regions placing particular emphasis on unpublished primary sources such as inventories One of the ultimate goals of this study is to move beyond the cliché of Rococo s frivolity and acknowledge its essential modernity Thoroughly interdisciplinary The Spiritual Rococo not only integrates different art historical fields in novel ways but also interacts with church and social history literary and post colonial studies and anthropology opening up new horizons in these fields

Reading and Writing the Mediterranean Vincenzo Consolo,2006-01-01 Vincenzo Consolo is counted by many critics among the most significant voices in contemporary world literature This volume makes available for the first in English an edited and annotated volume of Consolo s short stories essays and other writings pertaining to the diverse cultures and histories of Sicily and the Mediterranean basin The Mediterranean region holds a particular fascination for Consolo who seeks through his writing to recover the memory of a Sicilian and Mediterranean history which he feels is presently being threatened by the forces of late capitalist Western culture His writings about the region also voice a commitment to questions of ethics and human rights which have been brought to the fore by recent tensions dividing this area and forcing a mass exodus of its people At a time when this part of the world is under threat from unbridled globalization as well as dangerous forms of ethnic and religious fundamentalism Consolo s words offer an insightful rethinking of regionalism within a global hierarchy of values They remind us of the necessity of moderation and contingency and in so doing attempt to recover a moral and ethical dimension for our collective life

Invisible City Helen Hills,2004-02-12 Invisible City analyzes conventual architecture in terms of the politics of sight the optics of power the relationship between flesh and stone It uncovers the connections between the bodies of the nuns and the walls that housed them presenting the architecture of female convents as a metaphor for the body of the aristocratic female virgin nun

Domestic Devotions in Early Modern Italy ,2018-11-01 Domestic Devotions in Early Modern Italy illuminates the vibrancy of spiritual beliefs and practices which profoundly shaped family life in this era Scholarship on Catholicism has tended to focus on institutions but the home was the site of religious instruction and reading prayer and meditation communal worship multi sensory devotions contemplation of religious images and the performance of rituals as well as extraordinary events such as miracles Drawing on a wide range of sources this volume affirms the central place of the household to spiritual life and reveals the myriad ways in which devotion met domestic needs The seventeen essays encompass religious history the histories of art and architecture material culture musicology literary history and social and cultural history Contributors are Erminia Ardissino Michele Bacci Michael J Brody Giorgio Caravale Maya Corry Remi Chiu Sabrina Corbellini Stefano Dall Aglio Marco Faini Iain Fenlon Irene Galandra Cooper Jane Garnett Joanna Kostylo Alessia Meneghin Margaret A Morse Elisa Novi Chavarria Gervase Rosser Zuzanna Sarnecka

Dark Mother Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum,2001 Bringing a feminist perspective to contemporary findings of geneticists and archeologists Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum cultural historian points out that the oldest veneration we know is of a dark mother of central and south Africa whose signs ochre red and the pubic V were taken by african migrants after 50 000 BCE to caves and cliffs of all continents The oldest sanctuary in the world was created in 40 000 BCE by african migrants in Har Karkom later called Mt Sinai foundation place of judaism christianity and islam Lucia documents the continuing memory of the dark mother and her values in prehistoric images of the dark mother in historic black madonnas and in other dark women divinities whose sanctuaries are on african paths She tracks the memory in rituals and stories of her sicilian grandmothers in persecution of dark others in patriarchal Europe and the United States in the rise of nonviolent dark others since the 1960s in the banners of the 1995 world conference of women at Beijing and in art She finds the dark mother s values justice with compassion equality and transformation in everyday and celebratory rituals of the world s subaltern cultures and suggests that the image and values are in the submerged memories of everyone

Handbook of Research on Visual Computing and Emerging Geometrical Design Tools Amoruso, Giuseppe,2016-04-11 Visual computing and descriptive geometry are multidisciplinary fields addressing the handling of images 3D models and other computer graphics These ideas are experiencing a revival due to emergent technologies and applications available to developers Based in traditional forms of design and architecture these fields are currently experiencing a bounty of new research based on old principles The Handbook of Research on Visual Computing and Emerging Geometrical Design Tools seeks to add to this knowledge base by considering these technologies from a designer's perspective rather than reiterating the principles of computer science. It combines aspects of geometry and representation with emerging tools for CAD generation and visualization while addressing the digital heritage of such fields. This book is an invaluable resource for developers, students of both graphic and computer-generated design, researchers, and designers.
