bitter Sarah Devlin As housekeeping disasters force him from room to room outside the order of the British Empire also totters there is unrest in the East and in Ireland itself the mounting violence of the troubles The Singapore Grip Singapore 1939 life on the eve of World War II just isn't what it used to be for Walter Blackett head of British Singapore's oldest and most powerful firm No matter how forcefully the police break one strike the natives go on strike somewhere else His daughter keeps entangling herself with the most unsuitable beaux while her intended match the son of Blackett's partner is an idealistic sympathizer with the League of Nations and a vegetarian Business may be booming what with the war in Europe the Allies are desperate for rubber and helpless to resist Blackett's price fixing and market manipulation but something is wrong No one suspects that the world of the British Empire of fixed boundaries between classes and nations is about to come to a terrible end
