explores the ways in which the senses began to take on a new significance in the art of the sixteenth century Seven Painters Who Changed the Course of Art History Brian Thom McQuade Ma.,2012 This is the biography of 7 painters who from the 14th to the 19th century changed the history of art forever The book is not just about their painting but also tells about their lives their triumphs and their disasters The Square and the Tower Niall Ferguson,2019-01-22 The instant New York Times bestseller A brilliant recasting of the turning points in world history including the one we re living through as a collision between old power hierarchies and new social networks Captivating and compelling The New York Times Niall Ferguson has again written a brilliant book In 400 pages you will have restocked your mind Do it The Wall Street Journal The Square and the Tower in addition to being provocative history may prove to be a bellwether work of the Internet Age Christian Science Monitor Most history is hierarchical it s about emperors presidents prime ministers and field marshals It s about states armies and corporations It s about orders from on high Even history from below is often about trade unions and workers parties But what if that s simply because hierarchical institutions create the archives that historians rely on What if we are missing the informal less well documented social networks that are the true sources of power and drivers of change The 21st century has been hailed as the Age of Networks However in The Square and the Tower Niall Ferguson argues that networks have always been with us from the structure of the brain to the food chain from the family tree to freemasonry Throughout history hierarchies housed in high towers have claimed to rule but often real power has resided in the networks in the town square below For it is networks that tend to innovate And it is through networks that revolutionary ideas can contagiously spread Just because conspiracy theorists like to fantasize about such networks doesn t mean they are not real From the cults of ancient Rome to the dynasties of the Renaissance from the founding fathers to Facebook The Square and the Tower tells the story of the rise fall and rise of networks and shows how network theory concepts such as clustering degrees of separation weak ties contagions and phase transitions can transform our understanding of both the past and the present Just as The Ascent of Money put Wall Street into historical perspective so The Square and the Tower does the same for Silicon Valley And it offers a bold prediction about which hierarchies will withstand this latest wave of network disruption and which will be toppled Renaissance? Peacebuilding and the Arts Jolyon Mitchell, Giselle Vincett, Theodora Hawksley, Hal Culbertson, 2019-11-19 Ending violent conflict requires societies to take leaps of political imagination Artistic communities are often uniquely placed to help promote new thinking by enabling people to see things differently In place of conflict's binary divisions artists are often charged with exploring the ambiguities and possibilities of the excluded middle Yet their role in peacebuilding remains little explored This excellent and agenda setting volume provides a ground breaking look at a range of artistic practices and the ways in which they have attempted to support peacebuilding a must read for all practitioners and policy makers and indeed other peacemakers looking for inspiration Professor Christine Bell FBA Professor of Constitutional Law Assistant Principal Global Justice and co director of the Global Justice Academy The University of Edinburgh UK Peacebuilding and the Arts offers an impressive and impressively comprehensive engagement with the role that visual art music literature film and theatre play in building peaceful and just societies Without idealizing the role of the arts the authors explore their potential and limits in a wide range of cases from Korea Cambodia Colombia and Northern Ireland to Uganda Rwanda South Africa and Israel Palestine Roland Bleiker Professor of International Relations University of Queensland Australia and author of Aesthetics and World Politics and Visual Global Politics Peacebuilding and the Arts is the first publication to focus critically and comprehensively on the relations between the creative arts and peacebuilding expanding the conventional boundaries of peacebuilding and conflict transformation to include the artist actor poet novelist dramatist musician dancer and film director The sections on the visual arts music literature film and theatre include case studies from very different cultures contexts and settings but a central theme is that the creative arts can play a unique and crucial role in the building of peaceful and just societies with the power to transform relationships heal wounds and nurture compassion and empathy Peacebuilding and the Arts is a vital and unique resource which will stimulate critical discussion and further research but it will also help to refine and reframe our understanding of peacebuilding While it will undoubtedly become mandatory reading for students of peacebuilding and the arts its original approach and dynamic exploratory style should attract a much wider interdisciplinary audience Professor Anna King Professor of Religious Studies and Social Anthropology and Director of Research Centre of Religion Reconciliation and Peace WCRRP University of Winchester UK This volume explores the relationship between peacebuilding and the arts Through a series of original essays authors consider some of the ways that different art forms including film theatre music literature dance and other forms of visual art can contribute to the processes and practices of building peace This book breaks new ground by setting out fresh ways of analysing the relationship between peacebuilding and the arts Divided into five sections on the Visual Arts Music Literature Film and Theatre Dance over 20 authors offer conceptual overviews of each art form as well as new case studies from around the globe and critical reflections on how the arts can contribute to peacebuilding As interest in the topic increases no other book approaches this complex relationship in the way that Peacebuilding and the Arts does By bringing together the insights of scholars and practitioners working at the intersection of the arts and peacebuilding this book develops a series of unique critical perspectives on the interaction of diverse art forms with a range of peacebuilding endeavours Renaissance Siena A. Lawrence

Jenkins, 2005-08-01 The art of Renaissance Siena is usually viewed in the light of developments and accomplishments achieved elsewhere but Sienese artists were part of a dynamic dialogue that was shaped by their city's internal political turmoil diplomatic relationships with its neighbors internal social hierarchies and struggle for self definition These essays lead scholars in a new and exciting direction in the study of the art of Renaissance Siena exploring the cultural dynamics of the city and its art in a specifically Sienese context This volume shapes a new understanding of Sienese culture in the early modern period and defines the questions scholars will continue to ask for years to come What emerges is a picture of Renaissance Siena as a city focused on meeting the challenges of the time while formulating changes to shape its future Central to these changes are the city's efforts to fashion a civic identity through the visual arts

Dante and Heterodoxy Maria Luisa Ardizzone, 2014-10-02 Dante and Heterodoxy The Temptations of 13th Century Radical Thought edited and with an introduction by Maria Luisa Ardizzone collects several studies devoted to discussing Dante's work in the light of the intellectual debate that developed in thirteenth century Europe after the entrance of new Aristotelian learning and the diffusion of Greek Arabic thought in particular the Latin translations of works by Ibn Rushd Averroes What takes form in the various articles is the emerging of an interest in the philosophical and scientific contents of Dante's opus Heterodoxy in this volume is thus linked to but not always coincident with what medieval scholars such as Ferdinand Van Steenberghen or Alain De Libera term radical Aristotelianism or Integral Aristotelianism The word temptations as its meaning clearly shows delineates not an organic link with heterodox or radical ideas but rather an intermittent inclination to include or evaluate themes related to these ideas Temptations implies a search an interrogation that consists of the doubts and uncertainties of a poet strongly involved in the intellectual debate of his time and culture and for whom philosophy and theology are not fields of opposition but different modes of inquiry

Art and Mysticism
 Louise Nelstrop, Helen Appleton, 2018-06-12 From the visual and textual art of Anglo Saxon England onwards images held a surprising power in the Western Christian tradition Not only did these artistic representations provide images through which to find God they also held mystical potential and likewise mystical writing from the early medieval period onwards is also filled with images of God that likewise refracts and reflects His glory This collection of essays introduces the currents of thought and practice that underpin this artistic engagement with Western Christian mysticism and explores the continued link between art and theology The book features contributions from an international panel of leading academics and is divided into four sections The first section offers theoretical and philosophical considerations of mystical aesthetics and the interplay between mysticism and art The final three sections investigate this interplay between the arts and mysticism from three key vantage points The purpose of the volume is to explore this rarely considered yet crucial interface between art and mysticism It is therefore an important and illuminating collection of scholarship that will appeal to scholars of theology and Christian mysticism as much as those who study literature the arts
