Sierra Club Desert Reader A Literary Companion:

The Sierra Club Desert Reader Gregory McNamee, 1995 The Sierra Club Desert Reader is the inaugural volume in a new series of literary celebrations of the Earth's biomes the major ecological communities that have shaped the collective human experience This unprecedented global anthology of fiction poetry folklore natural history travel commentary and more collected and introduced by a preeminent environmental writer demonstrates the desert's power to enthrall and inspire our finest thinkers and writers Represented in this distinguished volume are poets from ancient China translated by Ezra Pound Egyptian inscriptions the logs of Captain James Cook and the chilling fantasies of Edgar Allan Poe Among other names drawn from many genres are Charles Doughty Marco Polo Mark Twain Antoine de Saint Exupery Herodotus Pliny the Elder T E Lawrence Bruce Chatwin Edith Wharton Percy Bysshe Shelley Jorge Luis Borges as well as classic desert advocates Mary Austin John Muir and Edward Abbey Avowed desert rats and the city bound anyone drawn to the magical realm of open skies and space and dust will find The Sierra Club Desert Reader a trove of literary riches The Desert Reader Gregory McNamee, 2003 First published in 1995 as The Sierra Club Desert Reader this wide ranging anthology is now published only by the University of New Mexico Press Represented in this global selection are poets from ancient China translated by Ezra Pound Egyptian inscriptions the logs of Captain Cook and the chilling fantasies of Edgar Allan Poe as well as the lore of native peoples from around the world Also included are writings from many genres by among others Herodotus Marco Polo Shelley Twain Saint Exupery T E Lawrence Chatwin and Borges A Desert Bestiary Gregory McNamee, 1996 Essays on desert animals Desert Meteorology Thomas T. Warner, 2009-01-18 Aridity prevails over more than one third of the land area of the Earth and over a significant fraction of the oceans as well Yet to date there has been no comprehensive reference volume or textbook dealing with the weather processes that define the character of desert areas Desert Meteorology fills this gap by treating all aspects of desert weather such as large scale and local scale causes of aridity precipitation characteristics in deserts dust storms floods climate change in deserts precipitation processes desertification land surface physics of deserts numerical modelling of desert atmospheres and the effect of desert weather on humans A summary is provided of the climates and surface properties of the desert areas of the world The book is written with the assumption that the reader has only a basic knowledge of meteorology physics and calculus making it useful to those in a wide range of disciplines It includes review questions and problems for the student This comprehensive volume will satisfy all who need to know more about the weather and climate of arid lands It will appeal especially to advanced students and researchers in environmental science meteorology physical geography hydrology and engineering Sand Michael Welland, 2009-01-15 From individual grains to desert dunes from the bottom of the sea to the landscapes of Mars and from billions of years in the past to the future this is the extraordinary story of one of nature's humblest most powerful and most ubiquitous materials Told by a geologist with a novelist's sense of language and narrative Sand examines the science sand forensics the physics of granular materials sedimentology paleontology and archaeology planetary exploration and at the same time explores the rich human context of sand Interwoven with tales of artists mathematicians explorers and even a vampire the story of sand is an epic of environmental construction and destruction an adventure in staggering scales of time and distance yet a tale that encompasses the ordinary and everyday Sand in fact is all around us it has made possible our computers buildings and windows toothpaste cosmetics and paper and it has played dramatic roles in human history commerce and imagination In this luminous kinetic revelatory account we do indeed find the world in a grain of sand The Desert Michael Welland,2014-09-15 From endless sand dunes and prickly cacti to shimmering mirages and green oases deserts evoke contradictory images in us They are lands of desolation but also of romance of blistering Mojave heat and biting Gobi cold Covering a quarter of the earth's land mass and providing a home to half a billion people they are both a physical reality and landscapes of the mind The idea of the desert has long captured Western imagination put on display in films and literature but these portrayals often fail to capture the true scope and diversity of the people living there Bridging the scientific and cultural gaps between perception and reality The Desert celebrates our fascination with these arid lands and their inhabitants as well as their importance both throughout history and in the world today Covering an immense geographical range Michael Welland wanders from the Sahara to the Atacama depicting the often bizarre adaptations of plants and animals to these hostile environments He also looks at these seemingly infertile landscapes in the context of their place in history as the birthplaces not only of critical evolutionary adaptations civilizations and social progress but also of ideologies Telling the stories of the diverse peoples who call the desert home he describes how people have survived there their contributions to agricultural development and their emphasis on water and its scarcity He also delves into the allure of deserts and how they have been used in literature and film and their influence on fashion art and architecture As Welland reveals deserts may be difficult to define but they play an active role in the evolution of our global climate and society at large and their future is of the utmost importance Entertaining informative and surprising The Desert is an intriguing new look at these seemingly harsh and inhospitable landscapes Getting Over the Color Green Scott Slovic,2001 An eclectic anthology of contemporary nature writing from the Southwest including nonfiction fiction field notes and poetry through which artists of diverse backgrounds both celebrate and illuminate the vitality and complexity of southwestern nature and literature Forbes ,1996 Sarah Anderson's Travel Companion Sarah Anderson,2004 For those who want to find out more about Africa and the Middle East than can be found in a normal guidebook Sarah Anderson's Travel Companion offers a delightfully informed personal selection including travel literature illustrated volumes biographies and memoirs and more Travelers and readers can discover novels set in Kenya cultural studies of Syria or guidebooks best suited to their tastes This is an indispensable companion for every serious reader of travel writing Forbes FYI ,1996-05-06 Playa Works William L.
