

Preserving Our Natural Resources CALIFORNIA

The people of California have a long and proud history of preserving their natural resources. From the mountains to the oceans, we have a wealth of natural resources that we must protect for future generations. The State of California has a variety of laws and regulations in place to protect our natural resources, including the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and the California Public Resources Code. These laws and regulations ensure that our natural resources are protected and that we can enjoy them for generations to come.

For more information on how to protect our natural resources, visit www.california.gov/natural-resources.
