Sierra Leone Experiment In Democracy In An African Nation:

Sierra Leone; Experiment in Democracy in an African Nation Gershon Collier,1970 H. C. Bankole-Bright and Politics in Colonial Sierra Leone, 1919-1958 Akintola Wyse,2003-12-11 This substantial and thoroughly documented book is a political biography of an important figure in Sierra Leone It is also a comment on two of the major themes of the country's history the relations between the Colony Krio Society and the protectorate the earlier inhabitants of the territory and more importantly the position of the imperial regime vis vis its colonial subjects The author a Sierra Leonean and a Krio himself skillfully examines the country's recent history through the life of Dr H C Bankole Bright an important leader of the Krio people The Krio descendants of the freed slaves were the elite of Sierra Leone for more than a century but ultimately they failed to master mass electoral politics during the period of decolonization leading to independence Dr Bankole Bright's failure is seen as emblematic of the disappointed hopes of the Krio as a political group in Sierra Leone An underlying theme of the book is the misrepresentation of the Krio people in Sierra Leone historiography

Democratization and Human Security in Postwar Sierra Leone Joseph J. Bangura,Marda Mustapha,2016-04-29 This edited collection is the first book length project to undertake a multidisciplinary study of democratization and human security in the post war nation of Sierra Leone The overarching theme is there is synergy of democratization and human security which makes it imperative for the state to foster and enhance the realization of these concepts in postwar Sierra Leone The book is divided into two broad thematic sections The first section deals with democratization with a critical examination of the creation and instrumentality of institutions largely considered a necessity for democracy to take hold in a country The second section delineates human security or the lack thereof in key areas of political social and economic life Though the book is specific to Sierra Leone African countries and indeed countries transitioning to democracy around the world scholars and practitioners of postwar or democratic transition studies would benefit from the concepts expounded in this collection

British Foreign Policy and the Conflict in Sierra Leone, 1991-2001 Michael S. Kargbo,2006 This book critically examines the content of British policy towards Sierra Leone from the outbreak of conflict there in 1991 to its official conclusion in 2001 It attempts to find answers to why Britain's New Labour government pursued a more proactive policy in Sierra Leone than its Conservative predecessors This is done by means of traditionalist but especially transformationalist theoretical approaches Analysis is made of the influence of major international organisations on British policy towards the Sierra Leone conflict as well as the impact of other important states As foreign policy is not created in a vacuum analysis is also made of the impact of the domestic setting especially bureaucratic institutions

Handbook of Resilience in Children of War Chandi Fernando,Michel Ferrari,2013-04-23 Their frightened angry faces are grim reminders of the reach of war They are millions of children orphaned displaced forced to flee or to fight And just as they have myriad possibilities for trauma their lives also hold great potential for recovery The Handbook of Resilience in Children of War explores these critical phenomena at the

theoretical research and treatment levels beginning with the psychosocial effects of exposure to war Narratives of young people s lives in war zones as diverse as Afghanistan Sri Lanka Columbia and Sudan reveal the complexities of their experiences and the meanings they attach to them providing valuable keys to their rehabilitation Other chapters identify strengths and limitations of current interventions and of constructs of resilience as applied to youth affected by war Throughout this cutting edge volume the emphasis is on improving the field through more relevant research and accurate evidence based interventions in such areas as An ecological resilience approach to promoting mental health in children of war Child soldiers and the myth of the ticking time bomb The Child Friendly Spaces postwar intervention program The role of education for war zone immigrant and refugee students Political violence identity and adjustment in children The Handbook of Resilience in Children of War is essential reading for researchers scientist practitioners and graduate students in diverse fields including clinical child school and developmental psychology child and adolescent psychiatry social work counseling education and allied medical and public health disciplines African Entrepreneurship Alusine Jalloh,1999 Between 1961 and 1978 Muslim Fula immigrants from different West African countries became one of the most successful mercantile groups in Freetown the capital city of Sierra Leone African Entrepreneurship published by Ohio University Press on December 31 1999 examines the commercial activities of Fula immigrants and their offspring in Sierra Leone Author Alusine Jalloh explores the role of Islam in Fula commercial organizations and social relationships as well as the connection between Fula merchants and politics Departing from the prevailing scholarship Jalloh characterizes the Fula businesses as independent rather than appendages of Western expatriate commerce In addition to establishing successful businesses Fula merchants established Islamic educational institutions for propogating the Muslim faith and promoting Islamic scholarship This study also examines the evolution of Fula chieftaincy from the colonial era to the postcolonial period and documents the importance of mercantile wealth and networks in the election of Fula chiefs in Freetown African Entrepreneurship makes an important contribution to the understudied role of African business in Sierra Leone Africa Army Library (U.S.),1973

The Politics of African and Middle Eastern States Anne Gordon Drabek,Wilfrid Knapp,2013-10-22 The Politics of African and Middle Eastern States An Annotated Bibliography is a record of books written about the politics history and the lives of the leaders of Africa and the Middle East The book is divided per chapter according to the geographical area being discussed Each chapter contains a list of books that fall under the following categories Political History Political Systems and Government Biographies Memoirs Speeches and Writings and External Relations Chapters I to VII cover different regions of Africa while Chapters VIII to XI cover the Middle East The text is a recommended for historians and political scientists especially those interested in the areas mentioned in the book The selection also serves a guide to those who plan to have further readings or make a paper about the political history government and development of the areas mentioned

of Studies in Law Politics and Society contains a sampling of work from some of the most promising junior scholars in the next generation of the law and society community Nominated by their advisors or mentors their work explores some of the newest areas of law and society research as well as brings fresh insight to bear on enduring Domination Through Law Mohamed Sesay, 2021-01-29 Winner of the 2021 Lee Ann Fujii Book Award International Studies Association The positive effects of rule of law norms and institutions are often assumed in the fields of global governance and international development with empirical work focusing more on the challenges of using law to engineer social change abroad Questioning this assumption the book contends that purportedly good rule of law standards do not always deliver benign benefits but rather often have negative consequences that harm the very local constituents which rule of law promoters promise to help In particular the book argues that rule of law promotion in post colonial societies reinforces socioeconomic and political inequality which disproportionately favors dominant actors who have the wealth education and influence to navigate the state legal system In addition to an historical account of legal development in settler colonial environments this argument is also drawn from a comparative study which focuses on the UK supported justice sector development programs in Sierra Leone and the US funded rule of law projects in Liberia Africa, Sub-Sahara Harlan D. Robinson, 1974 Ethnic Groups in Conflict, Updated Edition With a New Preface Donald L. Horowitz, 2000 To understand ethnic conflict is an ambitious task but by focusing on the logic and structure of conflict and discussing measures to abate it Horowitz brings important insight into an urgent issues that affects all strata of society everywhere Reinventing the Colonial State Peter A. Dumbuya, 2008 The African-British Long Eighteenth Century Tcho Mbaimba Caulker, 2009-03-16 Tracing the development of British colonial administration in West Africa over the course of the long eighteenth century Caulker illuminates the solidification of the administration as it goes through a learning process of power This book analyzes the documents and treaties that the indigenous peoples of eighteen century Sierra Leone made with their future British colonizers and compares them with the writings of Adam Smith to uncover a colonial philosophy linking European economic success with the process of civilizing Africa through moral education A discussion of other archival materials demonstrates the ways that an emerging anthropological science and pseudo scientific methodology contributed to colonial ventures and exploration The book concludes with an analysis of the postcolonial novel The Last Harmattan of Alusine Dunbar demonstrating that the study of this long eighteenth century archive has as much to do with the present postcolonial era as it does with the period of African colonization Building Security in Post-Conflict States Ursula Schroeder, Fairlie Chappuis, 2017-10-02 Support for security and justice institutions has become a crucial instrument of international engagement in fragile and conflict affected states In attempts to shore up security as a precondition for sustainable peace international actors have become deeply engaged in reforming the security agencies and security governance institutions of states emerging from conflict But despite their increasing importance in the field of international peace and state building security sector reform SSR interventions remain both highly political and deeply contentious processes Expanding on this theme this edited volume identifies new directions in research on the domestic consequences of external support to security sector reform Both empirically and theoretically the focus lies on the so far neglected role of domestic actors interests and political power constellations in recipient states Based on a wide range of empirical cases the volume discusses how the often conflictual and asymmetric encounters between external and domestic actors with divergent interests and perceptions affect the consequences of international interventions By taking into account the plurality of state and non state security actors and institutions beyond classical models of Weberian statehood the contributions make the case for engaging more closely with the complexity of the domestic security governance configurations that can result from external engagement in the field of security sector reform This book was published as a special issue of International Peacekeeping Land Tenure in Sierra Leone Ade Renner-Thomas,2010 This book gives a brief account of the background to the dual land tenure system in force in Sierra Leone and explains the reasons why the dualism derived from the different colonial experience of the former Colony and Protectorate of Sierra Leone still persists almost fifty years after the two entities were merged to form a unitary State of Sierra Leone The book gives an account for the benefit of both law students and legal practitioners of the main features of the English derived land law in the Western Area and of the forms of land holding in the Provinces which are governed predominately by customary law The book also highlights the practical problems that legal practitioners may be confronted with in advising clients wanting to enter into transactions involving land in Sierra Leone and in drafting legal documents for the creation or transfer of interests in land in different parts of the country By giving an account of developments relating to policy initiatives and by laying bare the achievements and shortcomings of land tenure reform to date the book aims to stimulate debate on current proposals for reform not only among law students and practitioners of the law but also among policy makers and members of the wider non legal community It offers a brief but constructive criticism of the dual land tenure system and offers some proposals for reform of the system changes in the light of stated policies

Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong,Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr.,2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa s history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918

Elections in Africa Dieter Nohlen,Michael Krennerich,Bernard Thibaut,1999-07-22 Elections have always been an integral part of post independence African politics and have assumed utmost importance in the course of recent democratisation processes

However comparative research on the political development in Africa lacks reliable electoral data Elections in Africa fills this gap The handbook is the only reliable source for African elections from independence to present In the first volume of this series Elections in Africa presents a country by country study of African nations that provides a comparative introduction on elections and electoral systems Each country chapter examines the history of the institutional and electoral arrangements the evolution of suffrage and current electoral provisions Precise and exhaustive data on national elections and referendums are presented comparatively The book provides a definitive and comprehensive set of data on elections and electoral systems in order to facilitate comparative research Data is presented in a systematic manner allowing for both historical and cross national comparisons
