A. Stradling, 2002-10-03 This book concentrates on the political history of the reign of Philip IV and the role of the king within it Philip is kept near the forefront and issues and events are often seen if sometimes critically from his viewpoint It is therefore a work of revision and rehabilitation representing an attempt against all other extant accounts to establish Philip IV as a positive figure with an autonomous character and political identity A secondary supportive intention is to demonstrate that after the fall of Olivares the king ruled and governed without a favourite valido This is the central theme in the most detailed treatment of the second half of the reign available in any language Reference is made throughout to Philip s own words and actions At the same time the Olivares period itself is approached from a new perspective some issues being examined with the use of new material Although not intended as a conventional biography the book retains several characteristics of the form in that it is a career study part thematic part chronological Philip IV is examined also in relation to the political writing of the age and to his court and capital in Madrid Genoese

Entrepreneurship and the Asiento Slave Trade, 1650-1700 Alejandro García-Montón, 2021-11-21 This book explains how Genoese entrepreneurs transformed the structures of global trade during the second half of the seventeenth century The author reconstructs the business network built by the Genoese merchant Domenico Grillo between the 1650s and the 1680s Grillo s business interests stretched from the Mediterranean to Pacific South America traversing and joining the Spanish Dutch and English Atlantics He and his associates created a new business model that was to be emulated by Dutch French and English traders in subsequent decades the monopolistic asientos for the exploitation of the trans imperial and intra American slave trade to Spanish America Offering a connected history of capitalism across trans continental geographies and different empires this book challenges established views of a period which has traditionally been interrogated from a northern European mercantile perspective Cutting across the histories of the slave trade in the Atlantic world early modern capitalism and early modern empire this study has much to offer to students and scholars interested in the agents economic practices and geographies of trade that do not easily fit into and therefore disrupt the traditional narratives of the Rise of the West Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> The Mystical Gesture Robert Boenig, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2000 These essays explore the spiritual culture shared by texts and writers in Western Europe from the 13th to 17th centuries the visionaries mystics and nuns who were poets or scholars and the creative writers who drew on spiritual themes The topics range chronologically from the late 13th to late 17th centuries and geographically from Germany England Italy France Spain and New Spain Mexico though the volume s centre is the spiritual culture of 16th century Spain Common concerns of each essay are the exploration of spiritual culture how some texts and writers shape expectations attending the life of the spirit and how they are in turn shaped by them The sub themes many of the essays share are the gendering of spiritual culture and the relationship between traditional literary genres like poetry and drama and spiritual discourse Each text or spiritual figure covered here has a distinctive spiritual voice a mystical gesture that contributes an individual mysticism to the common spiritual culture they all share Each scholar in her or his own way defines this mystical gesture The essays analyze Mechthild von Magdburg Piers Plowman The Second Shepherds Play

Catherine of Siena Bernardo de Laredo Teresa of Avila Alonso de la Fuente Luisa de Carvajal y Mendoza Cecilian de nacimiento Margaret Mary Alaconque and Sor Juana Native American Speakers of the Eastern Woodlands Barbara Alice Mann, 2001-04-30 This collection of essays examines in context eastern Native American speeches which are translated and reprinted in their entirety Anthologies of Native American orators typically focus on the rhetoric of western speakers but overlook the contributions of Eastern speakers The roles women played both as speakers themselves and as creators of the speeches delivered by the men are also commonly overlooked Finally most anthologies mine only English language sources ignoring the fraught records of the earliest Spanish conquistadors and French adventurers This study fills all these gaps and also challenges the conventional assumption that Native thought had little or no impact on liberal perspectives and critiques of Europe Essays are arranged so that the speeches progress chronologically to reveal the evolving assessments and responses to the European presence in North America from the mid sixteenth century to the twentieth century Providing a discussion of the history culture and oratory of eastern Native Americans this work will appeal to scholars of Native American history and of communications and rhetoric Speeches represent the full range of the woodland east and are taken from primary sources The Routledge Companion to Race in Early Modern Artistic, Material, and Visual Production Nicholas R.
