Louise Nevelson Laurie Lisle, 2016-03-08 Louise Nevelson one of the most important American sculptors of the twentieth century was a beautiful woman who lived so audacious a life that by the time of her death she was a legend both inside and outside the art world Born Leah Berliawsky in Czarist Russia in 1899 she grew up in Maine ostracized as a Jew and a foreigner At twenty she escaped to Manhattan as Mrs Charles Nevelson eventually leaving her husband for a life devoted to art She lived and loved with lusty abandon often in poverty and obscurity until she finally achieved fame and fortune at sixty This biography of a monstre sacre is a tale of hard tacks heroism and heedless swipes at those who dared to love her said Interview magazine Nevelson found inspiration in cubism primitive art and her own unconscious creating a rich iconography of images With black white or gold paint and perfect placement she transformed old pieces of wood picked up on the street into powerful sculptures In later years she appeared in mink eyelashes and flamboyant costumes all the while going to her studio every day before dawn to add to the astonishing body of work now in collections of museums around the world Laurie Lisle interviewed Nevelson before the artist s death in 1988 as well as her lovers family members artist friends and many others This biography provides fascinating insights and information discovered in archives and public records letters and diaries and the artist s own prose and poetry Now in a revised e book edition Louise Nevelson A Passionate Life is the only biography of this important American sculptor It is impressive in its thoroughness which nonetheless results in good reading by virtue of its interweaving of personal and professional information its eclectic introduction of psychological analysis and a phraseology that appreciates both the pain and the joy surrounding Nevelson s eccentric behavior according to Woman s Art Journal

Nevelson: Wood Sculptures Louise Nevelson, Martin Friedman, 1973 This book surveys the stylistic evolution of Louise Nevelson s wood sculpture over three decades focusing on the primal themes so identified with her art table landscapes columns boxes reliefs and walls More than sixty works are illustrated ranging from small scale containers the Cryptics to a sequence of monumental black walls that she has continued to produce since the mid 1950s In addition a number of recent photographs of Nevelson in her studio are included Wood is indisputably Nevelson s medium and the exhibition documents her remarkable use of this material Although she has recently made small precise plexiglass cube constructions and overseen the translation of several of her earlier wood pieces into large cor-ten steel sculptures the genesis and essence of her art is in her special use of wood with which she creates seemingly weightless shapes whose iconography relates them to the past as well as to the present She is an accumulator a compulsive forager of abandoned and discarded fragments chair backs architectural scrollwork brush handles weathered planking and sweepings of chips and slivers from the carpenter's floor. These become the ingredients of her spectral architectural compositions which painted a uniform color black white or on rare occasions gold allude to a mysterious reality. Notes inside cover Louise Nevelson Michael Cain, 1989-01-01 Explores the life and artistry of the noted American sculptor Louise Nevelson Arnold B. Glimcher, Albert Marrin, 1976 A collection of the works of Louise Nevelson. Noted for her powerful constructions they rank high among the monumental art of the twentieth century. Based solidly on Cubism with overtones of Dada and Surrealism her sculpture is a unique and essential expression of modern and particularly urban life Louise Nevelson, 1981 Louise Nevelson, Iconography and Sources Laurie Wilson, 1981

The World Outside Shirley Reece-Hughes, Marin R. Sullivan, 2023 Through the voices of scholars contemporary artists family and carefully selected artworks a more nuanced picture of Louise Nevelson emerges. In The World Outside Louise Nevelson at Midcentury A deep dive into the artist's beginnings with modern dance and her subsequent immersion in avant garde theatrical trends brings new understandings of her drawings and sculptures. A reframing of Nevelson's travels to Mexico and Guatemala in 1950 and 1951 respectively and her encounters with pre-Columbian art reveal for the first time how colonial archeology haunted her visual language for decades. Another previously undiscussed facet of Nevelson's life her folk art interests provides a topic ripe for understanding the artist's approach to America's material culture of the past. A pioneering examination of Nevelson's printmaking experiences at Tamarind Lithography Workshop reveals how the artist created alternative modes of viewing through unconventional methods and materials. Also discussed anew is Nevelson's stated intention of creating the in-between examined here as an endemic and connecting core principle of her work. A fresh look recontextualizes Nevelson's experiences during the rise of environmentalism and relays previously undisclosed connections between her art and the ecology movement. And finally in the five reflection essays contemporary voices from the dance and art worlds describe Nevelson's vaunted role in their careers. A local expert discusses Nevelson's roots and relationship to Maine in vivid detail and the artist's granddaughter shares intimate insights into Nevelson's thoughts on spirituality Louise Nevelson: Sculpture 1957-1987 (March 28-April 26, 1997). Louise Nevelson's Sculpture: Face Julia Bryan-Wilson, 2023 In this radical rethinking of the art of Louise Nevelson 1899-1988 Julia Bryan Wilson provides a long overdue critical account of a signature figure in postwar sculpture. A Ukraine-born Jewish immigrant Nevelson persevered in the male-dominated New York art world. Nonetheless her careful procedures of construction in which she assembled found pieces of wood into elaborate structures usually painted black have been little studied. Organized around a series of key operations in Nevelson's own process: dragging, coloring, joining, and facing, the book comprises four slipcased individually bound volumes that can be read in any order. Both form and content thus echo Nevelson's own modular sculptures: the gridded boxes of which the artist herself rearranged. Exploring how Nevelson's making relates to domesticity, racialized matter, gendered labor, and the environment, Bryan Wilson offers a sustained examination of the social and political implications of Nevelson's art. The author also approaches Nevelson's sculptures from her own embodied subjectivity as a queer feminist scholar. She forges an expansive art history that places Nevelson's assemblages in dialogue with a wide array of marginalized worldmaking and underlines the artist's proclamation of allegiance to blackness.
