Love and War in London Olivia Cockett, 2009-11
 Love War in London is rooted in the extraordinary milieu of wartime London. Vibrant and engaging, Olivia Cockett's diary reveals her frustrations, fears, pleasures, and self-doubts. She recorded her mood swings and tried to understand them and wrote of her lover, a married man, and the intense relationship they had. As she and her friends and family in New Scotland Yard were swept up by the momentous events of another European war, she vividly reported on what she saw and heard in her daily life. Hers is a diary that brings together the personal and the public. It permits us to understand how one intelligent, imaginative woman struggled to make sense of her life as the city in which she lived was drawn into the turmoil of a catastrophic war. American Book Publishing Record, 1991

The first soup kitchen was a very small, dark little place. It was really only a small space under an archway and cut off from the rest of the station by a door of sacking stretched on a wooden frame. The actual space within the room measured eight feet by seven feet, and in this not very lordly apartment was a small stove which burned and a large one which didn't. There were a few kettles and pots and a little coffee grinder too with a picture of a blue windmill on it for which I conceived an earnest hatred such as inanimate things sometimes inspire in one It was so silly and so inadequate and in order to get enough ground coffee its futile little handle had to be turned all day while the blue windmill looked busy and did nothing and was perfectly cheerful all the time With these not very useful tools to work with and it was very difficult to buy anything at 1 866 7 Furnes at that time there came a rush of work which is not unusual in war time and there was a great deal to do at the kitchen The first convoy of wounded men used to come in about 10 30 a m They arrived always in one of those road trains which are common in Belgium and which make circuits and stop at various small stations We used to hear a horn blown and then the noisy outer door of the station slammed and we knew the train load of men had arrived The sitting cases were always brought in first These were men damaged for the most part in their feet or hands or with superficial scalp wounds or frostbitten They hobbled in or were carried on men s backs or leaned against some comrade s shoulder And across the entrance hall of the station went day and night a long stream of them to pass under the archway and out at the other

World War II London Blitz Diary Vol. 3 Ruby Alice Side Thompson, 2012-03 This diary is the 3rd in a series of four volumes written by Ruby Side Thompson They document her experience about World War Two in England and the London Blitz The diaries are unique written from a woman s experience during war time They include Ruby s opinions written only for the privacy of her diary Her views are often ahead of her time She writes about the war in terms that would have been considered blasphemy if spoken out loud We are fortunate to have this very personal and articulate perspective of that war of seventy years ago March 4 1943 Well today March Fourth I live I still live Last night we had two bad raids The first came at eight thirty and went on until ten p m The second came at four thirty this morning and lasted until a quarter to six Our gunfire was terrific I have not heard yet what damage was done Nothing in this immediate vicinity though when Ted returned from the Home Guard he said one of their officers had come in in an extremely nervous state and said bombs had fallen in Collier Row However when the radio man came this morning about a half and hour ago he said no not Collier Row last night but nearer to Fairlop and Warley the airdromes well we ll know later Whilst the racket is going on I get very sick and retch constantly I can t help it and I can t stop it This morning I feel sore in the ribs as though somebody had kicked me If a bombardment went on for twelve or eighteen hours I think I should expire not from a direct hit but from my one bodily mechanism which will not behave properly and which I can t control no matter how emphatically my will commands it Sheer animal fear over which the soul has no control yes sure it can kill you This blasted war When oh when will it finish If there is anything in this world stupider than war I have never heard of it Men deliberately destroying mankind men deliberately destroying the entire world could there possibly be anything more insane Well I pray like mad God be merciful to me a sinner Deliver us from evil Oh deliver us from evil
