Love Beyond Death The Anatomy Of A Myth In The Arts:

Love Beyond Death Rudolph Binion,1993-02 Identifies a trend in 19th century art and literature that reconciled love and death demonstrates how it constituted a break from ideas in the premodern era and surveys some of its modern manifestations Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Love Beyond Death Binion,1995-06-01 Greek Myth and Western Art Karl Kilinski,2013 This richly illustrated book examines the legacy of Greek mythology in Western art from the classical era to the present Tracing the emergence survival and transformation of key mythological figures and motifs from ancient Greece through the modern era it explores the enduring importance of such myths for artists and viewers in their own time and over the millennia that followed Encyclopedia of Comparative Iconography Helene E. Roberts,2013-09-05 First published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Life Within Stephen Houston,2014-03-25 Beautifully written and illustrated The Life Within is the first full study of the vitality and materiality of Classic Maya art and writing and the quest for transcendence and immortality Women and Death 3 Clare Bielby,Anna Richards,2010 Studies representations of women and death by women to see whether and how they differ from patriarchal versions Ophelia and Victorian Visual Culture Kimberly Rhodes,2017-07-05 Kimberly Rhodes s interdisciplinary book is the first to explore fully the complicated representational history of Shakespeare s Ophelia during the Victorian period In nineteenth century Britain the shape function and representation of women s bodies were typically regulated and interpreted by public and private institutions while emblematic fictional female figures like Ophelia functioned as idealized templates of Victorian womanhood Rhodes examines the widely disseminated representations of Ophelia from works by visual artists and writers to interpretations of her character in contemporary productions of Hamlet revealing her as a nexus of the struggle for the female body s subjugation By considering a broad range of materials including works by Anna Lea Merritt Elizabeth Siddal Dante Gabriel Rossetti and John Everett Millais and paying special attention to images women produced Rhodes illuminates Ophelia as a figure whose importance crossed class and national boundaries Her analysis yields fascinating insights into high and mass culture and enables transnational comparisons that reveal the compelling associations among Ophelia gender roles body image and national identity Wounds of Love Frank Graziano,2004-01-15 The Peruvian mystic St Rose of Lima Isabel Flores y Oliva 1586 1617 was canonized in 1671 as the first saint of the New World and remains the object of widespread devotion today In this engrossing new study Frank Graziano uses the example of St Rose to explore the meaning of female mysticism and the way in which saints are products of their cultures Virginitly austerity eucharistic devotion incessant mortification and mystical marriage to Christ characterized the devotional regimen that structured St Rose s entire life Many of her mystical practices echo the symptoms of such modern psychological disorders as masochism depression hysteria and anorexia nervosa Graziano offers a sophisticated argument not only for the origins and meaning of these behaviors in Rose s case but also for the reason her culture venerated them as signs of sanctity In the process he explores a wide range of themes from the idea of suffering as an expression of love to the assimilation of childhood trauma through religious repetition Graziano also offers a penetrating analysis of the politics of Rose s canonization He finds that her mystical union with God bypassing the institutional channels of sacrament and priestly mediation was inherently subversive to the bureaucratized Church Canonization was a cooptation by which Rose s competing claim to Christ was integrated into the Catholic canon The book concludes with a fascinating exploration of mystical eroticism with its intense experiences of vision and ecstasy The eroticized suffering of many mystics is shown to be very human in origin the mystic s wounded love is projected onto a God conceived to accommodate it Wounds of Love is based on a decade of research in archives rare books and an extraordinary range of secondary sources Introducing an innovative method that integrates history cultural studies psychoanalysis and clinical psychology this compelling work offers a bold new interpretation of female mysticism magical transformations of death into eternal life afterlives or resurrections the need to cope with death and deny its terror and effect are the sine qua non of religion culture ideology and belief systems in general Death and Delusion Jerry S. Piven,2006-09-01 This book argues that conventional interpretation of Freudian psychology has not accounted for the death anxiety and its relation to illusions and delusions It contends that there is evidence to support the view that death anxiety is a very normal and central emotional threat human beings deal with by impeding awareness of the threat The Conformists Evgenija Garbolevsky,2011-05-25 The complexities and paradoxes of the Bulgarian film industry during the era of Communist rule 1945 1989 are explored This influential industry was mobilized for the needs of the state During its creation and development cultural institutions and those involved in film production operated within a relatively closed system based on rewards and punishments imposed by the Communist bureaucratic apparatus Sub textual content in films produced in Bulgaria during this period highlights the attitude of the elite towards the regime Understanding this multifaceted relationship helps explain why so many intellectuals found the film industry to be an attractive field in which to work and decided to remain loyal to the regime instead of leaving or openly rebelling against it This work challenges the historiographical perception that the arts in the Eastern Bloc during the Cold War were largely unsuccessful vehicles of propaganda and dissent By using a comparative methodological approach the cinema arts in the East and West are shown following similar paths despite the Iron Curtain Provided by publisher Psychological Undercurrents of History Henry Lawton,Jerry S. Piven,2001 Psychological Undercurrents of History gathers together salient works of scholarship which endeavor to interpret the madness and imagination of our past from ancient religion to the Holocaust to Millennialism and Apocalyptic violence Life Sentences Zohreh Bayatrizi,2008-01-01 Zohreh Bayatrizi examines the many concerted attempts from the last 350 years to strip death of its mystery and to order manage and transform it from an individualized and fatalistic event to a social phenomenon that allows intervention Eroticisms Jerry S. history literature and film on how this irrational behavioral mechanism works Cyberpunk & Cyberculture Dani Cavallaro, 2000-04-01 Cyberpunk and Cyberculture explores the work of a wide range of writers Acker Cadigan Rucker Shierley Sterling Williams and of course Gibson setting their work in the context of science fiction other literary genres genre cinema from Metropolis to Terminator to The Matrix and contemporary work on the culture of technology The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 31 Jerome A.
