Love Me No More:

Psychorealism Lee Ann Montanaro, Alberto Stefana, 2024-12-30 This book brings Grace Pailthorpe's previously unpublished work to readers for the very first time and explores the profound impact of early childhood development on one's psychological well-being. Through her innovative concept of psychorealism, Pailthorpe offers a unique blend of art and psychoanalysis aimed at understanding and balancing the human psyche. The book delves into the mechanisms by which infants develop fundamental psychological patterns. Pailthorpe argues that understanding these early developmental stages is crucial for addressing psychological imbalances. Psychorealism, as she defines it, involves creating art free from conscious interference, allowing for the pure expression of psychic realities. This form of automatic creativity offers fresh insights into the symbolic essence of the psyche and its influence on human behaviour. By analysing psychorealist art, Pailthorpe illuminates the complex facets of human behaviour and provides a novel perspective on the interplay between the unconscious mind and artistic expression. Pailthorpe's research stands out for its originality and practical application. Her work not only enriches the field of psychoanalysis but also provides valuable tools for therapeutic practices. This book is particularly useful for psychologists, art therapists, and scholars interested in the intersections of art and psychology, offering new methods for understanding and treating psychological issues through creative expression. This approach will also appeal to general readers, librarians, and booksellers with its intriguing integration of art and psychology. Love Me or Love Me not

Francis G. Faithfull, 2023-12-23 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 Love's Blood Clark Howard, 1994-08-15 When businessman Frank Columbo, his wife Mary, and their 13-year-old son Michael were savagely murdered on their suburban Chicago home, one thought raced through everyone's mind: who would tell Patty? But Patty already knew. Led into an adult world of drugs and kinky sex parties by Frank DeLuca, a married man twice her age, the fifteen-year-old had become his sexual slave. Desperately, blindly devoted to him when her parents divorced, their daughter's shocking secret life enraged her father, who threatened to kill them both. But the lovers struck first, leaving a scene of appalling family carnage, rowing into womanhood in a maximum security prison. Patricia Ann Columbo has finally revealed to author Clark Howard what really happened that dark and fateful night. From their intimate conversations comes a chilling first-hand view of cold-blooded murder and a twisted love gone horribly wrong.
