Love Of God In China The Can One Be Both Chinese And Christian

Peter Tze Ming Ng

Love Of God In China The Can One Be Both Chinese And Christian:

The Love of God in China John Peale, 2005 This well researched and thorough work presents Chinese Christianity in a way that will lead Christians and others to better understand their faith and China The Love of God in China examines various aspects related to Christianity in this socialist country including the status of Chinese Christian churches the policy of Chinese government for state control of religion the attitudes of Chinese people towards Christianity theological perspectives in China the Chinese perception of religious principles successful efforts to cultivate Chinese Christianity Author John Peale objectively presents the competing and conflicting positions of the diverse Chinese Christian groups As he identifies the challenges faced by Christian individuals and churches in China he not only suggests resolutions but also proposes what Western Christians could learn from their Chinese family in the faith Peale explores the ways Christianity can be submerged into Chinese culture

The Role of Religious Culture for Social Progress in East Asian Society Juan Francisco Martinez, Kwangsuk Yoo, Brian Byrd, 2023-03-29 Religious culture is an important keyword for understanding rapidly changing East Asian society especially China Japan and Korea Despite the common influence of Confucian culture on these countries each has shown a very different pattern of social progress in modern and postmodern times Although surveys report a low ratio of religious identification and membership in this region people in this area are religious in a different way from Western societies and religious culture is closely related to political economic and social subsystems A real force of changing East Asian society is not only political powers or economic classes but also an invisible culture based on religious belief and practice This book focuses on the dynamic relationship between social progress and religious culture organization or movements in each society since 1945

The Catholic Church, The Bible, and Evangelization in China Cindy Yik-yi Chu, 2022-01-01 This edited volume starts from the perspectives of Beijing in how it sees that religion should serve the interests of the state From China's viewpoint religion should act as a stabilizing force of society or else the Christian Churches will lose their reason for existence This might be incomprehensible to Western Christians who believe in the freedom of religion and their right to embrace their faith This collection of articles represents the concerted efforts of Chinese Italians and an American who live in China Europe and the United States and belong to different disciplines such as History Religious Studies and Language Studies to promote a better understanding of the Catholic Church in the world and in China

The "Inscrutably Chinese" Church Nathan Faries, 2010-01-01 The first half of the twenty first century promises to be a time of great change for the Christian church in the People's Republic of China The situation is complex and fluid and the information gap between those on the inside and those outside of China is still significant though shrinking The Inscrutably Chinese Church moves readers nearer to the Chinese Christian experience as Nathan Faries helps foreign readers to see with greater clarity just how Chinese Christians view their government and themselves in relation to those ruling powers There still exists a measure of inscrutability about China and its complex relationship with religion that must be explained to the outsider It is this gap in understanding between insider points of view within China and those outsiders seeking knowledge about the Christian faith in China that Faries seeks to close The Chinese Christology of T. C. Chao Yongtao Chen,2016-09-19 This volume offers a careful analysis of the contextual Christology of T C Chao one of the most important Chinese theologians and Chinese church leaders in the first half of twentieth century At the core of Chao s Christology is the encounter between Christianity and the Chinese people in particular the Chinese Christians In response to the rapid social changes in China between 1910 1950 he attempted to develop a relevant theology by focusing on the characteristics of Christianity and at the same time aiming to understand Christianity within its Chinese context A History of Christian Missions in China Kenneth Scott Latourette,1929 Chinese Affairs ... ,1921 Naturalization of Christianity in China Frank Joseph Rawlinson,1927 China's Millions ,1883 The Way of the Sea Roald Kverndal,2008-01-01 The sea has been both a source of bounty and a bridge of communication through the ages The Way of the Sea explores the unique role of seafarers in promoting the revealed plan of the Creator and Redeemer of both land and sea As a follow up to The Seamen s Mission Kverndal s comprehensive survey of maritime mission presents both historical and current perspectives While The Way of the Sea provides a much needed tool for the developing field of maritime Missiology people from all walks of life will learn from the rich history and culture of kingdom minded seafarers China Christian Year Book ,1929 The China Christian Year Book ,1929 Sino-Christian Studies in China YANG Huilin,Daniel H. N. YEUNG,2009-05-27 In the 1980s there was a wave of introducing western thoughts in the academia of Mainland China The significance of this movement is regarded by some Chinese scholars as another Enlightenment since the May 4th movement 1919 In this movement there was a small group of Chinese scholars who thought that subtle interaction between Christian thought and western culture and academic should be noticed The aim of this book is at reporting this academic movement which is still active and dynamic today This book includes 22 essays written by authors from Mainland China and overseas who may be intra or extra ecclesia But all of them are prominent in their respective geographical and academic area This is the first book introducing to the English speaking world the origin and development of Sino Chirstian Studies and Sino Christian Theology systematically God Is Love K. H. Ting,2004 This collection of writings is a reflection of Bishop Ting s thoughts and opinions in a changing political and spiritual environment that have existed over the past 57 years The Oxford Handbook of the Bible in China Khiok-Khng Yeo,2021 The Oxford Handbook of the Bible in China deftly examines the Bible s translation expression interpretation and reception in China Forty eight essays address the translation of the Bible into China s languages and dialects expression of the Bible in Chinese literary and religious contexts Chinese biblical interpretations and methods of reading and the reception of the Bible in the institutions and arts of China This comprehensive and unique volume presents insightful succinct and provocative evidence about and interpretations of encounters between the Bible and China for centuries past continuing into the present and likely prospects for the future

China Centenary Missionary Conference Records ,1907 Religion, Secularism, and Love as a Political Discourse in Modern China Ting Guo,2025-10-01 What is the meaning of love in modern Chinese politics Why has ai love been a crucial political discourse for secular nationalism for generations of political leaders as a powerful instrument to the present day This book offers the first systematic examination of the ways in which the notion of love has been introduced adapted and engineered as a political discourse for the building and rebuilding of a secular modern nation all the while appropriating Confucianism Christianity popular religion ghost stories political religion and their religious affects The insights of this exploration expand not only the discussion of the role of emotions in the project of Chinese modernity but also the study of affective governance and religious nationalisms around the world today Christian Advocate ,1910

Christian Values in Communist China Gerda Wielander,2013-10-08 This book argues that as new political and social values are formed in post socialist China Christian values are becoming increasingly embedded in the new post socialist Chinese outlook It shows how although Christianity is viewed in China as a foreign religion promoted by Christian missionaries and as such at odds with the official position of the state Christianity as a source of social and political values rather than a faith requiring adherence to a church is in fact having a huge impact The book shows how these values inform both official and dissident ideology and provide a key underpinning of morality and ethics in the post socialist moral landscape Adopting a variety of different angles the book investigates the role Christian thought plays in the official discourse on morality and love and what contribution Chinese Christians make to charitable projects It analyses key Christian publications and dedicates two chapters to Christian intellectuals and their impact on political liberal thinking in China The concluding chapter highlights gender roles the role of the Chinese diaspora and the overlap of the government and Christian agenda in China today The book challenges commonly held views on contemporary Chinese Christianity as a movement in opposition to the state by showing the diversity and complexity of Christian thinking and the many factors influencing it Chinese Christianity Peter Tze Ming Ng,2012-02-03 This volume attempts to review the historical development of Chinese Christianity from a global local or glocalization perspective It includes chapters on the Boxer Movement Chinese indigenous movements and Christian higher education and also contains seven biographical chapters The author expounds upon the interplay of universal and particular aspects as well as the global and local forces which shaped the characteristics of Chinese Christianity in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century This work focused on China could have wider implications for modern scholarship both in the fields of comparative history of education and modern Chinese church history for those scholars who are exploring the dialogical interplay between global and local Christianities
