medieval Spain hetero and homo erotic love poems written by Muslim and Jewish religious scholars in which the lover and his sensual experience of the beloved are compared to scriptural characters and storylines This book examines the ways in which the scriptural referents fit in with or differ from the traditional Andalusian poetic conventions The study then proceeds to compare the scriptural stories and characters as presented in the poems with their scriptural and exegetical sources This new intertextual analysis reveals that the Jewish and Muslim scholar poets utilized their sacred literature in their poems of desire as more than poetic ornamentation in employing Qur'anic heroes in their secular verses the Muslim poets presented a justification of profane love and sanctification of erotic human passions In the Hebrew lust poems which utilize biblical heroes we can detect subtle subversive and surprisingly placed interpretations of biblical accounts Moving beyond the concern with literary history to challenge the traditional boundaries between secular and religious poetry this book provides a new multidisciplinary approach to existing materials and will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Islamic and Jewish Studies as well as to those with an interest in Hebrew and Arabic poetry of Islamic Spain

Between Hebrew and Arabic Poetry Yosef Tobi, 2010-07-14 The book includes sixteen studies about medieval Hebrew poetry compared with Arabic poetry It is well known that since the tenth century medieval Hebrew poets took Arabic poetry as the ultimate paradigm in terms of prosody language purism and rhetorical devices and even in regard to poetical genres However the concept unifying all studies in this book is that a comparative examination must consider not only the identical elements in which Hebrew poetry borrowed from the Arabic one but also what is much more significant what Hebrew poetry stubbornly set itself at a distance from Arabic poetry The conclusive result of this sort of examination is that Hebrew poetry combined selectively borrowed Arabic poetical values with traditional ethical Jewish values to create a distinctive poetical school

The Writing of Yehuda Amichai Glenda Abramson, 2012-02-01 Yehuda Amichai is an Israeli poet of international distinction Known as Israel s master poet Amichai conveys a portrait of life in modern Israel summarizing and reflecting all the major preoccupations of his generation Unlike most of his Israeli contemporaries he explores the alteration of Jewish perspectives the loss of religious orthodoxy and the nature of Jewish identity in the mid 20th century He illuminates the dislocation of Jewish life after the Holocaust and the dilemma of response on the part of young Israelis His poetic language is rich in figuration and laced with quotations from classical Jewish texts which he manipulates into ironic discourse with the problems of the present Echoing the 17th century metaphysical poets Amichai s writing reveals a tussle between physical love and spirituality its tension lies in his failure to synthesize both in religious faith Abramson presents a detailed critical description and thematic analysis of Amichai s work with reference to the historical background from which it has emerged The problems of an emerging national culture are seen subjectively through the eyes of one of its most sensitive and perceptive literary observers A German and English Dictionary Karl Breul,1906
