Seymour, 2023-08-20 On Valentine's Day 1945 the gruesome murder of a crippled hedgecutter Charles Walton shocked the townspeople of Stratford upon Avon With its simmering links to Satanic ritual the murder remains a mystery one of Scotland Yard's rare cold cases a crime as relevant today as it was eighty years ago On a cold mist shrouded February evening the 74 year old Charles Walton was found on the slopes of Meon Hill in the rural parish of Upper Quinton Warwickshire He had been impaled to the hard earth by a pitchfork driven through his neck Walton's attacker had bludgeoned him with his own stick then cut his throat with a slash hook According to press reports the sign of the cross had been carved into the laborer's neck Required to solve this difficult crime Alec Spooner the local Warwickshire head of C I D joins forces with London's crime fighter Robert Fabian to determine the murderer's identity and whereabouts They soon discover signals indicating the possible influence of witchcraft or paranormal activity Reluctant to reveal to Fabian that he wants to dig deeper into these heretical theories Alec can't ignore others who want his help to reveal the unknown forces believed to cause the death of Edith's dear uncle Charles When the highly desirable medium Sam Zawulich an early advocate of Charles attempts to make contact with him on the other side she discovers she can't succeed without Alec Spooner's help As most of his other conventional attempts to find the killer fail Alec weakens and agrees to help Sam convene with Charles' spirit Unfortunately the communion of the living and the dead does not go according to plan and further death complicates any rightful conclusion to the matter Spooner unable to win over Sam and resigned to losing his case can only find satisfaction in the knowledge that his book about the investigation may help others to finally find the real killer after he is gone In the meantime Alec and Sam reveal countless inequities in a system of justice still beholden to money and ironclad tradition

Psychotherapy of Character: The Play of Consciousness in the Theater of the Brain Robert A. Berezin, 2015-06-18 Eddie's mother was up on a ladder cleaning the kitchen ceiling when her water broke She was annoyed at the interruption and the mess Contemporary psychiatry has fallen under the sway of biological reductionism where our patients do not receive proper care They are treated primarily or exclusively with psychoactive drugs The result has been a pharmaceutical epidemic with psychiatric drug sales topping 70 billion a year Pharmaceutical psychiatry ignores the complexities of the human condition as if the agency of human suffering can be cured by a pill Eddie never really enjoyed swimming he couldn't stop water from pouring into his nose and sinuses It didn't occur to him to tell his counselors never mind his parents where he could have gotten nose clips It didn't occur to him that anyone would be responsive to his needs In Psychotherapy of Character Dr Berezin presents a much needed alternative to the prevailing doctrine one that is grounded in an understanding of human nature Suffering is not a brain problem it is a human problem He illuminates the practice and effectiveness of psychotherapy through the story of his patient Eddie Eddie s complicated inner life varied experiences and ultimate breakthrough stand in contrast to the destructive and false promises of a magical cure He introduces a new and inclusive paradigm of consciousness for the twenty first century On the surface he lived a successful college life Eddie was due to graduate with honors and was accepted into a prestigious PhD program in biology All the while he felt alone and dead inside No one really knew him
