Leo with gentle persistence introduces Elara to the silent symphony of nature and in turn Elara's artistic expression finds a new richer resonance. Their love story culminates not in grand gestures but in a deeply moving composition. The Song of Our Love. This symphony born from their intertwined lives encapsulates their journey from initial discord to a tender melody of acceptance and a triumphant explosion of boundless love. Through Leo's music Elara discovers that her silent art has found its voice proving that true harmony isn't about sameness but about two uniquely beautiful souls finding their perfect rhythm in the shared symphony of love and life. The Pacific Unitarian, 1912 Love Your Mother Mallory McDuff, 2023-04-11

From elder voices opposing the Dakota Pipeline to young people running for office to advocate for change every day we see real life stories about how women are making a collective difference on climate justice. Women are also disproportionately impacted by climate change and thus are critical to transforming society away from dependence on fossil fuels and toward renewable energy and environmental equity. As a mother and a professor of environmental education Mallory McDuff wanted to give her two daughters and her students a roadmap to engage in climate justice in their communities rather than be left feeling paralyzed by the enormity of the problem. She set out to find women of diverse ages backgrounds and vocations one from each of the fifty US states as inspiration for a new kind of leadership focused on the heart of the climate crisis. Love Your Mother lifts up the stories of these women working toward a viable future from farmer and rancher Donna Kilpatrick in Arkansas to writer Latria Graham in South Carolina. From Alabama to Alaska from Wisconsin to Wyoming these women are poets physicians climate scientists students farmers writers documentary filmmakers and more. Their work lights the way for conversation and collective action in our homes and in the world. It's time we follow their lead. Surrender: A Love Letter to My Daughter Lou Alpert, 2021-05-21
