Give Us This Day Devotionals, Volume 1 Charles Erlandson,2020-12-18 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament Fr Charles writes for the whole person he's not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual's life but also to the life of the church At the end of each day's devotional an appropriate prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day's lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer

Thinking with Kierkegaard Arne Grøn,2022-12-31 Arne Grøn's reading of Søren Kierkegaard's authorship revolves around existential challenges of human identity The 35 essays that constitute this book are written over three decades and are characterized by combining careful attention to the augmentative detail of Kierkegaard's text with a constant focus on issues in contemporary philosophy Contrary to many approaches to Kierkegaard's authorship Grøn does not read Kierkegaard in opposition to Hegel The work of the Danish thinker is read as a critical development of Hegelian phenomenology with particular attention to existential aspects of human experience Anxiety and despair are the primary existential phenomena that Kierkegaard examines throughout his authorship and Gr n uses these negative phenomena to argue for the basically ethical aim of Kierkegaard s work In Gr n s reading Kierkegaard conceives human selfhood not merely as relational but also a process of becoming the self that one is through the otherness of self experience that is the body the world other people and God This book should be of interest to philosophers theologians literary studies scholars and anyone with an interest not only in Kierkegaard but also in human identity Fifteenth-Century Studies William C.

Marion, Love, and Nihilism Matthew C. Kruger,2024-11-19 The foundation of this book is the work of Jean Luc Marion who writes at length about the problems of vanity and nihilism and offers an answer in love specifically Christian love A complication that arises however is that Marion argues that love is absent in the respective responses to nihilism of Friedrich Nietzsche and Martin Heidegger two figures who play a key role in the development of his thought and who also have their own notions of love In Marion Love and Nihilism Matthew C Kruger explores this series of questions by providing first an overview of the responses to nihilism found in these figures then a close reading of Marion's thoughts on the matter before moving to accounts of the concept of love in Nietzsche and Heidegger The book then finishes with a further critique of Marion's work relying on the thought of Nishitani Keiji Kruger argues that while Marion correctly identifies an answer in love as did Heidegger Nietzsche and Nishitani in their own ways Marion's thought ends in world denial and thus fails find a complete answer to nihilism The Lutheran
