Love Marriage:

Gospel Love, Marriage and Divorce Randall Lamb, 2020-03-05 The centrality of God in all things is not a novel concept to Christianity at least not in theory For centuries it would appear that the Church has somehow allowed herself to remove the God centered gospel definition from marriage and has subsequently fashioned a culturally subjective definition of love marriage and divorce that has left God in many respects far from the center This book however will pay less attention to our own domestic legacies of love marriage and divorce It is more so about the church covenants conditions true fidelity perseverance God centered joy authenticity fraud legalism and apostasy It is a journey into the kingdom of God wherein the visible and invisible church along with love marriage and divorce all seem to collide with the gospel of glory and grace

H.

Green, 2009-04-02 D. H. Green shows how German romances found ways to debate and challenge the conventional antifeminism of the medieval period. Making the Right Choice Asha L. Abeyasekera, 2021-03-12

Making the Right Choice unravels the entangled relationship between marriage morality and the desire for modernity as it plays out in the context of middle class status concerns and aspirations for upward social mobility within the Sinhala Buddhist community in urban Sri Lanka. By focusing on individual life histories spanning three generations, the book illuminates how narratives about a gendered self and narratives about modernity are mutually constituted and intrinsically tied to notions of agency. The book uncovers how becoming modern in urban Sri Lanka rather than causing inter-generational conflict is a collective aspiration realized through the efforts of bringing up educated and independent women capable of making right choices. The consequence of this collective investment is a feminist conundrum: agency does not denote the right to choose but the duty to make the right choice; hence agency is experienced not as a sense of freedom but rather as a burden of responsibility. The

The God Within Speaks Hazel Sinanan, 2013-09 The God Within Speaks is intended to inspire others to take inward steps through intent, desire and action to allow their higher selves to work and live through them in order to facilitate higher consciousness which will open them up to the flow of the Mighty Source. As the author unites her mind with that of her higher self, she allows her higher self to think with and through her and surrenders to the insights of her higher mind; wisdom flows. The result is inspired thinking that manifests in wisdom teachings aimed at opening up the minds of the readers to contemplate new perspectives and act as a catalyst for truth seeking. Suicide in Sri Lanka Tom Widger, 2015-05-15

Suicide in Sri Lanka Why people kill themselves remains an enduring and unanswered question. With a focus on Sri Lanka, a country that for several decades has reported epidemic levels of suicidal behaviour, this book develops a unique perspective linking the causes and meanings of suicidal practices to social processes across moments, lifetimes and history. Extending anthropological approaches to practice learning and agency, anthropologist Tom Widger draws from long-term fieldwork in a Sinhala Buddhist community to develop an ethnographic theory of suicide that foregrounds local knowledge and sets out a charter for prevention. The book highlights the motives of children and adults becoming suicidal and how certain gender, age, class relationships and violence are prone to give rise to suicidal responses. By linking these experiences to emotional states, it develops an ethnopsychiatric model of suicide rooted in social practice Widger then goes on to examine how suicides are resolved at village and national levels tracing the roots of interventions to the politics of colonial and post colonial social welfare and health regimes Exploring local accounts of suicide as both evidence for the suicide epidemic and as an ethos of suicidality shaping subjective worlds Suicide in Sri Lanka shows how anthropological analysis can offer theoretical as well as policy insights With the inclusion of straightforward summaries and implications for prevention at the end of each chapter this book has relevance for specialists and non specialists alike It represents an important new contribution to South Asian Studies Social Anthropology and Medical Anthropology as well as to cross cultural Suicidology Family Upheaval Mikkel Rytter, 2013-06-01 Pakistani migrant families in Denmark find themselves in a specific ethno national post 9 11 environment where Muslim immigrants are subjected to processes of non recognition exclusion and securitization This ethnographic study explores how why and at what costs notions of relatedness identity and belonging are being renegotiated within local families and transnational kinship networks Each entry point concerns the destructive productive constitution of family life where neglected responsibilities obligations and trust lead not only to broken relationships but also and inevitably to the innovative creation of new ones By connecting the micro politics of the migrant family with the macro politics of the nation state and global conjunctures in general the book argues that securitization and suspicion launched in the name of integration escalate internal community dynamics and processes of family upheaval in unpredicted ways Intimacy in Illegality Flaminia Bartolini, 2021-01-12 How do migrant women living in illegality build intimate relationships How do they experience resist or take advantage of the tight link between intimacy and migration status created by the German migration legislation Drawing on rich biographical accounts and ethnographic methods the book offers an insightful and sensitive look at a mostly unknown aspect of life in illegality Adopting a critical feminist perspective Flaminia Bartolini shows how intimacy should be understood in its intrinsic power dimension and looks critically at the German migration regime and on its effects on migrants lives
