interviews with family and friends were crucial sources for this book Freud had ferocious energy worked day and night but his circle was broad including not just other well known artists but writers bluebloods royals in England and Europe drag queens fashion models gamblers bookies and gangsters like the Kray twins Fierce rebellious charismatic extremely guarded about his life he was witty mischievous and a womanizer This brilliantly researched book begins with the Freuds life in Berlin the rise of Hitler and the family s escape to London in 1933 when Lucian was 10 Sigmund Freud was his grandfather and Ernst his father was an architect In London in his twenties his first solo show was in 1944 at the Lefevre Gallery Around this time Stephen Spender introduced him to Virginia Woolf at night he was taking Pauline Tennant to the Gargoyle Club owned by her father and frequented by Dylan Thomas he was also meeting Sonia Orwell Cecil Beaton Auden Patrick Leigh Fermor and the Aly Khan and his muse was a married femme fatale 13 years older Lorna Wishart But it was Francis Bacon who would become his most important influence and the painters Frank Auerbach and David Hockney close friends This is an extremely intimate lively and rich portrait of the artist full of gossip and stories recounted by Freud to Feaver about people encounters and work Freud s art was his life my work is purely autobiographical and he usually painted only family friends lovers children though there were exceptions like the famous small portrait of the Queen With his later portraits the subjects were often nude names were never given and sittings could take up to 16 months each session lasting five hours but subjects were rarely bored as Freud was a great raconteur and mimic This book is a major achievement a tour de force that reveals the details of the life and innermost thoughts of the greatest portrait painter of our time Volume I has 41 black and white integrated images and 2 eight page color inserts
