Jackson Rushing, Kristin Makholm, 2013-08-08 The work of Chippewa artist George Morrison 1919 2000 has enjoyed widespread critical acclaim His paintings drawings prints and sculptures have been displayed in numerous public and private exhibitions and he is one of Minnesota s most cherished artists Yet because Morrison s artwork typically does not include overt references to his Indian heritage it has stirred debate about what it means to be a Native American artist This stunning catalogue featuring 130 color and black and white images showcases Morrison s work across a spectrum of genres and media while also exploring the artist s identity as a modernist within the broader context of twentieth century American and Native American art Born and raised near the Grand Portage Indian Reservation in Minnesota Morrison graduated from the Minnesota School of Art and the Art Students League in New York City He spent his early career mainly on the East Coast becoming one of the first Native American artists to exhibit his work extensively in New York Best known for his landscape paintings and wood collages he employed a variety of media paint wood ink and metal paper and canvas and developed a unique style that combined elements of cubism surrealism and abstract expressionism In her foreword to Modern Spirit Cherokee artist Kay WalkingStick describes her personal association with Morrison and admiration for his authentic artistic vision Kristin Makholm in her introduction to the volume explores Morrison s ties to Minnesota and his legacy within the history of Minnesota art and culture Then drawing on extensive primary research and Morrison s own writings W Jackson Rushing III offers an in depth analysis of Morrison s artistic evolution against the backdrop of evolving definitions of Indianness By expanding our understanding of Morrison s singular vision Modern Spirit invites readers to appreciate more deeply the beauty and complexity of his art Earth Songs, Moon Dreams Patricia Janis Broder, 2013-12-10 Earth Songs Moon Dreams Paintings by American Indian Women is a celebration of the contributions of Native American women to America s cultural heritage Focusing on both traditional and modern art and offering an historical and stylistic overview

Broder's book includes the work of Native American women belonging to more than forty tribes across the United States and Canada. Earth Songs Moon Dreams features historically important works by pioneer artists of the early twentieth century, classic examples of the Indian School tradition, examples of the first successful attempts to interpret the techniques of modernism as compatible with the symbols and stylistic conventions of traditional Indian art, and examples of the work of the most innovative and accomplished Native American women painting today. Includes over 100 gorgeous full color reproductions. Broder has prepared an introduction on each artist and then presents one or two samples of her work.

Native Americans Today Arlene Hirschfelder, Yvonne Beamer, 2000-01-15 Literature and educational books about Native Americans frequently present stereotypical images or depict the people as they existed hundreds of years ago. Seeking to dispel misrepresentations, this book examines Native American culture as it exists today as well as its historical background. Reproducible activities, biographies of real people, and accurate background information help educators present a realistic and diverse picture of Native Americans in the twentieth century. With each lesson, the authors include a suggested grade level, materials list, objectives, readings, activities, enrichment, extensions, and a list of resources for further study. Chapters cover ground rules, homes and environment, growing up and growing old, a day in the life, communications, arts, economics, and socio-political struggles. Appendixes contain oral history guidelines, global information sources, lists of Native media and related Web sites.

Art for a New Understanding Mindy N. Besaw, Candice Hopkins, Manuela Well-Off-Man, 2018-10-24 Art for a New Understanding an exhibition from Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art that opened in October 2018 seeks to radically expand and reposition the narrative of American art since 1950 by charting a history of the development of contemporary Indigenous art from the United States and Canada, beginning when artists moved from more regionally based conversations and practices to national and international contemporary art contexts. This fully illustrated volume includes essays by art historians and historians and reflections by the artists included in the collection. Also included are key contemporary writings from the 1950s onward by artists, scholars, and critics investigating the themes of transculturalism and pan-Indian identity, traditional practices conducted in radically new ways, displacement, forced migration, shadow histories, the role of personal mythologies as a means to reimagine the future, and much more. As both a survey of the development of Indigenous art from the 1950s to the present and a consideration of Native artists within contemporary art more broadly, Art for a New Understanding expands the definition of American art and sets the tone for future considerations.
