Magic Square Cities In Ancient China:

The Magic Square Alfred Schinz, 1996 Presents the development of Chinese urbanism Equipped with source material and maps this book applies metrological methods Including about 300 drawings it gives an overall view of the urban life and culture that existed in the traditional society of late Imperial China Urban Growth in Ethiopia, 1887-1974 Getahun Benti, 2016-12-20 This book highlights the positive achievements that Imperial Ethiopia made in its journey towards urbanization into the modern era and undertakes a critical assessment of the economic political and social impediments that prevented the country from transitioning into a truly fully fledged modern urbanization It provides a comprehensive history of the growth of towns between 1887 and 1974 It is organized chronologically regionally and thematically divided into three distinct time periods during which Ethiopian towns saw progresses and exposures to limited modern urban features First during 1887 1936 the country saw the creation and growth of a national capital 1887 that coordinated the country's economic and political activities and facilitated the growth of other towns in the empire It introduced new towns the railway modern schools and health centers Rudimentary factories were established in Addis Ababa and Dire Dawa along with motor cars and modern roads which increased trade between cities The next era was the Italian occupation from 1936 1941 which shook the pre existing process of urban growth by introducing a modern European style urbanization system Ethiopian cities saw a qualitatively different way of urban growth in both form and content The Italians introduced modern economic and physical planning administration and internal organization People were introduced to modern life in urban areas exposed to modern wage labor system and thus moved to towns to take advantage of the opportunity The Italian occupation left behind many features of modern urbanization and this influenced population exposed to modern consumptive tastes was determined to retain what the Italians introduced Finally the post Italian period saw a new era of urban growth Due to economic and organizational problems resulting from destructions caused by the war the process of urban growth was slowed down in the early 1940s Although the government did not introduce a clear urban policy in the immediate aftermath of the Second World War towns continued to grow progressively from the early 1950s to 1974 Colours and Contrast Clarence Eng, 2014-11-14 In Colours and Contrast Clarence Eng covers the social history of architectural ceramics in China their development both aesthetically as ornament and technically as durable protective components in ancient Chinese architecture from palaces and temples to pagodas and screen walls Urban Planning and Development in China and Other East Asian Countries Guanzeng Zhang, Lan Wang, 2018-10-29 This book examines urban development and its role in planning in China and other Asian cities Starting with a substantial narrative on the history development philosophy and urban form of ancient Asian cities it then identifies the characteristics of urban society and different phases of development history It then discusses urbanization patterns in China with a focus on spatial layout of the city clusters in the Yangtze River Delta since the 20th Century Lastly it explores institutional design and the legal system of urban planning in China and other Asian cities

As a textbook for the Model Course in English for international students listed by the Ministry of Education in China it helps international researchers and students to understand urban development and planning in Asian cities

Invented History, Fabricated Power Barry Wood, 2020-11-16 Invented History Fabricated Power begins with an examination of prehistoric beliefs in spirits souls mana orenda that provided personal explanation and power through ritual and shamanism among tribal peoples On this foundation spiritual power evolved into various kinds of divine sanction for kings and emperors Sumerian Egyptian Greek Roman Indian Chinese and Japanese As kingships expanded into empires fictional histories and millennia long genealogies developed that portrayed imperial superiority and greatness Supernatural events and miracles were attached to religious founders Hebrew Hindu Buddhist Christian Islamic A unique variation developed in the Roman Church which fabricated papal power through forgeries in the first millennium CE and the later doctrine of discovery which authorized European domination and conquest around the world during the Age of Exploration Elaborate fabrications continued with epic histories and literary cycles from the Persians Ethiopians Franks British Portuguese and Iroquois Indians Both Marxists and Nazis created doctrinal texts which passed for economic or political explanations but were in fact self aggrandizing narratives that eventually collapsed The book ends with the idealistic goals of the current liberal democratic way of life pointing to its limitations as a sustaining narrative along with numerous problems threatening its viability over the long term

And Man Created God Selina O'Grady, 2013-03-26 At the time of Jesus birth the world was full of gods Thousands of them jostled competed and merged with one another In Syria ecstatic devotees castrated themselves in the streets to become priests of Atargatis In Galilee holy men turned oil into wine healed the sick drove out devils and claimed to be the Messiah Every day thousands of people were leaving their family and tribes behind them and flocking into brand new multi ethnic cities The ancient world was in ferment as it underwent the first phase of globalisation and in this ferment rulers and ruled turned to religion as a source of order and stability Augustus the first emperor of Rome though he never dared officially to call himself so was maneuvering his way to becoming worshipped as a god it was one of the most brilliant makeovers ever undertaken by a ruler and his spin doctors In North Africa Amanirenas the warrior queen exploited her god like status to inspire her armies to face and defeat Rome In China the usurper Wang Mang won and lost his throne because of his obsession with Confucianism To explore the power that religious belief has had over societies through the ages Selina O Grady takes the reader on a dazzling journey across the empires of the ancient world and introduces us to rulers merchants messiahs priests and holy men Throughout she seeks to answer why amongst the countless religious options available the empires at the time of Jesus chose the religions they did Why did China's rulers hitch their fate to Confucianism

a philosophy more than a religion And why was a tiny Jewish cult led by Jesus eventually adopted by Rome's emperors rather than the cult of Isis which was far more popular and widespread The Jesus cult followed by no more than 100 people at the time of his death should by rights have disappeared in a few generations Instead it became the official religion of the Roman Empire Why did Christianity grow so quickly to become the predominant world religion What was it about its teachings that so appealed to people And Man Created God looks at why and how religions have had such an immense impact on human history and in doing so uncovers the ineradicable connection between politics and religion a connection which still defines us in our own age This is an important thrilling and necessary new work of history The Crisis of Democracy in the Age of Cities Juval Portugali,2023-10-06 Providing a succinct overview of historical present and future perspectives of cities and urbanism this discerning book examines how the 21st century regarded as the age of cities is associated with the current crisis of democracy Computational Studies on Cultural Variation and Heredity Ji-Hyun Lee,2018-04-17 This book explores the emerging concept of cultural DNA considering its application across different fields and examining commonalities in approach It approaches the subject from four different perspectives in which the topics include theories analysis and synthesis of cultural DNA artefacts After an opening section which reviews theoretical work on cultural DNA research the second section discusses analysis and the other is the methodology used from analysis to synthesis This diverse approach with detailed information about grammar based methodologies toward cultural DNA makes the book unique This book will serve as a source of inspiration for designers and researchers trying to find the essence archetype and the building blocks of our environment for the incorporation of social and cultural factors into their designs Chinese Architecture Nancy Shatzman Steinhardt,2019-05-14 An unprecedented survey of the origins and evolution of Chinese architecture from the last millennia BCE to today Throughout history China has maintained one of the world's richest built civilizations The nation's architectural achievements range from its earliest walled cities and the First Emperor's vision of city and empire to bridges pagodas and the twentieth century constructions of the Socialist state In this beautifully illustrated book Nancy Shatzman Steinhardt presents the first fully comprehensive survey of Chinese architecture in any language With rich political and historical context Steinhardt covers forty centuries of architecture from the genesis of Chinese building through to the twenty first century and the challenges of urban expansion and globalism Steinhardt follows the extraordinary breadth of China's architectural legacy including excavation sites gardens guild halls and relief sculpture and considers the influence of Chinese architecture on Japan Korea Mongolia and Tibet Architectural examples from Chinese ethnic populations and various religions are examined such as monasteries mosques observatories and tombs Steinhardt also shows that Chinese architecture is united by a standardized system of construction applicable whether buildings are temples imperial palaces or shrines Every architectural type is based on the models that came before it and principles established centuries earlier dictate building practices China's unique system has allowed its built environment to stand as a profound symbol of Chinese culture With unprecedented breadth united by a continuous chronological narrative Chinese Architecture offers the best scholarship available on this remarkable subject for scholars students and general readers

The Oxford Handbook of Cities in World History Peter Clark,2013-02-14 In 2008 for the first time the majority of the planet s inhabitants lived in cities and towns Becoming globally urban has been one of mankind s greatest collective achievements over time and raises many questions How did global city systems evolve and interact in the past How have historic urban patterns impacted on those of the contemporary world And what were the key drivers in the roller coaster of urban change over the millennia market forces such as trade and industry rulers and governments competition and collaboration between cities or the urban environment and demographic forces This pioneering comparative work by leading scholars drawn from a range of disciplines offers the first detailed comparative study of urban development from ancient times to the present day The Oxford Handbook of Cities in World History explores not only the main trends in the growth of cities and towns across the world in Asia and the Middle East Europe Africa and the Americas and the different types of cities from great metropolitan centres to suburbs colonial cities and market towns but also many of the essential themes in the making and remaking of the urban world the role of power economic development migration social inequality environmental challenge and the urban response religion and representation cinema and urban creativity Split into three parts covering Ancient cities the medieval and early modern period and the modern and contemporary era it begins with an introduction by the editor identifying the importance and challenges of research on cities in world history as well as the crucial outlines of urban development since the earliest cities in ancient Mesopotamia to the present

Empires of Ancient Eurasia Craig Benjamin,2018-05-03 The Silk Roads are the symbol of the interconnectedness of ancient Eurasian civilizations Using challenging land and maritime routes merchants and adventurers diplomats and missionaries sailors and soldiers and camels horses and ships carried their commodities ideas languages and pathogens enormous distances across Eurasia The result was an underlying unity that traveled the length of the routes and which is preserved to this day expressed in common technologies artistic styles cultures and religions and even disease and immunity patterns In words and images Craig Benjamin explores the processes that allowed for the comingling of so many goods ideas and diseases around a geographical hub deep in central Eurasia He argues that the first Silk Roads era was the catalyst for an extraordinary increase in the complexity of human relationships and collective learning a complexity that helped drive our species inexorably along a path towards modernity

Hans Scharoun and China Liyang Ding,2024-11-15 This book presents the first systematic overview and analysis of the deep connection between Scharoun and China offering insights into East West cultural exchange and enriching existing understandings of modernism The German architect Hans Scharoun has typically been pigeonholed as a leading figure in expressionist architecture As this book shows however this understanding oversimplifies the multifaceted nature of Scharoun s career and overlooks his central role within the tradition of Neues Bauen The book begins with Scharoun s early interactions with East Asian architects in the 1930s his active involvement in the Chinese Werkbund 1941 42 and his extensive research on Chinese architecture and urban culture in the mid 1940s and 1950s The book then examines Scharoun's postwar architectural designs and urban planning projects most notably the Kollektivplan the Volksschule Darmstadt and the Berliner Philharmonie which incorporated original spatial and urbanistic concepts such as Stadtlandschaft Raum der Mitte and a perspectival space inspired to varying degrees by Chinese architectural and urban planning traditions The book will appeal to scholars and students of modern architecture urban planning and architectural theory especially those interested in modernism and East West cultural exchange

A Political History of the World Jonathan Holslag, 2018-10-25 A three thousand year history of the world that examines the causes of war and the search for peace In three thousand years of history China has spent at least eleven centuries at war The Roman Empire was in conflict during at least 50 per cent of its lifetime Since 1776 the United States has spent over one hundred years at war The dream of peace has been universal in the history of humanity So why have we so rarely been able to achieve it In A Political History of the World Jonathan Holslag has produced a sweeping history of the world from the Iron Age to the present that investigates the causes of conflict between empires nations and peoples and the attempts at diplomacy and cosmopolitanism A birds eye view of three thousand years of history the book illuminates the forces shaping world politics from Ancient Egypt to the Han Dynasty the Pax Romana to the rise of Islam the Peace of Westphalia to the creation of the United Nations This truly global approach enables Holslag to search for patterns across different eras and regions and explore larger questions about war diplomacy and power Has trade fostered peace What are the limits of diplomacy How does environmental change affect stability Is war a universal sin of power At a time when the threat of nuclear war looms again this is a much needed history intended for students of international politics and anyone looking for a background on current events

Learning from China Carl Fingerhuth, 2004 The powerful social and cultural transformations of recent decades as expressed in the shape and form of the city need to be examined and reviewed New methods and procedures in urban planning and a new relationship between town and land are urgently required Learning from China calls to mind that seminal work of the post modern Learning from Las Vegas and relates the principles of Taoist thought and action to the perspectives for a new urban design beyond that of today truly post modern

Shanghai Expo Tim Winter, 2012-10-02 In 2010 Shanghai hosted the largest most spectacular and most expensive expo ever Attracting a staggering 73 million visitors and costing around US 45 billion dollars Shanghai Expo broke the records in the history of world's fairs and universal expositions With more than half of the world's population now living in cities many of which face uncertain futures this mega event confronted some of the key challenges facing humanity in the 21st Century with its theme Better City Better Life Just two years after the Beijing Olympics Shanghai Expo encapsulated a moment in history defined by China's rise as a global superpower and by the multiple challenges associated with developing more sustainable cities The thirteen essays here written by a team of interdisciplinary researchers offer a uniquely detailed analysis of this globally significant event Chapters examine displays of futurity and utopia the limitations of inter cultural dialogue and the ways in which this mega event reflected its geo political and cultural moment Shanghai Expo also concentrates on the interplay between declarations towards urban sustainability and the recent economic demographic and socio political trajectories of Shanghai and China more broadly It will appeal to students and scholars of sociology history politics international relations economics Asian studies China studies sustainability and urban studies

Grid Planning in the Urban Design Practices of Senegal Liora Bigon, Eric Ross, 2020-01-01 This book is the first to trace the genealogy of an indigenous grid pattern settlement design practice in Africa and more specifically in Senegal It does so by analyzing how the precolonial grid plan design tradition of this country has become entangled with French colonial urban grid planning and with present day hybrid planning cultures By thus it transcends the classic precolonial colonial postcolonial metahistorical divides This properly illustrated book consists of five chapters including an introductory chapter historiography theory and context and a concluding chapter The chapters text has both a chronological and thematic rationale aimed at enhancing Islamic Studies by situating sub Saharan Africa s urbanism within mainstream research on the Muslim World and at contributing directly to the wider project of de Eurocentrizing urban planning history by developing a more inclusive truly global urban history

Routledge Handbook of Heritage in Asia Patrick Daly, Tim Winter, 2012-03-29 This Handbook is the first major volume to examine the conservation of Asia s culture and nature in relation to the wider social political and economic forces shaping the region today Throughout Asia rapid economic and social change means the region s heritage is at once under threat and undergoing a revival as never before As societies look forward competing forces ensure they re visit the past and the inherited with the conservation of nature and culture now driven by the broader agendas of identity politics tradition revival rapid development environmentalism and sustainability In response to these new and important trends the twenty three accessible chapters here go beyond sector specific analyses to examine heritage in inter disciplinary and critically engaged terms encompassing the natural and the cultural the tangible and intangible Emerging environmentalisms urban planning identity politics conflict memorialization tourism and biodiversity are among the topics covered here This path breaking volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars working in the fields of heritage tourism archaeology Asian studies geography anthropology development sociology and cultural and postcolonial studies
