Museum Rhetoric M. Elizabeth Weiser, 2017-09-25 In today's diverse societies museums are the primary institutions within the public sphere in which individuals can both engage critical thought and celebrate community This volume uses the lens of rhetoric to explore the role these societal repositories play in establishing and altering cultural heritage and national identity Based on fieldwork conducted in over sixty museums in twenty two countries across six continents Museum Rhetoric explores how heritage museum exhibits persuade visitors to unite their own sense of identity with that of the broader civic society and how the latter changes in response Elizabeth Weiser examines what compels communities organizations and nations to create museum spaces and how museums operate as sites of both civic engagement and rhetorical persuasion Moving beyond rhetorical explorations of museums as memory sites she shows how they intentionally straddle the divides between style and content intellect and affect and unity and diversity and why their portrayal of the past matters to civic life and particularly studies of nationalism in the present and future Deeply researched and artfully argued Museum Rhetoric sheds light on the public impact of cultural and aesthetic heritage and opens avenues of inquiry for scholars of museum studies and public history

Spaces of Anticolonialism Stephen Legg, 2025-03-01 Spaces of Anticolonialism is the first book length account of anticolonialism in Delhi as the capital of Britain's empire in India It pioneers a spatial governmentality analysis of the networks mobilizations and hidden spaces of anticolonial parrhesia or courageous speech and actions in the two decades before independence in 1947 Reading across imperial and nationalist archives newspapers memoirs oral histories and interviews Stephen Legg exposes subaltern geographies and struggles across both the new and old cities which have traditionally been neglected in favor of the elite spaces of New Delhi

Presenting the dual cities as one interconnected political landscape Legg studies Indian National Congress efforts to mobilize and marshal support between the mass movements of Civil Disobedience 1930-34 and Quit India 1942-43 The book's six chapters compare the two movements in terms of their public spaces of nonviolent anticolonialism their problematization by violence and their legacies This bottom up analysis focused on the streets bazaars neighborhoods homes and undergrounds of the two cities foregrounds the significance of physical and political space it highlights the pioneering role of women in crafting these spaces and it exposes the microtechniques that Congress used to encourage Gandhi's nonviolence and to tolerate its testing in the face of the rising popularity of the radical left Legg's rereading of Michel Foucault's final lectures on parrhesia produces a bold new approach to questions of postcolonialism resistance and South Asian governmentalities This allows anticolonialism to be read not as an outside but as a coherent and bottom up project of self transformation and space making that was elite coordinated but whose sovereignty lay with a disobedient and not always nonviolent public This book provides an innovative and restive historical geography of spaces of anticolonialism in the capital of contemporary India's 1.4 billion people
