Some Kind of Magic Sonya

Moore,2023-11-11 This is a love story but maybe not the kind you expect It started with an epiphany and a desire to live life more fully One fateful day in 2017 a thirty something American woman up until that point a responsible hard working tax paying citizen decided to leave her home and career and set off to explore the other side of the world That choice led to a three year journey laced with serendipity and unexpected twists of fate that would show her more than she ever could have imagined Joyful and uninhibited this soul nourishing tale of love and adventure intertwined with discovery explores the mystery of life and human nature across cultures and continents from the cloud fringed mountains of Myanmar to the pristine beaches of southern France Sometimes hilarious occasionally shocking always honest this deliciously told travel memoir entertains and captivates while examining synchronicity choice and destiny the roots of happiness and multiple facets of love against a vivid backdrop of some of the world s most beautiful and little known places

Japanese Mandalas Elizabeth ten Grotenhuis,1998-11-01 The first broad study of Japanese mandalas to appear in a Western language this volume interprets mandalas as sanctified realms where identification between the human and the sacred occurs The author investigates eighth to seventeenth century paintings from three traditions Esoteric Buddhism Pure Land Buddhism and the kami worshipping Shinto tradition It is generally recognized that many of these mandalas are connected with texts and images from India and the Himalayas A pioneering theme of this study is that in addition to the South Asian connections certain paradigmatic Japanese mandalas reflect pre Buddhist Chinese concepts including geographical concepts In convincing and lucid prose ten Grotenhuis chronicles an intermingling of visual doctrinal ritual and literary elements in these mandalas that has come to be seen as characteristic of the Japanese religious tradition as a whole This beautifully illustrated work begins in the first millennium B C E in China with an introduction to the Book of Documents and ends in present day Japan at the sacred site of Kumano Ten Grotenhuis focuses on the Diamond and Womb World mandalas of Esoteric Buddhist tradition on the Taima mandala and other related mandalas from the Pure Land Buddhist tradition and on mandalas associated with the kami worshipping sites of Kasuga and Kumano She identifies specific sacred places in Japan with sacred places in India and with Buddhist cosmic diagrams Through these identifications the realm of the buddhas is identified with the realms of the kami and of human beings and Japanese geographical areas are identified with Buddhist sacred geography Explaining why certain fundamental Japanese mandalas look the way they do and how certain visual forms came to embody the sacred ten Grotenhuis presents works that show a complex mixture of Indian Buddhist elements pre Buddhist Chinese elements Chinese Buddhist elements and indigenous Japanese elements
