Magill's Survey of Cinema

This 21-volume core series contains reviews and essays of more than 2,200 films produced in the U.S. and abroad. This exhaustive reference consists of:

English Language Films, First and Second Series—A broad and fascinating overview of films in English, including works of American, British, Canadian, Australian, and Jamaican cinema

Foreign Language Films—A collection of notable essays on 700 foreign-language films from around the world

Silent Films—A compilation of essays on 308 films, general essays on the art of silent films, a glossary of film terms, and a guide to the studios

International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers

Named one of the "Best Books of the '80s" by Booklist, the first edition of St. James Press' International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers became an instant classic. The fourth edition of this four-volume work has been thoroughly updated and expanded and is now lavishly illustrated with portraits and movie stills. Focusing on the most-often-studied artists and works of the genre, each volume's strength comes from the many expert contributors whose critical essays accompany each entry. Volumes include Films, Actors and Actresses, Directors, and Writers and Production Artists.

Schirmer Encyclopedia of Film

This reference provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to film and film studies, covering such aspects as production, national traditions, studios, genres, critical theory, and film history. The encyclopedia's 200 entries cover specific topics including acting, censorship, editing, lighting, and others. Also included are more than 230 career profiles, placing individual achievements in the context of specific topics. Additional features include a comprehensive index; a glossary of film terms; 350 black-and-white and 150 full color photographs; and more.

Magill's Cinema Annual, 1983 Frank Northen Magill, 1983 The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana

Marrone, 2020-10-16 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi's logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi's personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi's creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi's work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities Magill's Cinema Annual 1983 Ryan

Startt,William David Sloan,1989 Handbook of the research methods used to study the history of mass communication Harnessing the Technicolor Rainbow Scott Higgins,2009-02-17 Like Dorothy waking up over the rainbow in the Land of Oz Hollywood discovered a vivid new world of color in the 1930s The introduction of three color Technicolor technology in 1932 gave filmmakers a powerful tool with which to guide viewers attention punctuate turning points and express emotional subtext Although many producers and filmmakers initially resisted the use of color Technicolor designers led by the legendary Natalie Kalmus developed an aesthetic that complemented the classical Hollywood filmmaking style while still offering innovative novelty By the end of the 1930s color in film was thoroughly harnessed to narrative and it became elegantly expressive without threatening the coherence of the film's imaginary world Harnessing the Technicolor Rainbow is the first scholarly history of Technicolor aesthetics and technology as well as a thoroughgoing analysis of how color works in film Scott Higgins draws on extensive primary research and close analysis of well known movies including Becky Sharp A Star Is Born Adventures of Robin Hood and Gone with the Wind to show how the Technicolor films of the 1930s forged enduring conventions for handling color in popular cinema He argues that filmmakers and designers rapidly worked through a series of stylistic modes based on the demonstration restraint and integration of color and shows how the color conventions developed in the 1930s have continued to influence filmmaking to the present day Higgins also formulates a new vocabulary and a method of analysis for capturing the often elusive functions and effects of color that in turn open new avenues for the study of film form and lay a foundation for new work on color in cinema
