Grieve, 2014-01-23 This is an overview of America's first effort in military aid to a foreign sovereign nation at a time when Europe was engaged in open warfare Asia was facing a series of military confrontations and most of the world thought global conflagration was inevitable The work offers insight into the impact of war in Burma a backwater of World War II and examines events that result when great powers go to great lengths to further their own goals The work also examines disagreements among China the United Kingdom the United States and Japan and shows the evolution of aid provision to another country and changing expectations as new information arises

William F. Pinar, 2019-05-08 This primer for prospective and practicing teachers asks students to question the historical present and their relation to it and in so doing reflect on their own understandings of what it means to teach to study to educate and to become educated in the present moment in the places we inhabit Not only the implementation of objectives to be assessed by standardized tests curriculum is communication among older and younger generations informed by academic knowledge and characterized by educational experience Pinar's concept of currere the Latin infinitive of curriculum is invoked to provide an autobiographical
