Tuttle Learning Chinese Characters Alison Matthews, Laurence Matthews, 2011-12-20 This user friendly book is aimed at helping students of Mandarin Chinese learn and remember Chinese characters At last there is a truly effective and enjoyable way to learn Chinese characters This book helps students to learn and remember both the meanings and the pronunciations of over 800 characters This otherwise daunting task is made easier by the use of techniques based on the psychology of learning and memory key principles include the use of visual imagery the visualization of short stories and the systematic building up of more complicated characters from basic building blocks Although Learning Chinese Characters is primarily a book for serious learners of Mandarin Chinese it can be used by anyone with interest in Chinese characters without any prior knowledge of Chinese. It can be used alongside or after or even before a course in the Chinese language. All characters are simplified as in mainland China but traditional characters are also given when available. Key features: Specially designed pictures and stories are used in a structured way to make the learning process more enjoyable and effective, reducing the need for rote learning to the absolute minimum. The emphasis throughout is on learning and remembering the meanings and pronunciations of the characters. Tips are also included on learning techniques and how to avoid common problems. Characters are introduced in a logical sequence which also gives priority to learning the most common characters first. Modern simplified characters are used with pronunciations given in pinyin. Key information is given for each character including radical, stroke count, traditional form, compounds and guidance on writing the character. This is a practical guide with a clear, concise and appealing layout and it is well indexed with easy lookup methods. The 800 Chinese characters and 1033 compounds specified for the original HSK Level A proficiency test are covered.

The Chinese Dark Poet: Huang Xiang and His Colorful World Zhengming Fu (Sweden), Huang Xiang the protagonist of this book was born on 26th December 1941 in Guidong county, Hunan province of central China. After the Communists came to power in 1949, he was imprisoned six times and severely persecuted for his free spirited writing and his campaigns for human rights. For more than thirty years, this self-educated poet and writer wrote secretly against the bondage of totalitarian ideology to safeguard the freedom of speech. According to the author of the book, Huang is a great dark poet who has expressed the painful memories, fears and struggles that haunted his life, creating wonderful poetic beauty in the darkness. His poetic creation is a miracle in the history of Chinese contemporary literature. We may say that Huang's identity as an unknown dark poet is conditioned by his personal emotional and tragic experiences of struggles while facing historical events such as the Cultural Revolution from 1966 to 1976, the April 5th Movement in 1976, the Democracy Wall Movement in 1978 and the Pro Democracy Movement in 1989 in China.
