The Symbolist Movement in the Literature of European Languages Anna Balakian, Anna Elizabeth Balakian, 1984 Edited by Anna Balakian this volume marks the first attempt to discuss Symbolism in a full range of the literatures written in the European languages The scope of these analyses which explore Latin America Scandinavia Russia Poland Hungary Serbia Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria as well as West European literatures continues to make the volume a valuable reference today As Ren Wellek suggests in his historiographic contribution the fifty one contributors not only make us think afresh about individual authors who are giants but also draw us to reassess schools and movements in their local as well as international contexts Reviewers comment that this copious and intelligently structured anthology divided into eight parts traces the conceptual bases and emergence of an international Symbolist movement showing the spread of Symbolism to other national literatures from French sources as well as the symbiotic transformations of Symbolism through appropriation and amalgamation with local literary trends Several chapters deal with the relationships between literature and the other arts pointing to Symbolism at work in painting music and theatre Other chapters on the psychological aspects of the Symbolist method connect in interesting ways to a vision of metaphor and myth as virtually musical notation and an experimental emphasis on the play afforded by gaps between words The volume is a major contribution to the most significant exponents and essential themes of Symbolism The theoretical historical and typological sections of the volume help explain why the impact of this important movement of the fin de siècle is still felt today

The Intellective Space Laurent Dubreuil, 2015-03-20 The Intellective Space explores the nature and limits of thought It celebrates the poetic virtues of language and the creative imperfections of our animal minds while pleading for a renewal of the humanities that is grounded in a study of the sciences

According to Laurent Dubreuil we humans both say more than we think and think more than we say Dubreuil's particular interest is the intellectual space a space where thought and knowledge are performed and shared For Dubreuil the term cognition refers to the minimal level of our mental operations But he suggests that for humans there is an excess of cognition due to our extensive processing necessary for verbal language brain dynamics and social contexts In articulating the intellectual Dubreuil includes the productive undoing of cognition Dubreuil grants that cognitive operations take place and that protocols of experimental psychology new techniques of neuroimaging and mathematical or computerized models provide access to a certain understanding of thought But he argues that there is something in thinking that bypasses cognitive structures Seeking to theorize with the sciences the book's first section develops the intellectual hypothesis and points toward the potential journey of ideas going beyond cognition after and before computation The second part Animal Meditations pursues some of the consequences of this hypothesis with regard to the disparaged but enduring project of metaphysics with its emphasis on categories such as reality humanness and the soul

The Poetry Of The East W. A. Rounseville, The Maias Eça de Queirós, 2007 Carlos heir to a great fortune becomes a doctor and drifts along spending time at the theater reading and having affairs until he falls deeply in love but has to hide a terrible secret

Truth and Interpretation Silvia Benso, 2013-08-01 A resolute defense of philosophy and hermeneutics against the threats of dogmatism and relativism Luigi Pareyson 1918 1991 was one of the most important Italian philosophers to emerge after World War II and stands shoulder to shoulder with fellow hermeneutic thinkers Hans Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur The product of a well developed theory of interpretation that stretches back to the late 1940s his 1971 masterpiece Truth and Interpretation provides the historical impetus and theoretical framework for the questions of existence art and politics that would motivate his most famous students Umberto Eco and Gianni Vattimo In a time when the meaning of truth as an interpretation is challenged by the chaotic din of media on the one side and the violent force of absolute claims from science religion and political economy on the other Pareyson's meditation on the value of thinking that is shaped by the traditions of philosophy and yet responds to contemporary demands remains timely and pressing more than forty years after its initial publication

The Mirror Diary Garrett Hongo, 2017-08-07 A volume in the Poets on Poetry series which collects critical works by contemporary poets gathering together the articles interviews and book reviews by which they have articulated the poetics of a new generation The Mirror Diary tracks the emergence of an original poetic voice and a learned consciousness amid multiple and sometimes competing influences of complex literary traditions and regional and ethnic histories Beginning with a literary inquiry into the history of Japanese Americans in Hawai'i and California Garrett Hongo draws on his own history to consider the mosaic of American identities personal cultural and poetic in the context of a postmodern diaspora Hongo's essays attest to the breadth of what he considers his cultural inheritance and literary antecedents ranging from the poets of China's Tang Dynasty to American poets such as Walt Whitman and Charles Olson. He explains free verse prosody by way of John Coltrane's jazz, praises his contemporaries poets David Mura, Edward Hirsch and Mark Jarman and acknowledges his mentors Bert Meyers and Charles Wright. In other pieces he engages with controversies and contestations in contemporary Asian American literature, confronts the politics of race and the legacy of Japanese American internment during World War II, offers paeans to the Hawaiian landscape and addresses immigrants newly arrived in America with a warm welcome. The Mirror Diary is the work of a poet fully engaged with contemporary politics and poetics and committed to the study and celebration of diverse traditions.

The M.A.I.A. Journey Tamara, 2014-12-09 Alternating back and forth between spirit and matter, between subject and object, between the many levels of vibration, this book is a fragment of my own never ending quest and of my experience alive and therefore limited and subject to change. It is an attempt to share what I have discovered so far using the weapons of a seeker tired of dogmas, opinions and impressions amongst truths hidden in old sayings or fragments of ancient texts by personal revelations based on understanding, comparison and logic and by applying the Universal Laws to the nature of things. The desire for knowledge is not a light burden; it is not easy to want to know and hold on to your goal while going through times when the constant occultation of the answers generates a dose of frustration that goes beyond human endurance. Moreover, it is not easy to share your findings with the world without being considered at least a lunatic, particularly when those findings tend to break well rooted patterns and tear away the ego. The Maia Journey, even though so amazing in its uniqueness for each individual, has a pattern which I have tried to outline in this book. To those on a personal quest, it will be a useful tool; to others, just another reading. To me, it is Manifesting Awareness Inside the All. Tamara A dictionary of poetical illustrations Robert Aitkin Bertram, 1877
