Maii And Cousin Horned Toad:

Lessons from Turtle Island Guy W. Jones, Sally Moomaw, 2002-09-01 The first comprehensive guide to addressing Native American issues in teaching children

Native Peoples, 1992 The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators, Upon publication Anita Silvey's comprehensive survey of contemporary children's literature Children's Books and Their Creators garnered unanimous praise from librarians, educators and specialists interested in the world of writing for children. Now The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators assembles the best of that volume in one handy, affordable reference geared specifically to parents, educators and students. This new volume introduces readers to the wealth of children's literature by focusing on the essentials: the best books for children, the ones that inform, impress and most important, excite young readers. Updated to include newcomers such as J. K. Rowling and Lemony Snicket and to cover the very latest on publishing and educational trends, this edition features more than 475 entries on the best-loved children's authors and illustrators, numerous essays on social and historical issues, thirty personal glimpses into craft by well-known writers, illustrators and critics, and invaluable reading lists by category. The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators summarizes the canon of contemporary children's literature in a practical guide essential for anyone choosing a book for or working with children.

Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey, 1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature, this timely single-volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now, from board books to young adult novels. Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves, it is a cornucopia of delight. 23 color, 153 b/w illustrations.

This Land Is Our Land Agnes Regan Perkins, Alethea K. Helbig, 1994-09-26 How do you select the best recent works of fiction, oral tradition and poetry about African American, Asian American, Hispanic American and Native American Indian experiences and traditions from the profusion of titles being published today? This annotated bibliography of titles for children and young adults published from 1985 through the end of 1993, with 60% published since 1990, provides a one-stop selection tool. Appraisals of 559 titles as well as information about an additional 188 recent books and 90 earlier ones of importance are provided. Each entry features a plot summary, incorporating themes, critical comments with a judgment of the book's value as an example of its genre, suggestions of other books by that writer and related books of importance. The authors, who are recognized authorities in children's literature, and an advisory board of librarians and teachers, each of whom specializes in the literature of a particular ethnic group, have provided insightful critical appraisals and expertise and guidance in the selection of titles. Helpful subject, grade level, author, title and illustrator indexes are organized for ease of use. Titles in the grade level and subject indexes are also identified by ethnic group.

A Broken Flute Doris Seale, Beverly Slapin, 2006-12-21 The Winona dilemma. Lois Beardslee. No word for goodbye. Mary TallMountain. About the contributors.

Teaching the Language Arts Cathy Collins Block, 2001 This book explains and demonstrates with a clear step-by-step approach how communication and thinking competencies can be enhanced through instruction This revision elaborates further on a language arts program built to focus on the needs of individual students Each of the fourteen chapters is divided into three sections covering theoretical foundations practice and professional development giving the text a practical usable organization The second and third sections apply the principles from the first section to the classroom Features in these sections show specific teaching strategies that offer practical ideas for teachers to develop an ongoing and successful teaching repertoire For Language Arts teachers levels Teachers curriculum developers special education teachers parents     Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates,Dianne L.

 Hall Mark,2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature However standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse Cultural Journeys introduces pre service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity More than just an annotated list of books for children Pamela S Gates and Dianne L Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K 8 At the same time the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography this book is a valuable resource that pre service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods     Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Ginny Moore Kruse,1997 A careful selection of children s and young adult books with multicultural themes and topics which were published in the United States
