Reinventions of the Novel, 2021-11-01 The history of the Novel is a story of perpetual change so that its identity still remains open to question. The sixteen articles in Reinventions of the Novel investigate connections, differences, and similarities in the Novel around the world for the past three hundred years. Rather than searching for the essence of the genre, they look for the formal and thematic patterns on which the novel thrives, considering such matters as tradition and modernity, realism, rhetoric, and identity, tableau and spatiality, and wondering whether epic and avant garde are not quite contradictory terms. Close readings combined with historical overviews and theoretical discussions open up new constellations in the history of the novel. Untraditional cross readings are made between Rabelais and Jens Peter Jacobsen and between Balzac and Nicholson Baker. Transformations of traditional modes of epic biography and Bildung are traced as far as Georges Perec and Günter Grass, while canonical classics like Proust, Joyce, Richardson, and Goethe are read in prosaic, pragmatic, and media-specific contexts. In the 1920s, many people predicted the death of the novel; now more than ever, it seems to be the dominant literary form, perhaps because it is the same yet always different.

Entertainment Weekly Numinous Jeffrey C McAndrew, 2019-05-11 This is a novel about a minister's struggle with his own faith It's also a story about the battle within all of us to maintain consistency and integrity of character during life's toughest times In the book Pastor Nathan Simone becomes increasingly more skeptical of the strict rules of organized religion and questions why he is playing this game He enjoys helping others but feels more and more caught in the grips of a troubling ethical crisis fueled by church politics To help him through his journey he sees visions the spirits representing the battle between love and truth The pastor believes that the inspiring visions come directly from God God teaches him that our current conceptions of reality are far off from what really exists and that one needs to be infinitely humble and retain a vibrant wonder about life like a young child gazing at the stars in the night sky It slowly dawns on our main character that religion may be less divinely inspired and more of a creation of mankind The story also contains a surprise conclusion that the reader may not expect
