Feminisms in Motion Jessica Hoffmann, Daria Yudacufski, 2018-10-16 In recent years feminism has been at the forefront of social criticism in the United States but the mainstream face of feminism is still typically white and often focused on gender issues to the exclusion of race class and almost everything else. Meanwhile there are long and rich traditions of women of color centered feminisms that acknowledge all systems of power as connected and recognize how ending one form of violence entails the transformation of society on multiple fronts. From 2007 to 2017 a small Los Angeles based independent magazine called make shift published some of the most inspiring feminist voices of the decade articulating ideas from the grassroots and amplifying feminist voices on immigration state violence climate change and other issues. Feminisms in Motion offers highlights from 10 years of make shift magazine providing a wide ranging look at contemporary intersectional feminist thought and action. We are living in a moment of mounting racist violence xenophobia income inequality climate displacement and war. Intersectional feminism has been creating and pointing toward solutions to these problems for generations. Feminisms in Motion offers ideas critique and inspiration from diverse feminists from Los Angeles to India to Palestine who are pointing toward a world where all people can thrive.
