illustrate what other librarians did to repair and rebuild collections and facilities after experiencing some of the most challenging circumstances imaginable Managing people education and training the creation of a disaster plan the treatment of damaged materials recovery of materials and the successful rebuilding of a library after its complete destruction are all discussed in detail Dealing with Natural Disasters in Libraries examines case studies of different types of disasters and effective responses steps small libraries should take during the first month after a disaster strategies to deal with fire smoke and water damage issues what to do to avoid mold growth after moisture problems or water damage fixing sick buildings dealing with the devastation of Hurricane Katrina post disaster recovery differing responses to minor disasters localized disasters major disasters and catastrophic disasters providing public access to vital information after disasters strike prevention of potential disaster situations and more Dealing with Natural Disasters in Libraries is an essential resource for academic librarians public librarians special librarians school librarians library science faculty and administrators

Drawing from Life Patricia Jonas, 2007 A century ago it was fashionable for young women to collect and paint plants as a sort of genteel parlor skill Some singularly talented women became professionals but their contributions to both art and botany have remained nearly invisible The exhibition Drawing from life features the work of 14 women botanical artists from the first decades of the 20th century to the present focusing on the forgotten art of Brooklyn Botanic Garden's staff artist for 32 years Maud H Purdy Side by side these works reveal how established conventions of botanical art are shaped both by fashions of the times and individual artistic visions Paintings scientific illustrations herbarium specimens preparatory sketches and objects of material culture explore the boundaries between art science and craft and invite us to see plants with fresh eyes Back cover Catalogue of the Specimens and Drawings of Mammalia and Birds of Nepal and Thibet British Museum, Brian Houghton Hodgson, 1846 Paris and Its Environs Findlay Muirhead, Marcel Monmarché, 1924

Remarkable Birds Mark Avery, 2016-09-13 Everything you didn't know about the avian world a fascinating compendium showcasing the extraordinary wonders of birds illuminated with exquisite ornithological illustrations prints and drawings Humans share the Earth with more than 10 000 species of birds and have always been enchanted by them Birds can be a sign of the changing seasons a symbol of freedom or simply a breathtaking vision of beauty Remarkable Birds approaches these fascinating creatures thematically across eight sections covering all aspects of humans relationship with birds Songbirds celebrates the greatest bird virtuosi such as the nightingale while Birds of Prey includes majestic hunters such as the harpy eagle Feathered Travelers describes astounding journeys made by birds including tiny hummingbirds that migrate huge distances The Love Life of Birds illuminates the most brilliant displays upon which different species rely to find a mate notably the extravagant plumage and dances of birds of paradise Avian Cities explores the spectacular large colonies of species such as the flamingo while Useful to Us examines the diverse ways we find birds valuable such as the turkey or the canary Threatened Extinct describes some species that have been lost forever and others on the brink Birds have also had great mystical significance and Revered Adored considers such species as the sacred ibis believed by the ancient Egyptians to represent the god Thoth     Drawing Hands Carl Cheek, 2012-03-08 Pointing to subtle differences between young and old male and female and hands engaged in a variety of activities this concise guide is an indispensable companion for the intermediate student of figure drawing
