Naval Strategy Of The World War:

The Naval Strategy of the World War Wolfgang Wegener, 1989 A reprint of a classic work on German Naval strategy in WWI Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or Naval Strategy and Operations in Narrow Seas Milan N. Vego, 2013-09-05 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Strategy and War Planning in the British Navy, 1887-1918 Shawn T. Grimes, 2012 Overturns existing thinking to show that the Royal Navy engaged professionally in war planning in the years before the First World War It has been widely accepted that British naval war planning from the late nineteenth century to the First World War was amateur and driven by personal political agenda But Shawn T Grimes argues that this was far from the case His extensive original research shows that in fact the Royal Navy had a definitive war strategy which was well thought through and formulated in a professional manner Faced by a perceived Franco Russian naval threat the Admiralty adopted an offensive strategy from 1888 to 1905 based on observational blockade and combined operations This strategy was modified after 1905 for war with Wilhelmine Germany The book shows how specific war plans aimed at Germany s naval and economic assets in the Baltic were drawn up between 1906 and 1908 and that the strategy of primary distant blockade formulated between 1897 and 1907 became a reality in late 1912 and not July 1914 as previously thought The book argues that the Naval Intelligence Department which took a lead in devising these plans was the Navy s de facto staff Overall it is clear that there was a continuity underpinning British thinking about how to wage a naval war SHAWN GRIMES received his PhD in history from the University of London and has been a Lecturer in European History at the University of Saskatchewan Maritime Strategy and Sea Control Milan Vego, 2016-04-14 This book focuses on the key naval strategic objectives of obtaining and maintaining sea control During times of war sea control or the ability of combatants to enjoy naval dominance plays a crucial role in that side s ability to attain overall victory This book explains and analyzes in much greater detail sea control in all its complexities and describes the main methods of obtaining and maintaining it Building on the views of naval classical thinkers this book utilizes historical examples to illustrate the main methods of sea control Each chapter focuses on a particular method including destroying the enemy forces by a decisive action destroying enemy forces over time attrition containing enemy fleet choke point control and capturing important enemy s positions basing area The aim is to provide a comprehensive theory and practice of the struggle for sea control at the operational level It should therefore provide a guide to practitioners on how to plan and conduct operational warfare at sea The book will be of much interest to students of naval strategy defence studies and security studies War at Sea in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance John B. Hattendorf, Richard W. Unger, 2003 Wide ranging in place and time yet tightly focused on particular concerns these new and original specialist articles show how observations on the early history of warfare based on the relatively stable conditions of the late seventeenth century ignore the realities of war at sea in the middle ages and renaissance In these studies naval historians firmly grounded in the best current understanding of the period take account of developments in ships guns and the language of public policy on war at sea and in so doing give a stimulating introduction to five hundred years of maritime violence in Europe BOOK JACKET World War II in Europe David T. Zabecki, 2015-05-01 World War II defined the 20th century and shaped many events from the decolonization of Africa to the rise and fall of the Berlin Wall This encyclopedia offers a focused overview of this complex and volatile era the circumstances that led up to war the underlying causes its unfolding and consequences Organized for quick and precise access More than 1300 entries by 150 experts are arranged in six sections for easy reference and consultation All the key ideas events actions weapons individuals and organizations that played vital roles in the war are covered from the Axis Pact to the Arab League from the OSS to the Africa Korps from the Chetniks to the Jedburghs from the battle of Kursk to Operation Mincemeat from Bill Donovan to Otto Skorzeny from Gestapo to SMERSH from Georgi Zhukov to Jean Leclerc from the 88 gun to the Norden Bombsight Covers important neglected subjects The Encyclopedia puts special emphasis on the often neglected operations in Eastern Europe and Russia A key section inspects and rates all the major weapons with handy tables for easy comparison And in recognition of the first large scale participation of women in the war the volume thoroughly documents their individual and unit contributions to the Allied effort Finally the encyclopedia discusses battlefield realities that explain for example why the airborne drops at Normandy succeeded and the ones at Arnheim failed A bibliography glossary maps photographs and weapons and data tables enhance the coverage Also includes 16 maps The American Way of War Russell F. Weigley, 1977 a strong and stimulating book It has no rival in either scope or quality For libraries history buffs and armchair warriors it is a must For political science students career diplomats and officers in the armed services its reading should be required History A particularly timely account Kansas City Times It reads easily but is not a popularized history nor does the book become a history of battles Weigley's analyses and interpretations are searching competent and useful Perspective Harper's Pictorial Library of the World War Albert Bushnell Hart, 1920 ULTRA at Sea John Winton, 1988 Winton describes in exciting detail the ways the Allies acquired Nazi special intelligence and then used it to find and destroy battleships The Evolution of Strategy Beatrice Heuser, 2010-10-14 Is there a Western way of war which pursues battles of annihilation and single minded military victory Is warfare on a path to ever greater destructive force This magisterial account answers these questions by tracing the history of Western thinking about strategy the employment of military force as a political instrument from antiquity to the present day Assessing sources from Vegetius to contemporary America and with a particular focus on strategy since the Napoleonic Wars Beatrice Heuser explores the evolution of strategic thought the social institutions norms and patterns of behaviour within which it operates the policies that guide it and the cultures that influence it Ranging across technology and warfare total warfare and small wars as well as land sea air and nuclear warfare she demonstrates that warfare and strategic thinking have fluctuated wildly in their aims intensity limitations and excesses over the past two millennia Strategic Visions: Probing the Military Minds of Pre-World

War I Germany Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-13 In the years leading up to the First World War Germany was a hotbed of military innovation and debate Prussian generals steeped in the traditions of Clausewitz and Moltke grappled with the challenges of a rapidly changing world Technological advancements from the internal combustion engine to the airplane were transforming the nature of warfare and German thinkers were at the forefront of these developments This book delves into the world of German military thought in the decades leading up to the Great War It explores the intellectual landscape that produced some of the most influential military thinkers of the era men like Alfred von Schlieffen Erich von Ludendorff and Hans von Seeckt Their ideas both brilliant and flawed would profoundly influence the conduct of the war and the fate of nations Through a careful examination of their writings and actions this book sheds new light on the origins of the First World War and the intellectual underpinnings of German strategy It is a timely and important study that offers valuable insights into the causes of war and the challenges of military leadership in an age of rapid technological change

Maritime Strategy and Sea Denial Milan Vego, 2018-12-07 This book focuses on the theory and practice of maritime strategy and operations by the weaker powers at sea Illustrated by examples from naval and military history the book explains and analyzes the strategies of the weaker side at sea in both peacetime and wartime in defense versus offense the main prerequisites for disputing control of the sea and the conceptual framework of disputing control of the sea It also explains and analyzes in some detail the main methods of disputing sea control avoiding seeking decisive encounters weakening enemy naval forces over time counter containment of enemy naval forces destroying the enemy's military economic potential at sea attacks on the enemy coast defense of the coast defense capturing important positions basing areas and defense capturing of a choke point A majority of the world's navies are currently of small or medium size In the case of a war with a much stronger opponent they would be strategically on the defensive and their main objective then would be to dispute control of the sea by a stronger side at sea This book provides a practical guide to such a strategy This book would be of much interest to students of naval power maritime security strategic studies and military naval history

Operational Warfare at Sea Milan Vego, 2017-07-06 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of both the theory and practice of operational warfare at sea and this 2nd edition has been thoroughly revised with two completely new chapters occur on land the overall shape of the war _ even the inevitability of British participation _ arose out of its maritime character. It was essentially a struggle about access to worldwide resources most clearly seen in the desperate German attempts to deal with the American industrial threat which ultimately levered the United States into the war and thus a consequence of British sea control. This radical new book concentrates on the way in which each side tried to use or deny the sea to the other and in so doing it describes rapid wartime changes not only in ship and weapon technology but also in the way naval warfare was envisaged and fought. Combat produced many surprises some like the impact of the mine and torpedo are familiar but this book also brings to light many previously unexplored subjects like creative new tactical practices and improved command and control. The contrast between expectation and reality had enormous consequences not only for the course of the war but also for the way navies developed afterwards. This book melds strategic technical and tactical aspects to reveal the First World War from a fresh perspective but also demonstrates how its perceived lessons dominated the way navies prepared for the Second.

The Royal Navy and the Capital Ship in the Interwar Period Joseph Moretz, 2012-12-06 Joseph Moretz's innovative work focuses on what battleships actually did in the inter war years and what its designed war role in fact was. In doing so the book tells us much about British naval policy and planning of the time. Drawing heavily on official Admiralty records and private papers of leading officers the author examines the navy's operational experience and the evolution of its tactical doctrine during the interwar period. He argues that operational experience combined with assumptions about the nature of a future naval war were more important in keeping the battleship afloat than conservatism in Navy.

The United States Navy in World War II Mark Stille, 2021-11-11 A comprehensive overview of the strategy operations and vessels of the United States Navy from 1941 to 1945. Although slowly building its navy while neutral during the early years of World War II the US was struck a serious blow when its battleships the lynchpin of US naval doctrine were the target of the dramatic attack at Pearl Harbor. In the Pacific Theatre the US was thereafter locked into a head to head struggle with the impressive Imperial Japanese Navy fighting a series of major battles in the Coral Sea at Midway the Philippine Sea Leyte Gulf and Okinawa in the struggle for supremacy over Japan. Having avoided the decisive defeat sought by the IJN the US increased industrial production and by the end of the war the US Navy was larger than any other in the world. Meanwhile in the west the US Navy operated on a second front supporting landings in North Africa Sicily and Italy and in 1944 played a significant part in the D Day landings the largest and most complex amphibious operation of all time. Written by an acknowledged expert and incorporating extensive illustrations including photographs maps and colour artwork this book offers a detailed look at the strategy operations and vessels of the US Navy in World War II.

The Oxford Companion to American Military History, The Marine Corps Gazette, 1965 Warships Associated with World War II in the Pacific Harry A. Butowsky, 1985 The Development of Mine Warfare Norman E. Youngblood, 2006-06-30 In 1997 the International Campaign to Ban Landmines ICBL coordinated the Convention on the Prohibition of the Use Stockpiling Production and

Transfer of Anti Personnel Mines and on their Destruction As of mid 2005 145 states had signed the agreement The ICBL s efforts were in large part a response to the careless use of landmines in the previous fifty years The history of mine use in warfare however goes back much further than the World Wars of the 20th century and includes both land and sea use This first comprehensive study traces the technical tactical and ethical developments of mine warfare from ancient times to the present Beginning with mine warfare s roots in ancient Assyria and China Youngblood takes the reader through the centuries of debate about how these hidden weapons should be used A look at 19th century developments explores the intertwined development of land and sea mines and the inventors behind them including Robert Fulton Samuel Colt and Immanuel Nobel father of Alfred Nobel Subsequent chapters examine the use of mines in the American Civil War the Russo Japanese War both World Wars and the battlefields of the Cold War and chart key battles and technical innovations such as the development of air delivered munitions Finally the author addresses the ethical concerns raised by the careless mining namely the impact on civilians and the difficulties of de mining and the treaties that regulate landmine use
