and the Soviet Union 1939-1941 Leon J. Weinberger, 2024-12-16      Between Berlin and Moscow Sławomir Dębski, 2025-07-12 Sławomir Dębski's book presents a brilliant reconstruction of the sequence of events from the point at which Germany clinched its rapprochement with the Soviet Union in August 1939 until the open clash of the two totalitarian Powers in June 1941. His book answers key questions for historiography on the motives that prompted Hitler and Stalin to make their deal and why their alliance collapsed. His account of the alternative Soviet plans for an attack against Nazi Germany explains Stalin's conduct in the critical opening days of the war. Dębski offers his readers a set of novel and thoroughly thought out assessments with an original account of diplomatic relations between the Third Reich and the Soviet Union in 1939-1941 based on his examination of the German, Soviet and Polish sources. The study is an invaluable source of information for all who are interested in geopolitics, the background to twentieth century diplomacy and the history of totalitarian states. This book will give readers a deeper insight into the plight of the Polish State and its people wedged between the two twentieth century totalitarian regimes.
